Mrs. Marian O. Shirley
1007 Frederick Dr. S
Indianapolis, IN 46260-3418

Dear Mrs. Shirley:

Thanks a million for the packet of material in response to my 28 March letter. It has taken me this long to reply because I have been going through it in great detail while preparing a draft of the Waters-Tout family. I see now it will take several more weeks to work through the first draft, so I am sending a copy of what I have now, sans the Tout summary still in the inkwell.

One reason for preparing the draft now is to find out what more needs to be done. In particular, it is clear now that more work in Maryland, Pennsylvania, and Kentucky land, tax, and other source records is in order. That process is started, but it will take time.

You will find somewhere in the draft that I have serious doubts about some of the items in the DAR and other applications prepared by Lyman Tout. In particular, the dates of birth of Abraham[1] Tout and his "wife Margaret" don't match other circumstances and appear to be "silent" guesses. More importantly, I see no specific evidence that his wife's name was Margaret, and have presented the tentative onomastic evidence that she was a Lydia. I suspect the name Margaret comes from a record that actually involves Abraham's grandson of the same name, who married Ann Conway in Lewis Co. in 1817, but was living in Fleming Co. in the early 1820s (see p. 6). Ann is a frequent shortcut for the full name Margaret Ann in that locality and time. I hope that a more complete study in Lewis and Fleming Co. records will resolve that question.

Perhaps you noticed that DAR lineage 587575 is very suspicious as presented. It is in fact impossible when compared with contemporary facts. Richard W. Tout is stated (probably correctly) as b. 6 Aug. 1859 in Adams Co., Ill., but of a mother, Elizabeth Tatman, said to be born in 1812, so allegedly aged about 47 at his birth -- possible, but improbable. It is impossible in fact; she was much older. The censuses traced year-by-year from 1830 through 1880 place her birth about 1804, and after 1850, always about 2 years older than her husband John S. Tout b. 1806, consistent with their marriage in 1826. Despite the "Family Record" submitted to support the application, Richard W. Tout was not a son of John S. and Elizabeth (Tatman) Tout. The 1880 census for the Village of Marcelline (p. 27) agrees; "grandson" Richard Tout, aged 22, was in their home. Very likely, Richard W. "Tout" was the son of one of John and Elizabeth's elder daughters and raised in their home.

Generally, I have no doubt now that Abraham Tout's wife was a widow Waters, probably Lydia, mother of his stepdaughters Nancy and Margaret, and of Isaac Waters.

I certainly would welcome any comments, corrections, or additions you may have. As I work through the Tout section, I will have to put together a piece about John and Lydia (Tout) Money. If you have any details you would be willing to share about them and their children, it would help me prepare a brief section like those for the various Waters families.

Again, many many thanks for everything. Enclosed is something for the postage and copying costs for the data you sent.

Sincerely,

Gale I. Harris

THE WATERS-TOUT FAMILY OF PENNSYLVANIA, KENTUCKY, OHIO, AND INDIANA

Gale Ion Harris

Isaac T

Isaac Waters' will in Brown (then Clermont) County, Ohio, in January 1813 included provisions that his son Isaac should have the sorrel colt "which he claims," that he be "put to traide," and that he "goe to his uncle Bazel."[1] The boy's "uncle" is not further identified in this will, nor has any evidence been found that the testator had either a Waters brother or a brother-in-law named Bazel. A dozen years later, in October 1824, Abraham Tout's will in Fleming County, Kentucky, mentioned children Bazel Tout, Elizabeth Stuart wife of John Stuart, "other children," and stepdaughters Nancy Newman wife of Elias Newman, and Margaret Louderback wife of Andrew Louderback.[2] In 1834 Isaac's son Philip Waters moved from Brown County to Hendricks County, Indiana, where he joined Abraham Tout's sons Bazil and Benjamin and their families, who had arrived there a short time before from Fleming County. As late as 1921, Philip Waters' descendants in Hendricks County retained traditional knowledge that when Philip arrived there 87 years before he was "hospitably received by the Tout family who tendered [his family] the use of an empty cabin."[3] They also were able to claim that the mother of their ancestor Isaac Waters "was named Tout."[4]

These facts and traditions were among those known before 1978 when the present writer compiled an account of Isaac Waters and some of his descendants.[5] The data available then, however, provided no identification of Isaac's parents or siblings, no verification of the traditional name Tout for his mother, and no certain explanation for his son's enigmatic "uncle Bazel." The present account attempts to resolve some of these matters by showing what must have been the actual relationship between the Waters and Tout families. In particular, Isaac's yet unidentified father evidently died before 1774 at an early age, and his mother, a widow Waters, married as her second husband Abraham Tout. The boy Isaac Waters' "uncle" was their son Bazil Tout. Abraham Tout's stepdaughters Nancy and Margaret were the elder Isaac Waters' previously unrecognized sisters. Discussions of these points below are followed by four-generation summaries of these interrelated families.

The author and speaker, Samuel Sherman Waters, b. ca. 1865, was a son of Isaac Basil Waters and grandson of Philip Waters.

[5] Gale Ion Harris, Descendants of Isaac and Barbara Waters of Brown County, Ohio [East Lansing, privately published, 1978]).

The earliest available contemporary record date is 18 March 1778, when Abraham Tout and others subscribed to an oath in Harford County, Maryland, renouncing allegiance to King George III.[6] Clearly, he had married several years before; the birth dates of his sons Bazil and Benjamin G. Tout were about 1775 and in 1776, respectively, Bazil possibly in Virginia and Benjamin in Maryland.[7] No record of his marriage or wife's name is yet known. The Hendricks County descendants of Philip Waters, mentioned above, claimed that his father was first in Maryland.[8] Indeed, Waters was a prominent name in 18th century Maryland, but no connection has been established between any of its bearers there and the Isaac Waters of this account. The next available record dates are in 1782, when Abraham Tout and Isaac Waters both saw late Revolutionary War service in western Pennsylvania. That June, Tout was a private in Capt. Wall's company, Second Battalion of Washington County Militia, and next September after Capt. Barr assumed command.[9] On Saturday, 25 May 1782, Isaac Waters set out with troops from that vicinity with Col. Crawford's ill-fated expedition to Sandusky, Northwest Territory [now Ohio], to engage Indians. The 27 privates in Capt. Bunce's company included, besides Isaac, Abraham Tout's future stepson-in-law Elias Newman and one Hugh Gobin who was associated with Waters a few years later.[10] Isaac's age at that time has not been established, but his fellow soldier Elias Newman could not have been more than seventeen years old.[11]

The Washington County tax list of 1783 more precisely locates Abraham Tout's residence as in Peters Township, just south of modern Pittsburgh, where he was assessed for two horses, two cows, and two sheep, but no land.[12] He may have been in that part of Peters Township taken into Allegheny County when the latter was formed in 1788 from Washington and Westmoreland Counties. In June 1788 Isaac Watters witnessed an indenture recorded in Allegheny County whereby his fellow soldier in 1782, Hugh Gobin, and wife Jean transferred to John McKee property in Huntington Township, Westmoreland

See also Bettie Stirling Carothers, "9000 Men who Signed the Oath of Allegiance and Fidelity to Maryland during the Revolution," [Chesterfield, Mo., 1970?], 37, which misprints the name as Abram Tonte and does not show the date.

[7]Bazil was aged 75 in 1850 according to the Federal census for Middle Township, Hendricks County, Indiana, p. 150, which records his birth place as Virginia, the place in agreement with his son William Tout's statement of it in 1880 (census, Adams Co., Ill., p. 147). His brother Benjamin, born 5 May 1776, died in Hendricks Co. 16 Feb. 1839 (G.S., Danville East Cemetery). Census entries for Benjamin's sons Bazil and James in 1880 conflictingly state that their father was born in Pennsylvania and Maryland (Hendricks County, pp. 10, 30).

[8]In 1921 Samuel Sherman Waters related that Isaac "came from England in an early day, hoping to find an older brother who had imigrated to this country and settled in Maryland. It seems that the two brothers, for reasons unknown, never met" (Waters, "Early History of the Waters Family," 1). Presuming that this story preserves some factual elements, presently available data suggest it more likely refers to some knowledge passed down about Isaac's still unidentified father.

[11]As subsequently shown, Elias Newman (also Niman) was in Harrison County, Kentucky by 1800, where the later Federal censuses of 1810 (p. 318) and 1820 (p. 190) together reveal that he was born sometime between 1765 and 1775.

County, adjoining widow McKee, "all of Westmoreland County."[13] It was probably in that same year that Isaac married; his first child, Lydia, was born in Pennsylvania in 1789.[14] His bride, Barbara Onsutler/Unsettler, born between 1760 and 1770,[15] was almost certainly a daughter of Philip Ownsetlar [sic] who had served in the same Washington County militia battalion with Abraham Tout in 1782.[16] The first Federal census, in 1790, places Philip Unsuther [sic] in Versailles Township, Allegheny County (p. 14), with a household then including two females and a male under age 16.[17] McKeesport, in Versailles Township, is situated at the fork of Monongahela and Youghiogheny Rivers, across from Peters township and in the part of Allegheny taken from Westmoreland County. Neither Abraham Tout nor Isaac Waters appear, however, in the printed 1790 census.

SETTLEMENTS IN KENTUCKY AND OHIO

Most likely, the Tout and Waters families were still in Pennsylvania in 1790; Isaac Waters' third child, James, was born there 29 October 1792.[18] By 17 May 1795, however, Isaac was in Mason County, Kentucky, when he was assessed taxes for one male over 21, one [unidentified] male over 16, one horse, and two cows.[19] Presumably, he had arrived there within the year; his name is not found in the extant lists for 1793 and 1794. Similarly, Abraham Tout's son Bazil first appears in records of that county on 11 April 1795, when he bought 50 acres on the Licking River in the part of Mason taken into Fleming County upon its formation in 1798. John and William McCullough, and William McWilliams witnessed. Bazil witnessed the same day when William McCullough bought an adjoining parcel, and four days before when John and Alexander McCullough bought 200 acres from the same [14]Widow Lydia Hodgkins was recorded in the 1850 census for Brown County, Ohio (Fam. No. 255) as aged 62, b. Pa., and in 1860 as aged 70 (Fam. No. 389). Stating her age as 66 years in Sept. 1855, she applied for bounty land in right of her deceased second husband Samuel Hodgkin's Revolutionary War service. See file R5092 and BLW 44806-160-55, National Archives. Lydia was of "Dutch extraction" according to her son-in-law in 1883. See biography of John E. Ellis, The History of Brown County, Ohio [Chicago, W.H. Beers & Co., 1883], "Biographical Sketches," 12, naming Lydia's first husband as Robert (sic) Wright. The next sketch, that of G.L. Ellis, probably states the name correctly as John Wright.

[15]Widow Barbary Waters was aged over 45 at the time of the 1820 census in Pleasant Township, Brown County (p. 376), and was probably the female aged 60-69 in her son Isaac Waters' household there in 1830 (p. 445). For Barbara's variously-spelled surname, see McDowell, History of Hendricks County, 606, where it is Unsettler. In 1921, it was stated that "Barbara Unsettler, by her name proclaims her undoubted Germanic origin, and also by the changes to Elnsettler, from the German Einuedler, shows that she belongs to that German strain known as Pennsylvania Dutch" (Waters, "Early History of the Waters Family," 2). Her great grandson Isaac Wilson Waters (1842-1930) of Ohio and Kansas, a distant and perhaps unknown cousin to the Hendricks County family, recorded that his earliest recalled ancestor, Isaac Waters, was "married to Rachel Onsutler." This statement heads a list of paternal-line ancestors in Isaac Wilson's handwriting preceding contemporary entries of his children's birth dates, etc., in his family Bible (American Bible Society, New York, 1857), now in the writer's custody. The error for her given name, definitely known from contemporary records as Barbara, suggests that he recorded it as traditionally held knowledge, not from an independently available record.

[16]Montgomery, "Muster Rolls," 47, 69.

[17]One of the females may have been Margaret Onsettler who m. Pyam Bartlett, b. 8 Nov. 1772, son of William Bartlett from Beverly, Mass. His father was living in Rostraver Township, Westmoreland Co., Pa., between the Monongahela and Youghiogheny Rivers, near West Newton, where his will was dated 18 Dec. 1794. Widow Joanna Bartlett, in a letter dated Sumrell's Ferry 25 June 1798 to her relatives in Beverly, said of her sons: "Harre [Henry] and Pyam both live at Muskingum and are well. They each have three children, Harre's all girls and Pyam's all boys." Pyam d. in Ohio in Aug. 1820. See Mary Walton Ferris, Dawes-Gates Ancestral Lines (Milwaukee, 1931), 2:88, 89, 537.

[18]The place is from the 1860 census, Brown County, Ohio, Family No. 709; the date is computed from his tombstone in the Pleasant Hill Cemetery, Jackson Township, Brown County: d. 27 Oct. 1866, aged 73y 11m 29d. The 1850 census shows his birth place as Ohio, undoubtedly in error.

grantor.[20] In July 1795, Bazil was married there to Sally Shepherd.[21] Soon after, Alexander McCullough was bondsman there for the marriage of Bazil's younger brother, Benjamin G. Tout, and Sarah McKee. In 1798 Abraham Toutt and his sons Bazel and Benjamin all appear in the first tax lists for newly-formed Fleming County. Except for missing records in 1816 and 1818, all three have been tracked annually in these tax lists through 1821. Beginning in 1801, Abraham's personal assessments are noted as "exempt from taxes," an indication that he had attained an exempt age, probably 60 years.[22]

In 1797, Isaac Waters was assessed for one male over 21 and three horses in Mason County, but he may have been residing in that part taken into Bracken Countly upon its formation that year. By an indenture dated 19 February 1798, Isaac Waters of Bracken County bought a 131-acre parcel there from Philip and Tabie Buckner, adjoining lands of Thomas Berry and Joseph Wright.[23] Isaac was assessed for Bracken County taxes in November 1799,[24] and remained there several more years. On 11 July 1804, "Isaac Waters and Barbary his wife of Bracken County," sold their 131-acre tract to Thomas Lounsdale, and were present there in March 1805 when Isaac acknowledged and Barbara released dower rights.[25] These dates closely mark the time when Isaac and Barbara moved across the Ohio River into Pleasant Township in that part of Clermont County, Ohio, subsequently taken into Brown County upon its formation in 1817.[26] They settled on Straight Creek; their 98-acre farm there in Tibbs Survey was purchased from William and Jane White for $180 and taxed in 1810 at $0.10 per acre, the standard assessment for "second rate" land.[27] Hilman's Church, "one of the oldest Methodist preaching places in the county," located in Pleasant Township about three miles southeast of Georgetown, was "erected as early as 1812 [by] Joseph Hilman, Abel Rees, Israel Jennings, Isaac Waters, and several others."[28]

Isaac's will was dated 19 January 1813. The witnesses Joseph Stableton and Gideon Dunham confirmed it at the August 1814 court term in Clermont County, where, upon the widow's refusal, Henry Chapman and Able Rees were granted letters of administration. "Being in a low Condition & not Long for this world," Isaac committed his "soul to God & my property to my wife & children." In addition to the provision that his son Isaac was to go to his "uncle Bazel," Isaac gave his "wife the Plantation on which we know Live During her Life & at her decease [it was to be sold] & on Equil Divide of the money arising from the sale of the Land Made amoung the five boys." Leaving his wife the brown mare, two cows, six sheep, and some household items, Isaac willed "that the Rest of the movable property be sold at Publick auction & the Money arising ... be Divided between the four girls[,] the two that is of age to Receive their part as soon as the money is collected." Sons Isaac, Philip, Lias, and Bazel "should be put to traide ... and Lias to stay with his Mother one year & then be put to a traid." Son Bazel was to stay with his mother "until he arrives to the age of seven years & then he & the other two to be put to good traids."[29] Widow Barbary Waters was probably living on the farm there in 1820, when her household included, beside herself, aged over 45, a female aged 16-25, presumably one of the two daughters not "of age" in 1813. No doubt Barbara was still residing there when she died soon before 5 September 1835, the date her son Bazil Waters was appointed administrator.[30]

[26] Their son Bazil Waters, born after January 1806 (under seven at date of his father's will), appears as a brick mason in the 1850 census for Pleasant Township (p. 546), as aged 44, b. Ohio. By 1860 he was in Higginsport, Lewis Township (p. 763), aged 53, b. Ohio. Samuel Sherman Waters' narrative in 1921 is consistent. Speaking of his grandfather Philip Waters (b. Ky., 18 Aug. 1797 to Isaac and Barbara Waters), he related that when "Philip was eight years old [about 1805], the home on the Licking River was broken up and the family moved to the southern part of Brown County, Ohio, and settled near the present village of Georgetown [in Pleasant Township]" (Waters, "Early History of the Waters Family," 2).

Meanwhile, Abraham Tout's "stepdaughters" Nancy and Margaret with their husbands Elias Newman and Andrew Louderback had arrived in Kentucky before 1800. Newman, Isaac Waters' companion in the 1782 Sandusky expedition, appears in tax lists for Harrison County in 1800. The tax lists for that year also show that Andrew Louderback was assessed twice, once in Mason, and again in (then adjoining) Nicholas County.[31] Little is yet known about the Newmans beyond that deduced from the subsequent Federal censuses of 1810 and 1820. Elias and his wife Nancy evidently were both living in 1824, when her stepfather mentioned them in his will. Their household in Harrison County in 1810, listed as Elias Nyman (p. 318), shows they both were then aged 26-44 and had five children under age 16. In 1820, as Elias Niman, their enumeration there (p. 190), shows both then over age 45 with three of the children still at home. Elias and Nancy, therefore, were both born sometime between 1765 and 1775, Elias probably about 1765 as he was old enough to join the march to Sandusky in 1782. Children's reported ages imply their first child was born sometime before 1796.

More is known of Andrew and Margaret Louderback; but like Isaac and Barbara Waters and the Newmans above, no record of their marriage has been discovered. They were still in Nicholas County in 1810 (census, p. 51), the enumeration showing that Andrew was over age 45 and Margaret aged 26-44, with eight children. By 1820, however, they had joined the Newmans in Harrison County (census, p. 189), and by then both were over age 45 with six children still at home. The children's reported ages imply that Andrew and Margaret were married before about 1791. Margaret, living in 1824 according to her

In 1921, Samuel Sherman Waters explained: "A farm of eighty acres had been acquired, and by the combined effort of the father and older sons, considerable progress had been made toward improving it when the subsequent history of the family was changed by the early death of the father. Owing to a provision of the Ohio law which made minor children a matter for legal consideration, the two younger children, Philip and Basil, were taken in charge of an appointed guardian and bound to an apprenticeship. The younger brother, Basil, began his term of service for a brick mason, while Philip was given over to a tanner by the name of Ristine" (Waters, "Early History of the Waters Family," 2-3). The eldest son James, then aged 20 and not mentioned by name in Isaac's will, was mentioned in the 1921 narrative.

[31] Clift, "Second Census" of Kentucky, 216. As usual, the rapid and intricate formation in that period of the various counties is an important factor. Harrison, adjoining Nicholas, was formed in 1794 from parts of Bourbon and Scott Counties. Nicholas, also adjoining Fleming, was formed in part from Mason County in 1800. All lay along branches of the Licking River and not far south across the Ohio River from Clermont and Brown Counties in Ohio.

stepfather's will, died there before 6 June 1828, the date of her husband's will which was proven in Harrison County next November. Witnessed by A.M. Camron and John McGuire, Andrew's will mentioned no wife but named children: daughters Lydia Bradley, Susan Carr, Nancy Armstrong, Hannah, and Mahala; and sons James, David, Eli, and Isaac; son David executor.[32] The Louderback's move from Nicholas to Harrison County was probably after 1813; their daughter Nancy had married in Nicholas County, 23 April 1812, William Armstrong, and Susannah married there 5 November 1813, James Carr.[33] As one example of a conspicuous tendency toward cousin marriages to be further considered below, the younger child David Louderback, born in Kentucky about 1803,[34] married in Fleming County, 20 September 1827, Lydia McKee,[35] almost certainly the eldest daughter of Abraham Tout's daughter Elizabeth and first husband, Robert McKee.[36]

Abraham most likely accompanied his children and stepchildren to Kentucky, but the first record there of him yet known is in the previously noted tax assessments for Fleming County in 1798, when he had 39 acres and two horses on Fleming Creek. No known contemporary record reveals the name of his wife, or whether she came to Kentucky with him.[37] In January 1802, Abraham Toutt, David Stewart, Jacob Wilson, and John McCullough of Fleming County gave security for William McCormack of that county in connection with a land-title dispute.[38] Next April, Abraham Toutt, signing by mark, and Basil Toutt, presumably the father and son, agreed to teach one John Reed the trade of bricklaying for sixteen years.[39] The brick mason Abraham Tout, who, 16 years later in April 1818, undertook the apprenticeship of Jesse Shepherd for 12 years, more likely was his grandson of that name born about 1796 to Bazil and Sarah (Shepherd) Tout.[40] He must have been the Abraham Tout Junr who joins Abraham, Basil, and Benjamin Tout in the tax lists after 1817. The absence of the elder Abraham Tout's household in the 1810 and 1820 Federal censuses suggests that his wife had died before 1810. In 1820, Abraham was perhaps the second male over age 45 in his son Bazil's home in Fleming County (p. 63).

[36] The parentage of Lydia McKee (b. Ky. ca. 1804) is established beyond much doubt by the presence of the names Andrew, Elizabeth, Margaret, Robert, and Nancy among their ten children recorded in the 1850 census. That she was probably Robert and Elizabeth (Tout) McKee's eldest daughter can be seen by considering the ages of children listed in the 1810, 1820, and 1830 census enumerations in Fleming County for the households of Elizabeth Tout's two husbands, Robert McKee and John Stuart.

[37] There exist undocumented statements that Abraham had married a Margaret ca. 1772, who was born ca. 1753 and died in Fleming County ca. 1823 (NSDAR National Numbers 587575 and 606701). Further study is needed since doubts are raised by the circumstantial data reviewed in the present article, though they do not disprove the name Margaret for her. As will be shown on onomastic grounds, her name would seem to be Lydia, and she surely was older than stated and died probably before 1810. The name Margaret possibly refers to the wife of Abraham's grandson of the same name mentioned below.

Bazil was chosen as his father's executor and was the only son mentioned by name in his 1824 will.

Abraham's will, witnessed by Thomas Wallace and William Triplett, was dated 21 October 1824 and presented for probate in Fleming County 1 May 1826. Abraham mentioned "other children" in addition to son Bazil, daughter Elizabeth Stuart, and stepdaughters Nancy Newman and Margaret Louderback.[41] Two other children are identified by their affiliations -- Benjamin G. and Hannah Tout. Specific details and sources are presented below in the genealogical summary, but some comments here about connections between them or their children with Brown County, Ohio, aids our attempt to understand how the Waters and Tout families are related.

Benjamin G. Tout (1776-1839), his elder brother Bazil (1774-1854), and their wives moved together from Fleming County to Hendricks County, Indiana, in the early 1830s, taking with them most of their younger children. Some elder children in both cases, however, settled first across the Ohio River in Brown County. As will be shown, Bazil's eldest daughter, Mary Tout (b. ca. 1797), married first in Clermont (later Brown) County in 1813, Isaac and Barbara Waters' son Isaac -- the boy who was to go to his "uncle Bazel" in 1813. Three of Benjamin G. Tout's elder children also settled in Brown County, where they lived in Pleasant Township close by Isaac and Mary (Tout) Waters. The eldest child, William Tout (1798-1835), and wife Eleanor Hurst settled in Pleasant Township before 1825, where they died in 1835 and 1836 leaving three orphaned children who joined relatives in Hendricks County. Benjamin G. Tout's second son, John (1799-1844) was in Pleasant Township before 1822, when he married Susannah Bonwell. They joined relatives in Hendricks County in the mid 1830s. Benjamin's fifth child, Basil Tout (1808-1883), was in Pleasant Township before 1827 when he married Susannah Bonwell's sister Martha. They also moved to Hendricks County in the mid 1830s. Similarly, these children's aunt Hannah Tout -- Abraham Tout's apparent youngest child, born in Pennsylvania 1785 -- married in Fleming County in 1813, David McKee, and they were in Pleasant Township before 1820. They also moved to Hendricks County before 1840, when their daughter Abigail McKee married there her first cousin, once removed, Benjamin Tout, son of William and Eleanor (Hurst) Tout mentioned above. Finally, as mentioned, Isaac Waters' son Philip of Brown County joined the Touts in Hendricks County in 1834, where, 87 years later, his grandson set down the "history," much of which is under particular examination in this account.

"UNCLE BAZEL" AND WIDOW WATERS

Traditionally, as shown, Isaac Waters' mother "was a Tout." Yet, no specific proof of Isaac's parentage appears in the evidence forming the basis for the above reviews. The situation appears plain enough now, however, to analyze the particular data needed to circumstantially identify his mother as Abraham Tout's otherwise unknown wife, formerly a widow (Lydia?) Waters whose own family name still eludes us. A very close relationship clearly existed; traditions and the contemporary activities just recounted agree. The particular points needing closer examination include the following:

[41]Burns, Record of Wills in Fleming County, 82.

- Evidence contained in the wills of Isaac Waters and Abraham Tout,
- Evidence associated with the subsequent history of Isaac Waters' son Isaac,
- Evidence of Isaac Waters' age and those of Abraham Tout's children and stepchildren, and
- Evidence contained in the conspicuous pattern by which the Waters and Tout children and stepchildren named their own children.

Waters and Tout Wills

A singular fact is that the only known specific contemporary reference to a familial relationship is contained in phrases of Isaac Waters' 1813 will directing that his son Isaac be "put to traide" and that he should "goe to his uncle Bazel." No evidence has yet surfaced that Isaac's wife Barbara had a brother Bazil or that Isaac, himself, had a brother Bazil Waters who could be the boy's "uncle." Abraham Tout's will in 1824 named his son Bazel Tout and his "stepdaughters" Nancy and Margaret whose maiden names are not a matter of record. He did not name a wife, who, as shown above, probably died before 1810. Moreover, he mentioned no one of the name Waters, in particular no heirs of his deceased putative stepson Isaac Waters unless, of course, he had them in mind as some of his "other children" for whom he had already provided.

Subsequent History of Isaac Waters' son Isaac

Son Isaac, born about 1795, died of cholera in Pleasant Township, Brown County, 13 July 1833, aged 38.[42] He was about 18 years old when his father ordered that he go to his uncle Bazel and learn a trade. Though in some respects flawed, existing evidence shows he did just that, and more. Three years after his father's will, on 18 August 1816, Isaac married, according to the record of it in Clermont County, Mary Trout. In a prior account of this family, it was considered likely that Mary belonged some way to a known contemporary family of that name in Brown County.[43] It can be shown now, however, that she was instead the eldest daughter of Bazil Tout of Fleming County, Kentucky.

When Bazil Tout died in Hendricks County, Indiana, in 1854, his children petitioned for a partition of his estate.[44] Among the thirteen children or their representatives was Mary Ross and her husband, Samuel Ross. Isaac Waters' widow, Mary Waters, was living in Brown County, Ohio, in 1834, when mentioned in deeds sorting out land there among several heirs of the elder Isaac Waters. The deeds also name the surviving children of the younger Isaac and his widow Mary, among them Nancy Jane and Lydia H. Waters.[45] Mary Waters married in Brown County, 24 August 1838, Samuel Ross, James Allen, J.P., presiding.[46] By the time of the 1850 census, Samuel Ross and his wife "Polly" (b. Ky. ca.

1797) were living in Franklin Township, Clermont County, their household then including the two children: Nancy J. Waters, b. Ohio ca. 1832, and Lydia Waters, b. there ca. 1834 (census, p. 784). The presence of these two Waters children in the Ross household completes the identification of Isaac's wife and widow Mary as Bazil Tout's daughter.

After their marriage in 1816, Isaac and Mary (Tout) Waters settled in Fleming County where, in 1820, their household is found near that of her father, Bazil Tout (census, pp. 63, 64). They had two girls under age 10 at home; one of them no doubt was their daughter Barbara Waters known to have been born in Kentucky about 1820.[47] The census of that year shows Isaac engaged in "manufacturing," so he had learned a trade. By 1830 they had returned to Brown County when their household included, beside themselves and children, the 60-69 year-old-female previously identified as probably Isaac's mother Barbara.

Isaac Waters heeded his father's will; he learned a trade, almost certainly from Fleming County's brick mason Bazil Tout, whose daughter he married.

Ages of Isaac Waters and the Tout Children and Stepchildren

We now can properly edit Isaac Waters' will to express his true intention to send his 18-year-old son to his "uncle Bazel Tout" to learn the art and trade of brick making and laying. Isaac considered Bazil Tout as his brother, so they must have had the same mother, a wife of Abraham Tout. To be sure, the evidence for the ages of Isaac himself and of Abraham's children and named "stepchildren" must be consistent.

In fact, Isaac's age is unknown; no record of it or of his birth is available. Credible estimates are possible, however. He appears in none of the three Federal censuses taken in his lifetime, but he was over age 21 in 1795 when assessed for taxes in Mason County, Kentucky,[48] thus born before 1775. He was old enough in Pennsylvania to join the Crawford expedition to Sandusky in 1782. His companion Elias Newman was at most aged 17 at the time. No one would doubt, however, that these two soldiers were, say, over age 14, thus born before 1768. Barbara, Isaac's wife by 1789, was born between 1760 and 1770 as shown. Similarly, Elias's wife Nancy, Abraham Tout's "stepdaughter," was born between 1765 and 1775. Isaac suffered an "early death" in 1813, according to the account of his great grandson Samuel Sherman Waters cited previously, and left minor children. He was born, therefore, in the mid 1760s and was in his early twenties when he married.

According to the census data, Abraham Tout's stepdaughters Nancy Newman and Margaret Louderback were both born between 1765 and 1775. Estimates of their children's birth dates are consistent. Nancy's children were born in the period 1794-1810, and Margaret's children between about 1791 and 1812, the latter date implying Margaret was born after about 1767 to be of child bearing age for the last child. In summary, Isaac Waters and the two Tout stepdaughters were born in a period bracketed by approximate dates 1765 and 1775, Isaac probably the oldest of the three.

Abraham Tout's known children were born between 1774 and 1785; Bazil about 1775, [48] Isaac inexplicably fails to show in the 1790 census for Pennsylvania. The 1800 Federal census for Kentucky and the one for 1810 in Ohio no longer exist.

Benjamin in 1776, Elizabeth about 1782, and Hannah in 1785.[49] The data are less than precise in some cases, but enough to conclude that Abraham's children and stepchildren consistently fall into separate age groups, the stepchildren being older. No doubt, he married in the early 1770s a widow who brought into their marriage at least three Waters children by a former marriage: Isaac, Nancy, and Margaret. Widow Waters, by her husband Tout, then had at least the four children born between 1774 and 1785 named above. The span of her seven identifiable children's birth dates -- from about 1765 through 1785 -- implies that she was born not earlier than 1740 and not much after 1745.

Was Widow Waters' name Lydia*?*

If widow Waters named one of her own children Lydia, that child either died young or has escaped discovery. The names of her -- at least 62 -- grandchildren, however, follow a conspicuous scheme. Some or all the names are now known for the children of six of her seven children identified above, Nancy excepted (see genealogical summary). Of these six, five named their first daughter Lydia: Isaac Waters, Margaret (Waters) Louderback, Benjamin G. Tout, Elizabeth (Tout) (McKee) Stuart, and Hannah (Tout) McKee. The sixth, Bazil Tout, named his third daughter Lydia, after a Mary and a Margaret. In no case was a spouse named Lydia, for whom a daughter Lydia would be named. Further consideration of the grandchildren's names strongly suggests the prevalent tendency of the period and localities involved to name children after their grandparents, parents, aunts, and uncles. Most logically, the dominant position of Lydia in almost all these families has the explanation that their grandmother Waters-Tout was the source for that name.[50]

[49] The boys' birth dates have been noted above. Elizabeth (Tout) Stuart was aged 68 in 1850 (census, Fleming Co., Fam. No. 858). Hannah (Tout) McKee was born 3 May 1785 according to the 1878 Atlas, Hendricks County, Indiana, "Personal Histories," Liberty Township, p. 47.

[50] It is noteworthy also that Isaac Waters named his first son James, and his full sister Margaret Louderback named her second son James, after an Isaac. A hypothesis is thereby established for future study that their parents were James and Lydia (___) Waters. The early census data imply that Isaac and Margaret's sister Nancy Newman had at least five children, four girls and a boy. Their names would be useful to know; perhaps they also include a James and a Lydia.

GENEALOGICAL SUMMARY

The following accounts are based on the above discussed identification of Abraham Tout's wife as a widow, probably named Lydia, with at least three children by a prior marriage to a man named Waters, perhaps with given name James.

Waters Family

1. [_____][1] WATERS, born perhaps in England,[51] died by 1774, place unknown. He married, probably in the early 1760s, [LYDIA?] (____), born in the 1740s, who died after 1785 (birth of last child) and probably before 1810 in western Pennsylvania or northern Kentucky. She married second, by 1774, Abraham Tout, born probably about 1741, who died in Fleming County, Kentucky, between 21 October 1824 and 1 May 1826, by whom she had at least four children. See Tout Family.

Children, birth places unknown, perhaps others, surname Waters:

2. i. ISAAC[2], b. mid 1760s; m. BARBARA ONSUTLER/UNSETTLER.

ii. NANCY, b. 1765-1775, and living in Oct. 1824 (stepfather's will); m. before about 1796 (estimate from children's ages) ELIAS NEWMAN, b. in or soon after 1765,[52] who also was living in Oct. 1824. They were in Harrison Co., Ky., by 1800 (tax list), where they appear in the Federal censuses of 1810 and 1820, listed then as Elias Niman and Nyman. Children, all listed in 1810 and the last three also in 1820: a. Female, b. 1794-1800. b. Female, b. 1794-1800. c. Male, b. 1794-1800. d. Female, b. 1804-1810. e. Female, b. 1804-1810.

iii. MARGARET, b. 1765-1775, was living in Oct. 1824 (stepfather's will), but d. before the date of her husband's will, 6 June 1828, which does not mention her. She m. by about 1791 (estimate from children's ages) ANDREW LOUDERBACK, b. before 1765, who d. in Harrison Co., Ky., after 6 June 1828 and the following November when his will was proven. They were in Kentucky before about 1797 (son Isaac's birthplace). Andrew was assessed for taxes in Mason and in adjoining Nicholas County in 1800, and appears in the census for the latter county in 1810 (p. 51). As previously shown, they moved from Nicholas to Harrison County between 1813 and 1820, when they appear with six children still at home (p. 188). Andrew's will named children: daughters Lydia Bradley, Susan Carr, Nancy Armstrong, Hannah, and Mahala; and sons James, David, Eli, and Isaac, with son David executor.[53]

Children of Andrew and Margaret (Waters), surname Louderback:

a. LYDIA, b. [say 1791], but 1784-1794 (1810 census), living in 1828; m. (____) BRADLEY.

b. NANCY, b. [say 1793], but 1784-1794 (1810 census), living in 1828; m. Nicholas Co., 23 April 1812, WILLIAM ARMSTRONG.[54]

c. SUSANNAH, b. [say 1795], but 1794-1800 (1810 census), living in 1828; m. Nicholas

September 1835 when her son Bazil Waters was appointed administrator.[59] She was almost certainly daughter of the Philip Unsuther of Versailles Township, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania, in 1790.[60] Isaac and Barbara moved from Pennsylvania to Mason County, Kentucky in 1794 or 1795, resided in adjoining Bracken County until about 1805, then settled across the Ohio River in Brown (then Clermont) County. Isaac's will, dated 19 January 1813 and proven in August 1814, mentioned his "wife," his "five boys" but naming only four -- Isaac, Philip, Elias, and Bazil -- and his "four girls," two of whom were "of age."[61] An elder son James was involved in the distribution of his father's land in 1834.[62] Eldest daughter Lydia is identified by contemporary associations and descendants' biographies, and younger daughters Nancy and Katherine by associations with their brothers James and Philip. The fourth daughter, probably the second one "of age" in 1813, remains unidentified.

Children of Isaac and Barbara (Onsutler/Unsettler), surname Waters:

i. LYDIA[3], b. Pa. in 1789, d. Brown Co., Ohio, 1 Oct. 1863, where she was buried in a farm cemetery in Pleasant Township.[63] She m. (1), probably by 1813 (children's ages), JOHN WRIGHT,[64] who d. before 1830 when "Lyda Wright" was head of a household in Pleasant Township (census, p. 446). Most likely, they account for the "John Right" household in Byrd Township, Brown Co., in 1820 (p. 340), consisting of a male and female both aged 26-44 and three females under age 10. Lydia m. (2) in Brown Co., 9 March 1831, as his second wife, SAMUEL HODGKINS, b. Carlisle, Pa., 6 June 1757, who d. in Pleasant Township 13 Oct. 1845.[65] About 32 years older than Lydia, Samuel was a Revolutionary War veteran who had served from Harford Co., Md., in 1775, 1776, 1777, and 1782; so he was probably a long-time acquaintance of the Waters and Tout families.[66] His pension file shows that by a former, unnamed wife he had a child Elizabeth, b. 13 July 1784, who m. Aaron Burget and was residing in Indiana in 1853.

In 1830 Lydia Wright had four children of school age -- over 4 and under 16 years --

[63]Carl N. Thompson, comp., Historical Collections of Brown County, Ohio [Piqua, Ohio, 1969], 520. The date printed there for her death, 13 Oct. 1845, is a confusion for that of her second husband. As "Liddia Hodgkins," she was living at the time of the 1860 census in Pleasant Township, Fam. No. 389. Her birth place is from the 1850 census, Brown Co., Fam. No. 255; the corrected death date is from her tombstone.

[64]No marriage record has been located. An 1883 biography of John E. Ellis of Georgetown claims that his wife's parents were Robert (sic) and Lydia (Waters) Wright, he "of Irish" and she "of Dutch extraction." At the same time, Ellis's son G.L. Ellis, then Recorder of Brown County, claimed that his mother, Mary Wright, was "a daughter of John Wright." See History of Brown County, "Biographical Sketches," 12-13. The son's statement appears to be correct; no Robert Wright of Brown County with wife Lydia has been identified.

[65]Data from Samuel Hodgkins' Revolutionary War pension file R5092 and Lydia's bounty land warrant 44806-160-55, National Archives.

[66]As recounted in his pension application cited above, Samuel's history is of particular interest; its similarity to that of these Waters and Tout families may contain further clues to their origins. He stated that, from his birth place in Carlisle, he went with his father to Rock Run on the Susquehannah River, then to White's Run in Harford Co., Md., where he served in the Revolution at Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Annapolis. From there, after 1782, he "moved to the neighborhood of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and from thence he moved to the nieghborhood of Lexington, Kentucky[;] from there he removed to the place at which he now [1841] resides in Brown County, Ohio, where he has resided ever since the month of October [1798] forty two years past." Samuel's mother, Elizabeth Hodgkins, died in Pleasant Township (then in Clermont Co.) between 4 June 1814 and next August, the dates of her will and probate in Clermont Co. She named sons James and Samuel Hodgkins and numerous grandchildren: Mary and Elizabeth Burget, wifes of Valentine and Aaron Burget, Elizabeth Wright wife of George Wright, and others with surnames Slaid, Pangburn, and Probans/Probins. See "Clermont County, Ohio, Early Will Abstracts," The Ohio Researcher 3 [Sept. 1964]:.

in Pleasant Township.[67] In May 1833 Samuel and Lydia Hodgkins, signing by mark, sold a lot in Georgetown.[68] At age 80-89, his home in Pleasant Township in 1840 included a female [Lydia] aged 50-59, two females aged 20-29, and a male and female each aged 5-9. Lydia's home there in 1850 included Barbary W. Hodgkins (sic, probably Wright), b. Ohio ca. 1817, Hannah Hodgkins, b. Ohio ca. 1833, and Isaac Purdum, b. Ohio ca. 1830. Barbary Mount, b. Ohio ca. 1816, was living with Lydia in 1860. In Sept. 1855, Lydia stated she was 66 years old and that she had by her husband Samuel Hodgkins "one child now living named Hannah Hodgkins," b. 16 June 1832.[69] Samuel's will, witnessed by Joseph Shepherd, Write Hicks, and Samuel Ellis, was dated 4 Sept. 1841 and proven in Brown County 4 Nov. 1845. It names wife Lydia, oldest daughter Elizabeth Burget, daughter Hannah Hodgkins, and stepdaughters Lydia and Barbary Write; Wright Hicks executor.[70]

a. LYDIA, b. Ohio probably ca. 1813,[72] is accounted for in her mother's home in 1820, 1830, and 1840, and was still unmarried in 1841 (stepfather's will). She was probably the Lydia Wright who m. in Brown Co., 1 April 1847, WILLIAM M. MOUNT,[73] b. Pa. ca. 18[1?]4. Child recorded in 1850 census, surname Mount: 1. John W., b. Ohio ca. 1849.

b. BARBARA W., b. Ohio ca. 1816, and living in Pleasant Township in 1860, aged 44. She is accounted for in her mother's home in all Federal censuses from 1820 through 1860, but in the latter year as "Barbary MOUNT," suggesting she had married since 1850 a relative of her sister Lydia's husband.

c. MARY, b. Brown Co., Ohio, in 1818, and living there in 1883; m. in 1837 JOHN E. ELLIS, b. Pleasant Township 24 May 1817 and living there in 1883, son of Noah and Margaret (Evans) Ellis.[74] Children, from 1850 and 1860 censuses in Pleasant Township (House Nos. 176 and 142), supplemented by their parents' biography,[75] all b. Ohio, surname Ellis: 1. Samuel, b. ca. 1839. 2. Lydia, b. ca. 1841. 3. Matilda, b. ca. 1843. 4. Arminda, b. ca. 1845. 5. John W., b. ca. 1847. 6. Granville N., b. ca. 1849. *7. [71]Two males, b. 1810-1815, in Lydia Wright's home in 1830 are not accounted for in the following list.

[72]She was named before Barbara below as one of Samuel Hodgkins' two Wright "stepdaughters" in 1841. The following four children account for Lydia Wright's four children of school age in 1830, so daughter Lydia's birth would be in or before 1814. She seems to be the Lydia Wright who m. William M. Mount in 1847. Their household in Pleasant Township in 1850 (Fam. No. 191), however, shows their ages as 26y for William and 27y for Lydia. Pending verification, it is presumed their ages were misread or understated by ten years.

f. HANNAH, b. Ohio 16 June 1832; m. ca. 1852 (children's birth dates) ISAAC W. PURDUM, b. Ohio ca. 1830. Their house in Pleasant Township in 1860 was next to her mother's home (census, p. 334). g. MALE, b. 1830-1835, is accounted for in Samuel Hodgkin's home in 1840, but not mentioned in his 1841 will and pension application.

ii. DAUGHTER, b. [say 1791], one of the two daughters "of age" mentioned in Isaac Waters' will in 1813.

iii. JAMES, b. Pa. 29 Oct. 1792, d. Jackson Township, Brown Co., 27 Oct. 1866, where he was buried in the Pleasant Hill Cemetery.[76] He m. (1) in Clermont Co., Ohio, 7 Aug. 1814, ELIZABETH WALLACE, b. 1794 or later, who d. in 1822.[77] He m. (2) in Brown Co., 25 Dec. 1824, MARGARET McKEE,[78] b. Ohio 13 July 1807, d. Mt. Orab, Brown Co., 12 Jan. 1896, daughter of James and Margaret (Turner) McKee.[79] James Waters served during the War of 1812 from 26 Aug. 1812 to 27 Feb. 1813 in Capt. Hazlep's Artillary Company, Lt. Col. Rayen's Regiment of Ohio Militia. He was discharged at Lower Sandusky, Ohio, where his father served in the Sandusky Expedition 30 years before.[80] He is said to have resided briefly in Illinois (son Isaac's biography), but his home is found in Eagle and Jackson Townships, Brown Co., in all Federal censuses from 1820 through 1860.[81] In 1830 he had four children of school age -- over 4 and under 16 years.[82] In July 1867 his eldest son, John Waters, sued for partition of James' 65-acre homeplace on Eagle Creek in Jackson Township. The heirs were his widow Margaret Waters, and children John Waters, Isaac Waters, Walter Wall and wife Elizabeth, William Richey and wife Margaret, Nancy Waters, Alexander Waters, all of Brown Co.; Henry Dunn and Amanda [sic, America] Dunn of Mercer Co., Ill., and Aaron Waters of Kansas.[83]

Children of James and Elizabeth (Wallace), surname Waters:

a. JOHN L.[4], b. Brown Co. 10 July 1815, d. Vermilion Co., Ill., 10 March 1877. He m. at Winchester, Ohio, 3 Sept 1839, RITTA ANN GLAZE, b. Brown Co. 20 Dec. 1820, who d. near Preston, Kansas, 3 April 1913 and buried in the Shelman

b. FEMALE, b. [say 1817], but between 1815 and 1820, is accounted for in James Waters' home in Eagle and Jackson Townships in 1820 and 1830, and among his four children of school age in 1830. This child is evidently the second of three children said to have been born to James Waters' first wife.[89]

c. ISAAC C., b. Jackson Township, Brown Co., 5 Jan. 1820, d. Franklin Township, that county, 7 Sept. 1892.[90] He m. in Brown Co., 25 Aug. 1842, LUCINDA GREATHOUSE,[91] b. Ohio 15 July 1822, d. Brown Co. 28 Dec. 1891, where they are buried in the Ash Ridge Cemetery. Lucinda was a daughter of William Greathouse of Jackson Township.[92] Isaac and Lucinda lived in Jackson Township (1850 and 1860 censuses, p. 968 and House No. 731) and subsequently in Franklin. They are said to have had twelve children, five dying in infancy and four living in 1883.[93] Identified children, b. Ohio, including the four living in 1883, surname Waters: *1. In 1850 they resided in Pleasant Township (House No. 217), when they had a child, surname Wall: 1. Margaret J., b. Ohio ca. 1849.

g. AMERICA, b. Ohio ca. 1830, was living in Duncan Township, Mercer Co., Ill., in 1880. She m. Brown Co., 23 Aug. 1850, HENRY A. (or P.) DUNN, b. Ohio ca. 1831, living in 1880. Birth places recorded for children in the 1860, 1870, and 1880 censuses for Duncan Township imply their parents moved there from Ohio within a year of their marriage. Ill. ca. 1835, living in 1870. They had arrived there by 1860 (census, p. 275), consistent with the record of partition of his father's Ohio estate in 1867, stating he then resided in "Kansas". The children's birth places recorded in 1860 and 1870 imply their parents were living in Illinois about 1855 and had moved to Kansas by 1858. Children listed in the two censuses, first two b. Ill., rest in Kansas, surname Waters: 1. Thomas,[5] b. ca. 1855. 2.

[94]Dates from tombstone; the manner of his death as stated in his nephew Isaac Wilson Waters' biography, though misidentifying him as a child by James Waters' first wife. Bazil was inadvertently recorded as a female, aged 5-9, in his father's household in 1830, but correctly counted as one of the four children of school age that year. His tombstone is inscribed "son of James and Margaret Waters."

Hendricks Co. 7 Sept 1863, daughter of Benjamin and Lucy (Hawks) Gardiner of Brown Co.[121] Philip's home was in Byrd Township in 1820, but by 1830 it was in Washington Township, Brown Co., when he had three children of school age.[122] The census entries for 1830 cluster him with his brothers-in-law Aaron Purdum and Thomas Riley (Nos. vi and vii below). According to his grandson Samuel Sherman Waters in 1921, Philip, after his father's death, was "bound to an apprenticeship with a tanner by the name of Ristine," and married when he gained his freedom at age 21. He moved to Hendricks Co., Ind., "in the Fall of 1834," where he and his family "were hospitably received by the Tout family."[123] On 29 April 1852, Benjamin G. Waters petitioned for partition of his father Philip's estate, claiming a one-seventh interest, the rest claimed by his six surviving brothers and sisters: Carey Waters, Lucinda Reynolds wife of Edward Reynolds, Isaac B. Waters, John T. Waters, and Ursula J. Waters. Carey and Isaac B. Waters were "non-residents of the State." Widow Lydia Waters was entitled to dower.[124]

[his brother-in-law] Isaac Waters in March 1830, and that Elias had died without making a will or a conveyance to confirm the deed to the heirs of brother Isaac. James' petition names as defendants Aaron Purdum and the children and minor heirs of Elias Waters: James Sylvester, John Robbins, Martha Ann Maria, and Elias Bailey Waters.[148] In June 1834, James conveyed Elias's interest in their father Isaac Waters' property to the heirs of their deceased brother Isaac Waters.[149] Aaron Purdum had been named guardian of Elias Waters' children.[150] Elias's household in Perry Township in 1830 included a male aged under 5, a male aged 5-9, and a female aged 10-14, the latter evidently not his daughter unless her age was misrecorded.

Children of Elias and Elizabeth (Robbins), surname Waters:

a. JAMES SYLVESTER[4], b. [say 1823], accounted for in 1830 as a male aged 5-9.

b. JOHN ROBBINS, b. 1825-30 (1830 census), living in 1834.

c. MARTHA ANN MARIA, b. Ohio ca. 1830; m. Brown Co., 23 Dec. 1847 (date of license),[151] WILLIAM RYBOLT, b. Ohio ca. 1827. He was a cabinetmaker when their household was recorded in Georgetown, Brown Co., in 1850 (House No. 81), no children listed.

d. ELIAS BAILEY, b. Ohio ca. 1832; m. (1) Brown Co., 6 Feb. 1852, BARBARA ANN FRITZ,[152] and (2), 13 Nov. 1860, SUSAN STOTLAR.[153] At age 18 in 1850, Elias B. Waters was listed as a farmer in the home of Perry Richards in Pleasant Township (House No. 331).

ix. BAZIL, b. Ohio not long after Jan. 1806,[154] was living in Higginsport, Brown Co., in 1860, aged 53, a "Master Brick Mason" (census, p. 763). He m. Brown Co. in 1833 KATHERINE HENDERSON,[155] b. Ohio ca. 1813, living in 1860, daughter of David Henderson of Brown Co., whose will there in 1850 names grandson David M. Waters.[156] Bazil's home was in Pleasant Township in 1840, where, at age 44, he was a brickmason in Georgetown at the time of the 1850 census (p. 546). In May 1849 he submitted the lowest bid to perform brick work for the new county courthouse in Georgetown, completed in 1851.[157] He had moved to Higginsport by 1860, from where his three elder sons subsequently served in the Civil War.[158]

Children of Bazil and Katherine (Henderson), surname Waters:

1. ABRAHAM[1] TOUT, born probably about 1741, place unknown,[160] died in Fleming County, Kentucky, between 21 October 1824 and 1 May 1826, the dates of his will and probate.[161] He married, place unknown probably about 1773, [LYDIA?] (____) WATERS, born about 1740-45, who died in western Pennsylvania or northern Kentucky after 1785 and probably before 1810, widow of (____) Waters. Widow Waters brought into the marriage at least three children born in the approximate period 1765-75, surname Waters: Isaac, Nancy, and Margaret, the latter two named as "stepdaughters" in Abraham's will. See Waters Family.

Abraham was near Baltimore in Harford County, Maryland, by March 1778 and was perhaps still there in 1781 or early 1782.[162] He and his stepson Isaac Waters had arrived in Washington County, Pennsylvania, by the spring of 1782, however, when both served in frontier militia companies during late stages of the Revolution. Abraham probably accompanied his sons and stepchildren to Mason County, Kentucky, in 1794 or early 1795, but the first known record of his presence in that locality is in 1798 tax assessments for Fleming County, formed from Mason that year. In April 1802, Abraham, signing by mark, and his son Bazil, by signature, agreed to teach one John Reed the trade of bricklaying for sixteen years, plus "cause him to be taught to read & right & common arithmitick including the rule of three."[163] Abraham was exempted from the personal head tax in Fleming County in and after 1801, and was listed as Abraham "Senior" after 1817 when his grandson of the same name (son of Bazil) appears. Abraham's will, previously discussed, appointed his son Bazil executor and named daughter Elizabeth Stuart, stepdaughters Nancy Newman and Margaret Louderback, and left "my other children nothing more than I have already advanced them."[164]

Children of Abraham and [Lydia?] (____) (Waters), perhaps others, surname Tout:

2. i. BAZIL, b. (prob.) 5 March 1774, place uncertain; m. SARAH SHEPHERD.

3. ii. BENJAMIN G., b. 5 May 1776, place uncertain; m. SARAH D. McKEE.

iii. ELIZABETH, b. Md. ca. 1782, living Fleming Co., Ky., 1850; m. (1) Fleming Co., 3 Sept. 1799, ROBERT McKEE, ... (2), before 1820, JOHN STUART, b. Md. ca. 1795, living 1850.

iv. HANNAH, b. Pa. 3 May 1785, d. Hamilton Co., Iowa, in July 1862; m. Fleming Co., 28 Nov. 1813, DAVID McKEE, b. 4 May 1791, d. 1877 ...

[160] See previous discussion; he became exempt from taxation in Fleming Co. in 1801, suggesting he had attained age 60. A clue to Abraham's birth place may exist in a 1908 biography of his great grandson Asa[4] Tout (Isaac W.[3], Bazil[2], Abraham[1]) of Indianapolis. Mistakenly referring to Asa's great grandfather as "Bazil Tout, Sr.," the sketch states "the latter was born and reared in London, England." Names are confused and the late date renders any statements about early generations suspect, but the origin of some ancestor could be preserved in this account. See Biographical Record of Indianapolis and Vicinity (Chicago, J.H. Beers & Co., 1908), 511.

Mr. Jack P. Jones

Dear Mr. Jones:

Your letter of 11 March stating that you are "a direct descendant of Isaac and Mary (Trout) Waters" has revived a long-standing problem about this marriage and subsequent events. You also mentioned that you have no information about their ancestors and "only know that they died of cholera within a few days of each other." I have been reviewing data and old notes. I do find that Clermont Co., Ohio, records show the marriage of Isaac Waters and Mary Trout, 18 Aug. 1816. They also show the marriage of his elder brother James Waters to Elizabeth Wallace, 7 Aug. 1814. Most likely, these marriages took place in Pleasant Township, in that part of Clermont that was set off in the formation of Brown County in 1817. I also have notes that I copied at the Cincinnati Historical Society sometime in the late 1960s or early 1970s from a card index of Ohio newspaper obituaries. Two of these entries are, as I transcribed them:

> Waters, Isaac dec'd. Joseph Shepherd exec. His wife and two children all died of cholera. The Castigator, 8-6-1833.
> Waters, Elias dec'd, cholera. James Waters, adm. The Castigator, 8-20-1833.

There is no doubt that the Isaac, Elias, and James Waters mentioned were the otherwise identifiable sons of Isaac[1] and Barbara Waters of Clermont/Brown County, as discussed in the booklet sent earlier (Gale I. Harris, Descendants of Isaac and Barbara Waters of Brown County, Ohio [East Lansing, 1978], pp. 11, 15-18, 19-22, 30-31).

I do have doubts now, however, about the accuracy of the Castigator entry of 6 Aug. 1833. There are reasons to conclude that Isaac's wife Mary did not die in that epidemic, that she subsequently married Samuel Ross, and that she was an elder daughter of Bazil Tout of Fleming Co., Ky., and Hendricks Co., Indiana. (For Tout data available to me in early 1990, see my preliminary draft manuscript sent earlier: "Touts of Fleming County, Kentucky," particularly pp. 4-9). Summarized below are various facts and circumstances that imply these conclusions, and suggestions for specific ways to confirm them.

Among significant factors are:

1. About 1970, I personally searched the Hilman Ridge Cemetery near Georgetown, in Pleasant Township, Brown County. I found a cluster of tombstones still standing for Isaac[2] Waters, his son Isaac[3], and his young, recently-married daughter Sarah Rice. I did not find one for Isaac's wife Mary. Of course, as I supposed then, her tombstone may have been destroyed, carried away, or otherwise lost in the nearly 1 1/2 centuries since, but the others were still there in fair condition.

2. Also about 1970, I made some quick notes from Brown County land records at the courthouse in Georgetown. Three of them relate specifically to heirs of Isaac[2] Waters. My notes for one of these records surprise me now, in light of other information recently acquired. As I find them, my notes are as follows: Brother of Isaac Jr.?

> 28 June 1834. Elias Waters (by Adms.) to Isaac Waters (his heirs). Indenture between James Waters admr of the estate of Elias Waters on one part and Barbary Waters, Robert Waters, Margaret Waters, Mary Jane Waters, Nancy Waters, and Lydia Waters, heirs and legal reps. of Isaac Waters [evidently Isaac[2]] late of Brown Co. deceased of the other part. Elias Waters was interested as copartner with four other heirs of Isaac [apparently Issac[1]], their deceased father. (Brown Co. Deeds, L11:279).
> 16 July 1834. Indenture between Philip Waters [Philip[2], son of Isaac[1]] and Lydia his wife, and Barbary Waters, Robert W. Waters, Margaret Waters, Mary Jane Waters, Nancy Jane Waters, and Lydia H. Waters, children and heirs of Isaac Waters [evidently Isaac[2]]. Leaves Widow, no name? Will mentioned. (Brown Co. Deeds, L11:280).
> 29 June 1834. Indenture between James Waters [James[2], son of Isaac[1]] of first part and Barbary, Robert, Margaret, Mary Jane, Nancy, and Lydia Waters. Land lived on by Barbary Waters [widow of Isaac[1]] in his lifetime, who was the father of the said party of the first part. (Brown Co. Deeds, L11:281).

These notes clearly reveal the names of surviving children of Isaac[2] Waters in 1834. In particular, for subsequent comparison, note that the two youngest (presuming they were listed according to ages) were named Nancy Jane and Lydia H. Waters. Note also that the 16 July 1834 indenture abstract includes a cryptic "Leaves Widow, no name?" comment in my handwriting of over 20 years ago. I recollect no specifics, but I must have seen something to that effect in the record itself. Perhaps I was aware then that the Castigator said Isaac's wife had died before 1834, and I was thereby biased not to grasp the significance. But why the question mark in my notes! Clearly, these records need to be reexamined in light of other facts as follows.

3. Samuel Ross m. Mary Waters, by James Allen, J.P., Aug. 24, 1838. (Brown County marriage records, F6:33).

4. The 1840 Federal census for Brown County has entries for two men named Samuel Ross, both in Pleasant Township:

> p. 258. Samuel Ross, 1m aged 20-29, 1f aged 20-29, 1f aged 60-69. (Listed adjacent to [?]azel Watters, aged 20-29, and family; probably Bazil[2] Waters (Isaac[1]), though his age in 1840 would be 30-39.)
> p. 259. Samuel Ross, 1m 0-4, 2m 10-14, 1m 15-19, 1m 60-69, 1f 5-9, 2f 10-14, 2f 15-19, 1f 40-49. (Listed eight names below Nelson A. Waterman, 1m 20-29, 1f 0-4, 1f 15-19, who had m. in 1836 Isaac[2] Waters' daughter Barbara, b. in Fleming Co., Ky., ca. 1820, as shown below.)

Without more, it is not possible to say which of these two Samuel Rosses in 1840 was the Samuel who m. a Mary Waters in 1838. Both were residing in the neighborhood near children of Isaac[1] and Barbara Waters. By 1850, however, one of them had moved across the county line into adjacent Clermont County, were we find in Franklin Township, p. 784, 18 Sept. 1850, Family no. 1640, Household no. 1640:

Samuel Ross	73M	Carpenter	$18 [estate]	b. Penn.
Polly "	53F			b. Ky.
Jerome W. "	10M			b. Ohio
Nancy J. Waters	18F			b. Ohio
Lydia "	16F			b. Ohio

Franklin Township is located in the SE corner of Clermont County, about five miles from Pleasant Township in Brown County. "Polly," of course, is a common, familiar form of "Mary" that appears especially often in southern Ohio families of that period. The two Waters girls with them surely are those mentioned above, the two youngest children of Isaac[2] and Mary Waters.

5. Last July, I received a letter from Mrs. Verna Thompson, a Tout descendant, of Sioux Center, Iowa, forwarding to me some notes from Hendricks County, Indiana, records sent to her by Mrs. Marian O. Shirley of Indianapolis, dated 29 May 1991. In these notes, under a heading "Basil Tout, bricklayer and farmer, son of Abraham, Sr., m. 17 July 1795 (Bond) Sarah (Sally) Shepherd, Fleming Co. [Ky.]," are listed children "named in a petition to partition 1854 July 31, p. 225," as follows:

i. Isaac W. Tout
ii. John S. Tout (b. 18 Oct 1806 Fleming Co. Ky)
iii. Benjamin Tout
iv. Andrew Tout
v. William S. Tout
vi. Abraham Tout
vii. Meary Tout Ross (m. Samuel Ross), living 1854.
viii. Margaret Tout Shepherd
ix. Lydia Tout Tatman (m. William Tatman), living 1854.
x. Sarah Tout Smith (m. Ralph Smith). - Raphael - Pc. dec. by 1880
xi. Mahala Tout Cassell McQuat (m. George Cassell and William S. McQuat).
xii. Nancy Tout Mourning (m. Benjamin Mourning).
xiii. Betsy Tout m. Albert Thompson.

Pending verification with original records, I tentatively conclude that "Meary Tout Ross," No. vii., was Mary "Trout" who m. (1) in Clermont Co., Ohio, 18 Aug. 1816, Isaac[2] Waters (Isaac[1]), b. ca. 1794-95, and (2) in Brown Co. 24 Aug. 1838, Samuel Ross, b. in Pa. ca. 1777, her senior in age by about 20 years. Mary ("Polly" in 1850), b. ca. 1797 in Ky., apparently was the female, b. 1795-1800, accounted for in Bazil Tout's household in Fleming Co., Ky., in 1810 as I tentatively concluded with less data in 1990 (Harris, "Touts of Fleming County," pp. 6-7). The obituary notice in The Castigator, 6 Aug. 1833, apparently is in error about Isaac[2] Waters' wife. The 1854 Hendricks County partition petition and Bazil Tout's will need to be examined. Perhaps something more can be found in Clermont County records about Samuel and Mary (Tout) (Waters) Ross after 1850. (I did not find them there in the 1860 Federal census.)

Assuming the above conclusions will be verified by original sources, a revised account of Isaac[2] Waters' family is tentatively constructed as follows.

1. ISAAC[2] WATERS (Isaac[1]), born ca. 1794-95, son of Isaac and Barbara (Unsettler/Onsettler) Waters, died of cholera in Brown County, Ohio, 13 July 1833, aged 38 (G.S., Hilman Ridge Cemetery; The Castigator, 6 Aug. 1833 issue). He married in Clermont (now Brown) County, 18 Aug. 1816, MARY TROUT (sic, note from Clermont Co. marriage records), born in Kentucky (presumably Fleming County) ca. 1797 (1850 census, aged 53), who was living in 1854 (Hendricks Co., Indiana, partition record, cited in Marian O. Shirley letter, 29 May 1991), daughter of Bazil[2] Tout (Abraham[1]) and his wife Sarah Shepherd of Fleming and Hendricks Counties. Mary married second, in Brown County 24 Aug. 1838, Samuel Ross, James Allen, J.P., presiding (Brown Co. marriage records [hereafter BCMR], F6:33). Samuel, born in Pennsylvania ca. 1777 (1850 census, aged 73), was living in Franklin Township, Clermont County, in Sept. 1850 (census, p. 784) with wife "Polly" and three children: Jerome W. Ross, born in Ohio ca. 1840; Nancy J. Waters, born there ca. 1831-32; and Lydia Waters, born there ca. 1833-34.

When about 18 years old in Jan. 1813, Isaac was named in his father's will: "My son Isaac should have the Sorrel Colt which he Claims & it is my will that Isaac & [his brothers] Philip, Lias, and Bazel should be put to traide. Isaac I want to goe to his uncle Bazel" (Clermont Co. Wills, A:207). As discussed elsewhere, "uncle Bazel" was probably Bazil Tout of Fleming County, Isaac's future father-in-law. The true relationship implied by "his uncle" in 1813 is still undetermined (see Harris, Isaac and Barbara Waters, p. 19). Isaac and Mary moved to Fleming County before 1820, when they appear in the census near her father, Bazil Tout, with two female children under age 10 (census, pp. 63, 64). By 1830, they returned to Brown County, apparently to live with Isaac's widowed mother, Barbara Waters, on his father's farm in Pleasant Township (Harris, Isaac and Barbara Waters, p. 20).

Isaac's will, dated the day he died, 13 July 1833, names wife Mary Waters, daughter Sarah, wife of Israel Rice, and "my lawful heirs." Joseph Shepherd was named executor (Brown Co. Wills and Estates, File 6494). Next year, in June and July 1834, his surviving children were named in indentures sorting out land in Brown County among several of the heirs of Isaac[1] Waters: Barbara, Robert W., Margaret, Mary Jane, Nancy Jane, and Lydia H. Waters (Brown Co. Deeds, L11:279, 280, 281).

Children of Isaac and Mary (Tout), surname Waters:

i. SARAH[3], b. ca. 1817, d. of cholera in Brown Co. 20 July 1833, aged 16 years (G.S., Hilman Ridge Cemetery; The Castigator, 6 Aug. 1833 issue). She m. 15 Nov. 1832 ISRAEL RICE, James Dennis presiding (BCMR, D4:71). Buried beside her is an "Infant Daughter."

ii. BARBARA, b. in Fleming Co., Ky., ca. 1820, d. in Brown Co. 1857; m. (1) there 28 Aug. 1836 NELSON A. WATERMAN, b. there 5 March 1817, who d. 10 Feb. 1893 (G.S., Confidence Cemetery, Brown Co.), son of Solomon and Eleanor (~~Fredrick~~ Ertz) Waterman. He m. (2), ca. 1859, Frances E. Rachford, b. Ohio 1841, d. 1914 (G.S. beside Nelson), by whom he had two children: Lucy Mary and Claude Nelson (Harris, Isaac and Barbara Waters, p. 42). Barbara and her sister Sarah above account for the two female children under age 10 in Isaac Waters' household in Fleming Co. in 1820. Children (ibid.), perhaps others, surname Waterman: 1. Caroline W., b. ca. 1837. 2. Marion, b. ca. 1841. 3. John W., b. ca. 1843. 4. Anna Amanda, b. ca. 1846. 5. Sanders J., b. ca. 1848.

iii. ROBERT W., b. 1821-25 (aged 5-9, 1830 census, Brown Co., p. 445); m. in Brown Co., 6 May 1841,

MARY FOORE (BCMR, F6:121), b. 24 Aug. 1816 (computed), d. Brown Co. 9 June 1842, aged 25y 9m 25d (G.S. {what cem?}), daughter of Adam and Deborah (Dugan) Foore (letter of Patricia R. Donaldson, Brown Co. Genealogical Society Librarian, 22 July 1984). Child, surname Waters:

1. JASPER N.[4], b. Ohio ca. 1842, was living with his grandparents Adam and Deborah Foor[e] in Pleasant Township, Brown Co., at the time of the 1850 census (aged 8, p. 562), and in 1860 (aged 19, p. 40).

iv. ISAAC, "son of Isaac and Mary," b. ca. 1826, d. in Brown Co. of cholera 10 July 1833, aged 7 y (G.S., Hilman Ridge Cemetery; The Castigator, 6 Aug. 1833 issue).

v. MARGARET, b. 1826-30 (aged under 5, 1830 census, Brown Co., p. 445), was living in 1834 (Brown Co. Deeds, L11:279-281).

vi. MARY JANE, b. 1826-30 (aged under 5, 1830 census, Brown Co., p. 445), was living in 1834 (Brown Co. Deeds, L11:279-281).

vii. NANCY JANE, b. Ohio ca. 1831-32, was living at age 18 in Clermont Co. in Sept 1850 with her mother and stepfather, Polly and Samuel Ross (census, p. 784).[a] viii. LYDIA H., b. in Pleasant Township, Brown Co., ca. 1833, d. Higginsport, Brown Co., 23 Dec. 1875, aged 42 (Brown Co. Deaths Book, 1:120; aged 16 in 1850 census); m. 16 Nov. 1851 CHARLES W. REED (Patricia R. Donaldson letter, 22 July 1984), b. Ohio ca. 1824 (aged 36, 1860 census, Higginsport, Brown Co., p. 385). Charles was a drayman at Higginsport in 1860, when he and Lydia had several children in their home, all b. Ohio, surname Reed: Caroline, b. ca. 1853. 2. [Amantha?], b. ca. 1855. 3. John M., b. ca. 1857. 4. Harriet R., b. ca. 1859.

Probable child of Samuel and Mary (Tout) (Waters), surname Ross:

ix. JEROME W., b. Ohio 1840, d. 1908 (G.S., Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Franklin Township; see "Monument Inscriptions Prior to 1900 from Cemeteries in Clermont County, Ohio" [Beech Forest Chapter, D.A.R., Williamsburg, Ohio, 1957], p. 1). The name of "his wife," SARAH, b. 1846, d. 1900, appears on the same tombstone. At age 10, Jerome W. Ross was in the home of Polly and Samuel Ross in Franklin Township in 1850 (census, p. 784). .

COMMENTS

I believe, when the remaining original sources cited above are examined, we will finally have a solution to the identity and history of Isaac[2] Waters' wife and widow, Mary "Trout." Unresolved, however, is the true meaning of the sentence in Isaac[1] Water's 1813 will: "My son ... Isaac I want to go to his uncle Bazel." Son Isaac did subsequently go to Fleming Co., Ky., where he apparently was taught the brick mason's trade by Bazil[2] Tout, whose daughter he married in 1816. Isaac's "uncle Bazel" almost certainly was this Bazil Tout of Fleming County, who also became his father-in-law. Isaac and his wife Mary Tout evidently were related, probably cousins, but how the relationship existed is not apparent from the data now available.

One guess, however, is that the relationship involved the Shepherds. We now know that Bazil Tout's wife was a Sarah Shepherd, and that Isaac[2] Waters chose one Joseph Shepherd to administer his Brown County estate in 1833. In 1841 Joseph Shepherd witnessed the will of Isaac's brother-in-law Samuel Hodgkins (husband of Lydia[2] Waters) in Brown Co. Also, it is known that in 1816 Bazil Tout took on a Solomon Shepherd in Fleming County to "teach [him] the art and trade of brick making and laying," and a similar apprenticeship for one Jesse Shepherd was recorded by Bazil's father Abraham Tout in 1818 (Harris, "Touts of Fleming County," pp. 3-5). It seems to me that it might be fruitful to attempt to identify these several Shepherds, learn how they were related to Bazil Tout's wife Sarah Shepherd, and how they may have been related to Isaac[1] Waters or his wife Barbara Unsettler/Onsettler. In this regard, Bazil Tout's wife Sarah Shepherd is said to have been born in Pennsylvania 25 May 1776 (May 29, 1991, letter of Marian O. Shirley, citing NSDAR application 587575), but no other information about her family is stated.

You may like to have the enclosed copy of Isaac[2] Waters' brief will, obtained years ago at the Brown Co. courthouse. Perhaps you can add some information about his children. I would appreciate anything you could share.

Sincerely,

Gale I. Harris

Draft, 3/28/92, GIH

1. BAZIL/BASIL[2] TOUT (Abraham[1]) was born in Pennsylvania 5 March 1774 (Marian O. Shirley letter, 29 May 1991, citing NSDAR 587575), or in Virginia ca. 1775 (aged 75, 1850 census, Hendricks Co., Indiana, p. 150). He died in Hendricks County after 24 January 1854 and before next 27 August, the date of his will and its proof (M.O. Shirley, specific citation or contents not given). He married in Fleming County, Kentucky, 17 July 1795 (Bond), SARAH/SALLY SHEPHERD, born in Pennsylvania 25 May 1776 (ibid., citing "Mar. Bond & NSDAR #587575").[a] Census data imply that Sarah was born ca. 1770-1775 (Federal census, Fleming Co.: 1810, p. 83; 1820, p. 63; 1830, p. 58). She was probably living in December 1835 (M.O. Shirley, citing but not abstracting Fleming Co. Deeds, S:555; T:118), but evidently died before the 1850 census date when Bazil was living with their daughter Mahala Cassell in Middle Township, Hendricks County (p. 150).

On 11 April 1795, Bazil Tout of Mason County bought 50 acres (in the part that became Fleming Co. in 1798) from Benjamin Harris of Amelia County, Virginia, who had entered several large tracts on the Licking River in 1782. John and William McCullough, and William McWilliams witnessed. On the same day, Bazil witnessed when McCullough purchased an adjoining parcel, and four days before when John and Alexander McCullough bought 200 acres from the same grantor (Mason County Deed Book Abstracts [Denver, Western Heraldry Organization, 1973], B1:478, 480, 481). In 1797, Alexander McCullough was bondsman for the marriage of Bazil's brother, Benjamin G. Tout, and Sarah McKee. Assessed as "1 white male over 21" in 1798, Bazil appears on the first tax list of newly-formed Fleming County (M.O. Shirley, citing "Tax List, Reel 007969, KDL&A"), and was enumerated there in the Federal censuses of 1810, 1820, and 1830, cited above.

By an indenture in Fleming County, dated 12 April 1802, Abraham and Bazil Tout agreed to teach one John Reed the trade of bricklaying for 16 years (M.O. Shirley, citing "Fleming Co. Bk. B, p. 256"). It is said that Bazil and his son Abraham served in the War of 1812 (William Henry Perrin, ed., History of Bourbon, Scott, Harrison, and Nicholas Counties, Kentucky [Cincinnati, 1882], p. 798). In January 1813, Bazil witnessed in Fleming County when Thomas Constant and his wife Margery of Green County, Ohio, Jacob Dason and his wife Abigail, late Abigail Constant of Clark County, Kentucky, and William C. Trimble, Jr., of Fleming County sold part of 1000 acres patented by John Constant, deceased. In December 1816, Basil Tout of Fleming County recorded his apprenticeship of Solomon Sheperd for two years, "to teach [him] the art and trade of brick making and laying" (Florence Nelson Young and Virgil D. Young, comp., Fleming County Kentucky Deed Books, A-G, Abstracts [Denver, Western Heraldry Organization, 1974], E:323, G:98). In October 1824, Abraham Tout of Fleming County mentioned his son Bazil and named him executor (Annie Walker Burns, comp., Record of Wills in Fleming County, Kentucky [Washington, D.C., 1937], p. 82). Fleming County land records cited by M.O Shirley, perhaps from the index only, are listed here for future study:

5 June 1820, 2 Tracts from Thos. Bokley & wife (I:424).
1 Feb. 1823, 3 acres from Abram Tout, Fleming Creek (L:440).
4 Apr. 1823, 3 acres from Basil and Sally to Michael Shepherd (L:512).

[a] Note: Fleming Co. was formed from Mason Co. in 1798, so where was the marriage bond recorded?

23 Oct. 1823, Tracts, Fleming Creek (P:7).
23 Oct. 1823, Basil and Sarah to J.G. Bishop, tracts (P:5).
15 Nov. 1834, Basil and Sally to J.L. Wilson, 52 acres (S:561).
12 Dec. 1835, Basil and Sally to John Cochran, 129 acres (S:555).
12 Dec. 1835, Basil and Sally to J.G. Bishop, 120 acres (T:118).

The last three transactions apparently represent Bazil and Sarah Tout's disposal of their Kentucky property upon removal to Indiana. They had arrived there before November 1832, when Bazil and his sons Isaac W. and Andrew Tout were registered voters in Center Township, Hendricks County (Ruth Pritchard, comp., Voters of Hendricks County, 1826-1832 [Danville, *], p. ). It is said that when Philip and Lydia Waters moved to Hendricks County from Brown County, Ohio, in 1834, "they were hospitably received by the Tout family who tendered them the use of an empty cabin." The Touts were "relatives," and "had a son-in-law ... Albert Thompson ... who was living on the land at the time Philip arrived in Danville" (S.S. Waters, "Early History of the Waters Family" [1921], pp. 5-6, a manuscript edited by John L. Oliver of Pittsboro, Indiana. See also John R. McDowell, ed., The History of Hendricks County, Indiana [Danville, 1976], pp. 606-608).

The early censuses imply that Bazil Tout had 14 children. Thirteen children are named in a petition to partition his property, dated 31 July 1854 (M.O. Shirley, citing "p. 225," apparently a Hendricks Co. probate record). They were, as she listed them: Isaac N. Tout, John S. Tout, Benjamin Tout, Andrew W. Tout, William S. Tout, Abraham Tout, Meary Tout Ross (m. Samuel Ross), Margaret Tout Shepherd, Lydia Tout Tatman (m. William Tatman), Sarah Tout Smith (m. Ralph Smith), Mahala Tout Cassell McQuat (m. George Cassell and William S. McQuat), Nancy Tout Mourning (m. Benjamin Mourning), and Betsy Tout, deceased (m. Albert Thompson). The fourteenth child perhaps was the otherwise unplaced Martha Tout in 1843 who married Abraham Triggs in Hendricks County, discussed below.

Children of Bazil and Sarah (Shepherd), most likely order derived from various data, surname Tout:

i. ABRAHAM[3], b. Ky. ca. 1796, was a brick mason, aged 64, living in a boarding house in the City of Richmond, Wayne Co., Indiana, at the time of the 1860 census (p. 616). He m. in Lewis Co., Ky., in 1817 ANN CONWAY ("Lewis County Kentucky, Marriages, 1806-1850," typescript [Indianapolis, The Researchers, 19], p. 24), b. 1790-94, who d. before 1860.

Abraham is accounted for in his father's home in Fleming Co. in 1810 as the male b. 1795-1800. Probably, he was the brick mason of Fleming Co. in April 1818 (rather than his ageing grandfather of the same name) who undertook the apprenticeship of one Jesse Shepherd for 12 years (Young and Young, Fleming County Kentucky Deed Books, G:675). Abraham's household there in 1820 (census, p. 30) included a female b. 1775-1794 [his wife], two boys b. 1805-1810 [one presumably Jesse Shepherd], and a boy and girl each b. 1810-1820. By 1840 Abraham was in Perry Township, Wayne Co. (census, p. 540), apparently with a wife b. 1790-1800, and two female and two male children aged between 5 and 14 years. He has not been located in the 1850 census.

Incomplete record of children implied by the 1820 and 1840 census data:

1. FEMALE[4], b. 1810-20 (1820 census).
2. MALE, b. 1810-20 (1820 census).

3. FEMALE, b. 1825-30 (1840 census).
4. MALE, b. 1830-35 (1840 census).
5. MALE, b. 1830-35 (1840 census).
6. FEMALE, b. 1830-35 (1840 census).

ii. MARY, b. Ky. ca. 1797 (aged 53, 1850 census, Clermont Co., Ohio, p. 784), was living in 1854 (father's probate). Mary is accounted for as the female, b. 1795-1800, in Bazil Tout's home in 1810, and was his daughter "Meary Ross" in 1854. Recorded as Mary "Trout," she m. (1) in Clermont (later Brown) Co., Ohio, 18 Aug. 1816 (Clermont Co. marriage record), ISAAC[2] WATERS (Isaac[1]), b. ca. 1794-95, who d. of cholera in Brown Co. 13 July 1833, aged 38 (G.S., Hilman Ridge Cemetery; The Castigator, 6 Aug. 1833 issue), son of Isaac and Barbara (Unsettler/Onsettler) Waters of Mason/Bracken Co., Ky., and Brown Co., Ohio, and brother of Philip Waters mentioned above (Gale I. Harris, Descendants of Isaac and Barbara Waters of Brown County, Ohio [East Lansing, 1978], pp. 1-11, 19-29). Mary m. (2) in Brown Co., 24 Aug. 1838, SAMUEL ROSS, James Allen, J.P., presiding (Brown Co. marriage records [BCMR], F6:33). Samuel, b. in Pa. ca. 1777, was living at age 73 in Franklin Township, Clermont Co., in Sept. 1850 (census, p. 784) with wife "Polly" and three children: Jerome W. Ross, b. Ohio ca. 1840; Nancy J. Waters, b. there ca. 1831-32; and Lydia Waters, b. there ca. 1833-34.

When about 18 years old in Jan. 1813, Isaac Waters was mentioned in his father's will as "My son ... Isaac I want to goe to his uncle Bazel" (Clermont Co. Wills, A:207). "Uncle Bazel" was probably Bazil Tout of Fleming Co., Isaac's future father-in-law, though the exact relationship implied is still undetermined (Harris, Isaac and Barbara Waters, p. 19). Isaac and Mary moved to Fleming Co. before 1820, when they appear in the census near her father with two female children under age 10 (census, pp. 63, 64). By 1830 they had returned to Brown Co., apparently to live with Isaac's widowed mother, Barbara Waters, on his father's farm in Pleasant Township. Their household there in 1830 (census, p. 445) included, beside themselves, a female aged 60-69 (probably Isaac's mother) and children: 1m under 5, 1m 5-9, 1m 15-20 (unidentified), 2f under 5, and 2f 10-14. Nearby was Mary's brother John S. Tout (p. 438) and some Tout cousins, sons of her uncle Benjamin G. Tout (pp. 442, 445). Isaac's will, signed by mark and dated the day he died, 13 July 1833, names wife Mary Waters, daughter Sarah, wife of Israel Rice, and "my lawful heirs;" Joseph Shepherd executor (Brown Co. Wills and Estates, File 6494). Next year, in June and July 1834, his surviving children were named in indentures sorting out land in Brown Co. among several of the heirs of Isaac[1] Waters: Barbara, Robert W., Margaret, Mary Jane, Nancy Jane, and Lydia H. Waters (Brown Co. Deeds, L11:279, 280, 281).

Children of Isaac and Mary (Tout), surname Waters:

1. SARAH, b. ca. 1817, d. of cholera in Brown Co. 20 July 1833, aged 16 (G.S., Hilman Ridge Cemetery; The Castigator, 6 Aug. 1833 issue). She m. 15 Nov. 1832 ISRAEL RICE, James Dennis presiding (BCMR, D4:71). Buried beside her is an "Infant Daughter."

2. BARBARA, b. Fleming Co., Ky., ca. 1820, d. in Brown Co. 1857; m. (1) there 28 Aug. 1836 NELSON A. WATERMAN, b. there 5 March 1817, d. 10 Feb. 1893 (G.S., Confidence Cemetery, Brown Co.), son of Solomon and Eleanor (Fritz) Waterman. He m. (2), ca. 1859, Frances E. Rachford, b. Ohio 1841, d. 1914 (G.S. beside Nelson), by whom he had two children: Lucy Mary and Claud Nelson (History of Brown County, Ohio [, 1883], "Biographical Sketches," p. 46). Barbara and her sister Sarah account for the two female children under age 10 in Isaac Waters' home in Fleming Co. in 1820, and aged 10-14 in Brown Co. in 1830. Children (ibid.) b. Ohio, surname Waterman: a. Caroline W., b. ca. 1837. b. Marian, b. ca. 1841. c. John W., b. ca. 1843, d. before 1883. d. Anna Amanda, b. ca. 1846. e. Sanders J., b. ca. 1848, was "deaf and dumb" in 1860 (census, p. 325).

3. ROBERT W., b. [say 1822] (aged 5-9, 1830 census); m. (1) in Brown Co., 6 May 1841, MARY FOORE (BCMR, F6:121), b. 24 Aug. 1816 (computed), d. Brown Co. 9 June 1842, aged 25y 9m 25d (G.S.), daughter of Adam Foore (letter of Patricia R. Donaldson, Brown Co. Genealogical Society Librarian, 22 July 1984). Robert m. (2) in Brown Co., ca. 1844, MARY A. STOKELY (BCMR, G7:23, date not obtained but estimated from volume and page). Child by first wife, surname Waters: a. Jasper N., b. Ohio ca. 1842 (aged 8 in 1850 and 19 in 1860; census, Pleasant Township, Brown Co., pp. 562 and 40, respectively, when he was living with his Foore grandparents).

4. ISAAC, "son of Isaac and Mary," b. ca. 1825, d. in Brown Co. of cholera 10 July 1833, aged 7y (G.S., Hilman Ridge Cemetery; The Castigator, 6 Aug. 1833 issue). Isaac is accounted for as the male, b. 1825-30, in his parents' home in 1830.

5. MARGARET, b. 1825-30 (aged under 5, 1830 census), was living in 1834 (Brown Co. Deeds, L11:279-281). Probably, she is the Margaret Waters, b. Ohio ca. 1826 (aged 34 in 1860), who m. in Brown Co. ca. 1844 CHARLES WEST (BCMR, G7:23, date not obtained but estimated from volume and page), b. Ky. ca. 1824. They were living at Higginsport, Brown Co., in 1860 (census, p. 389), when he was listed as an illiterate day laborer with no real estate and $50 personal property. No children were with them.

6. MARY JANE, b. 1825-1830 (aged under 5, 1830 census), was living in 1834 (Brown Co. Deeds, L11:279-281).

7. NANCY JANE, b. Ohio ca. 1831-32, was living at age 18 in Clermont Co. in Sept. 1850 with her mother and stepfather, Polly and Samuel Ross (census, p. 784).[b]

8. LYDIA H., b. Pleasant Township, Brown Co., ca. 1833, d. Higginsport, Brown Co., 23 Dec. 1875, aged 42y (Brown Co. Deaths Book, 1:120; aged 16 in 1850 census); m. 16 Nov. 1851 CHARLES W. REED (P.R. Donaldson letter, 22 July 1984), b. Ohio ca. 1824 (aged 36, 1860 census, Higginsport, p. 385). In 1860 Charles was a drayman in Higginsport, where he and Lydia had several children in their home, all b. Ohio, surname Reed: a. Caroline, b. ca. 1853. b. [Loutitia?], b. ca. 1855. c. John M., b. ca. 1857. d. Harriet R., b. ca. 1859.

Probable child of Samuel and Mary (Tout) (Waters), surname Ross:

9. JEROME W., b. Ohio 1840, d. 1908 (G.S., Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Franklin Township; see "Monument Inscriptions Prior to 1900 from Cemeteries in Clermont County, Ohio" [Beech Forest Chapter, D.A.R., Williamsburg, Ohio, 1957], 9:1). "His wife, SARAH, b. 1846, d. 1900," is shown as inscribed on the same stone. At age 10 in 1850, Jerome W. Ross was in Polly and Samuel Ross's home in Franklin Township (census, p. 784).

[b] Notes from the Brown County courthouse include, under "Wills and Estates," without date: "Waters, Nancy J. et al.; David Johnson, gdn, file 6569."

iii. MARGARET, b. in Ky. [say 1801] (aged 48, 1850 census; but aged 56, 1860 census), was living in Liberty Township, Hendricks Co., Indiana, in 1860 (census, p. 538). She is accounted for as one of two females under age 10 in her father's home in 1810, and was his daughter "Margaret Shepherd" in 1854. Her husband in Liberty Township in 1850 was SOLOMON SHEPHERD, b. Ky. ca. [1785?] (aged 65 [sic]; census, p. 90), but probably at least ten years later, who d. before the 1860 census date when Margaret was living with several Shepherd children. Solomon's age was probably incorrectly recorded in 1850. He seems to have been the Solomon Shepherd, already noted, who was taken on as a brickmason's apprentice in Dec. 1816 for two years by Margaret's father. If so, he surely would have been younger than the 1850 census entry shows.[c] The Shepherd children associated with Margaret in the 1850 and 1860 censuses are shown as b. in Ky. between about 1820 and 1830, and in Indiana after about 1833, suggesting that Solomon and Margaret moved from Kentucky to Indiana about the same time as her parents. The list of children as reconstructed from these two censuses, surname Shepherd:

Do they have tombstones in Hendricks Co.?

1. SOLOMON, b. Ky. [say 1820] (aged 20 [sic] in 1850, but more likely aged 30). In 1850 he had a separate household adjacent to his parents in Liberty Township with wife RACHAEL, b. Ind., ca. 182[3?] (aged 2[7?] in 1850), and children, b. Ind., surname Shepherd: a. William, b. ca. 1842. b. Sarah Jane, b. ca. 1844. c. Samuel, b. ca. 1849.
2. SAMUEL, b. Ky. ca. 1823, a "brickmason," aged 27, at home in 1850.
3. WILLIAM, b. Ky. ca. 1827 (aged 22 in 1850), or ca. 1830 (aged 30 in 1860). He was at home in 1850, but by 1860 he had a household next to that of his mother in Liberty Township with wife MALISA, b. Ind. ca. 1833, and children, b. Ind., surname Shepherd: a. Lucian, b. ca. 1853. b. Sarah A., b. ca. 1855.
4. SALLY, b. Ind. ca. 1834 (aged 16 in 1850).
5. MAHALA, b. Ind. ca. 1837 (aged 13 in 1850 and 23 in 1860).
6. MARGARET, b. Ind. ca. 1840 (aged 10 in 1850 and 19 in 1860).
7. (perhaps) JAMES, b. Ind. ca. 1847 (aged 13 in 1860). He was in Margaret Shepherd's home in 1860, but not with Solomon and Margaret in 1850. Margaret was near but not beyond the limit of her child-bearing years in 1847.

iv. LYDIA, b. [say 1803], was living in 1854 (father's probate). She is accounted for as a female, b. 1800-1804, in her father's home in 1810 and 1820, and was his daughter "Lydia Tatman," in 1854; her husband named WILLIAM TATMAN (M.O. Shirley letter, 29 May 1991). No doubt he was the William Tatman, b. 1790-1800, listed in 1830 next to Lydia's father in Fleming Co. (census, p. 58). William's home then included a female [his wife], aged 20-29, a female aged 5-9, and [c] One Solomon Shepherd, aged 18-25, with a female aged 16-25, presumably his wife, had a household in Lewis (adjoining Fleming) Co., Ky., in 1820 (census, p. 92). Nearby was the home of a John Shepherd, aged 45 or older, with several children. An older Solomon Shepherd, aged over 45, was in Lewis Co. in 1810 (census, p. 99) with household: 40101-23001-00. Probably, he was the Solomon whose inventory was taken there in April 1812 by James Givens, George Means, William Walker, and John Maddox. His widow Elizabeth Shepherd's inventory was taken there in March 1816; John Shepherd administrator, James Ruggells, Jess Hambrick, and Hugh Hannah appraisers ("Lewis County Kentucky, Wills and Estates, 1807-1842" [Indianapolis, The Researchers, 19], p. 9). The elder Solomon of Lewis Co. was probably father of Joseph Shepherd, b. Ky. ca. 1800 (aged 50, 1850 census, Pleasant Township, Brown Co., Ohio, house no. 237), whose eldest child Solomon W., b. 1828, claimed that his father's "parents died when he [Joseph] was quite young" (History of Brown County, Ohio [, 1883], "Biographical Sketches," pp. 38-39). Joseph was the Joseph Shepherd chosen by Isaac[2] Waters to administer his estate in 1833 (see No. ii) and who witnessed the will of Isaac's brother-in-law Samuel Hodgkins of Pleasant Township in 1841 (Patricia R. Donaldson, abstr., Brown County, Ohio, Court Records, 1818-1850 [Georgetown, 1980], p. 27; original 2:138). A study of land records may establish the Shepherd relationships.

five boys under age 15. Assuming that William was born in 1800, his household in 1830 correlates with that of the William Tateman, aged 30-40, across the Ohio River in Point Pleasant, Monroe Township, Clermont Co., Ohio, in 1840 (census, p. 209). By then he and his wife (aged 30-39) had accumulated two girls under age 15 and ten boys under age 20. Neither he nor his wife Lydia has been identified in later censuses; however, one Tout Tatman, b. Ind. ca. 1826, appears in the census for the same township in 1850 (p. 15) with wife Mary J., b. ca. 1830, place "unknown," and child Elizabeth A., aged 1y, b. Ohio.[d]

In addition to Tout Tatman above, William and Lydia Tatman would seem to be parents of the following, who, by 1850 and 1860, were living in Adams Co., Ill. (census [1850], pp, 316, 318; [1860, for James], p. 405), with or near the John S. and Elizabeth (Tatman) Tout family below, surname Tatman: John, b. Ky. ca. 1823; m. [say 1848] Mary (____), b. Ky. ca. 1830; William, b. Ky. ca. 1828; and James, b. Ky. ca. 1832.

v. ISAAC W., b. Ky. ca. 1804, d. in Indianapolis in 1874 (biography of son Asa Tout, Biographical Record of Indianapolis and Vicinity [Chicago, 1908], p. 511). Isaac's age was stated as 56 years in 1860 (census, Center Township, Marion Co., Ind., p. 762). He m. in Fleming Co., Ky., 14 Aug. 1821 (bond), ELIZABETH FOSTER (Annie Walker Burns, comp., Record of Marriages in Fleming County Kentucky [Washington, D.C., 1935], p. ), b. in 1804, who d. 2 Aug. 1889 (son Asa's biography), daughter of Zenah D. and Rebecca (____) Foster (M.O. Shirley letter, 29 May 1991). Elizabeth's age in 1860, however, was stated as 54 years.

Asa Tout's biography states that his father was b. in 1802, and Isaac can be accounted for as a male, b. 1800-1804, in his father's home in 1810 and 1820. Statements available for the ages of his sisters Margaret and Lydia (see above) make it more likely that Isaac's birth followed theirs. At age 20-29 in 1830, Isaac had a household in the Eastern District of Fleming Co. (census, p. 64), including, in addition to his wife and elder children, an unidentified female aged 50-59. Son Asa's biography states that Isaac, a brickmason, moved to Danville, Hendricks Co., in the fall of 1831, then to Indianapolis in 1847. Isaac, aged 30-39, appears with a household in Hendricks Co. in 1840 (p. 731) including his wife and eight children aged under 20. Isaac's household has not been located in the 1850 census, but in 1860 it was in the "N½ Centre Township" of Marion Co., P.O. Indianapolis, p. 762.. Asa's biography names himself and eight others as Isaac's children, most without dates, only two of whom were living in 1908.[e]

Children of Isaac W. and Elizabeth (Foster), most dates derived from the 1830, 1840, and 1860 censuses, surname Tout:

1. EMILY[4], b. 1820-25 (1830 and 1840 censuses), deceased in 1908.
2. MARGARET, b. [say 1824] (under 5 in 1830 and 15-19 in 1840), deceased in 1908. A Margaret J. Tout m. in Hendricks Co., 12 Nov. 1840, HENRY HUGHES (WPA index, Hendricks County Marriages [hereafter HCMR], 2:103). They are not found there in 1850 or later censuses.
3. ASA, b. Fleming Co. 6 May 1826, d. 12 June 1906, aged 80, was perhaps the Asa who m. in Hendricks Co., 24 Oct. 1848, JANE DAULTON, though his biography does not mention her (HCMR, 4:28). It states that he m., 29 Nov. 1866, [d] More study is needed. William Tatman's wife Lydia surely was not the 47-year-old Lydia Tatman listed in the 1850 census for adjacent Tate Township, Clermont Co. (census, p. 719). This Lydia's birth place is recorded as in "N.C.," and a tombstone in the township cemetery shows "Lydia, wife of Ruben Tatman," d. 29 Nov. 1861, aged 59y 2m 29d ("Monument Inscriptions Prior to 1900 from Cemeteries in Clermont County," 5:98). Her home in 1850 included children, surname Tatman: James, b. "Ohio" ca. 1830; Lucinda, b. "Ohio" ca. 1833; and Elisa C., b. "Ohio" ca. 1835.

[e] A statement in Asa's biography that Isaac's grandfather was a Bazel Tout, Sr., of London has not been confirmed and is inconsistent with presently available data.

MISS HARRIET WINMAN, b. Toronto 5 March 1840, daughter of Jasper and Mary (Jackson) Winman, by whom he had children, surname Tout: a. Asa B.[5], d. 8y 6m. b. William A., b. 9 July 1879.

4. SARAH, b. 1825-30 (1830 and 1840 censuses), deceased in 1908.
5. HENRY, b. 1825-30 (1840 census), deceased in 1908.
6. WILKINSON M., b. Danville, Hendricks Co., 10 June 1833, and living in 1908; m. 22 Sept. 1855 SARAH MORRIS, b. Somerset Co., Md., 1834. He was a bricklayer of Indianapolis in 1860 (census, p. 762).
7. (perhaps) FEMALE, b. 1835-40 (1840 census).
8. WILLIAM, b. Ind. ca. 1839 (1840 and 1860 censuses), deceased in 1908.
9. ZENAS F., b. Ind. ca. 1841 (1860 census), deceased in 1908.
10. JANE, b. Ind. ca. 1844 (1860 census) and living in 1908; m. MARTIN COMERFORD "of Peoria, Ill."

vi. JOHN S., b. Fleming Co., Ky., 18 Oct. 1806, d. Ursa, Adams Co., Ill., 8 Jan. 1893 (M.O. Shirley, citing NSDAR 587575). He m. Fleming Co., 27 or 30 Aug. 1826 (Bond), ELIZABETH TATMAN, b. Fleming Co. 17 Nov. [prob. 1804], d. Marcelline, Adams Co., Ill., 25 Oct. 1887, daughter of Nehemiah and Nancy (____) Tatman of Sussex Co., Del., and Fleming Co., Ky. (M.O. Shirley, citing information from "application of Lyman D. Tout, Hereditary Order of Descendants of Loyalists and Patriots of the American Revolution, #28," and "Tout family chart, pub. after 1897").[f] The year 1812 stated for Elizabeth's birth is in error; probably it was 1804. Her ages stated in the 1850, 1860, and 1880 censuses for Adams Co., Ill., are two years older than her husband. In 1830, she was aged 20-29, and in 1840, aged 30-39. John is accounted for as one of two males, b. 1804-10, in his father's home in 1810 and 1820. John S. Tout, aged 20-29, had a household in Pleasant Township, Brown Co., Ohio in 1830, including a female aged 20-29 and three males under 5 (census, p. 438). By 1840 John was in nearby Washington Township (adjoining Monroe, see sister Lydia above), Clermont Co., Ohio (census, p. 188). His children's birth places, as shown in the 1850 and 1860 censuses for Ursa Township, Adams Co., Ill. (pp. 318 and 399, respectively), imply that he moved there from Ohio about 1842.[g] In 1860, his household included one William Tatman, aged 22, b. Ky. At age 73, John and his wife Elizabeth, aged 75, were residing in the Village of Marcelline in 1880 with a 22-year-old "grandson" Richard Tout in their home (census, p. 27).

Children of John S. and Elizabeth (Tatman), from censuses cited, surname Tout:

1. MALE[4], b. 1825-30 (1830 and 1840 censuses).
2. MALE, b. 1825-30 (1830 and 1840 censuses).
3. MALE, b. 1825-30 (1830 and 1840 censuses).

[f] Nehemiah Tatman's household in Fleming Co. in 1810 (census, p. 82) appears as: 52101-31001-00. Mrs. Shirley's notes make an Elizabeth Tatman the wife both of Abraham Tout (No. i above) and John S. Tout. Elizabeth appears, however, to be the same person in both cases; the marriage in one case (with John S. Tout) shown as 27 August 1826 and in the other (with Abraham Tout), as 30 August 1826 (date of bond). The confusion is adeqately resolved by noting that the death place of Abraham's supposed wife "Elizabeth Tatman" is shown in the notes as in "Marcelline, IL," the village in Adams Co. where John S. and Elizabeth Tout were residing in 1880.

[g] Near John S. Tout at Ursa in 1850 (on the same census page) was a family headed by Michael Shepperd, aged 50, b. Ky. His wife then was Nancy, aged 40, b. Ky. Perhaps this man was the Michael Shepherd to whom Bazil[2] and Sarah (Shepherd) Tout conveyed the three acres in Fleming County In April 1823, mentioned previously.

4. MARY A., b. Ohio ca. 1834 (1840 and 1850 censuses).

5. JOHN [S.?], b. Ohio ca. 1835 (1840, 1850, 1860, and 1880 censuses). He was a carpenter in the Village of Marcelline in 1880; his "wife" then was MARY (____), b. Ill. ca. 1858 (census, p. 26). "Daughter" with them in 1880, surname Tout: a. Emma[5], b. Ill. ca. 1878.

6. ASBURY M., b. Ohio ca. 1837 (1840, 1850, 1860, and 1880 censuses). He was a blacksmith at Marcelline in 1880 with "wife" MARGARET (____), b. Pa. ca. 1845, her parents b. Ireland. No children were listed (census, p. 26).

7. SARAH J., b. Ohio ca. 1839 (1840, 1850, and 1860 censuses).

8. CAROLINE, b. Ohio ca. 1842 (1850 census).

9. ELIZABETH, b. Ill. ca. 1843 (1850 and 1860 censuses).

10. THOMAS, b. Ill. ca. 1846 (1850 and 1860 censuses).

11. JAMES, b. Ill. ca. 1851 (1860 census).

vii. BENJAMIN, b. Ky. ca. 1807 (aged 43, 1850 census, Middle Township, Hendricks Co., Ind., p. 43), was living in 1854 (father's probate). He and his brother John above account for the two males, b. 1804-10, in their father's home in 1810 and 1820. Benjamin's wife in Middle Township in 1850 was MARY ANN (____), b. Ky. ca. 1807, perhaps daughter of the Mary White in their household, b. Md. ca. 1774. Birth places listed for children in 1850 imply that Benjamin came from Kentucky to Indiana between 1831 and 1834, about the time his parents moved there. He had a household in Hendricks Co. in 1840 (p. 731) including four children: one female aged 10-14 and three males aged 5-9.[h]

Children implied by the 1840 and 1850 censuses, perhaps others later, surname Tout:

1. FEMALE[4], b. 1825-30 (1840 census).

2. WILLIAM H., b. Ky. ca. 1832 (1840 and 1850 censuses), or ca. 1830 (1860 census); m. in Hendricks Co., 5 Aug. 1852, SARAH KITE (HCMR, 4:281), b. Ky. ca. 1829. About 1857 or 1858, they moved to Chariton, Lucas Co., Iowa, where he was brick mason in 1860 with wife Sarah and children, surname Tout: a. George[5], b. Ind. ca. 1854. b. Mary, b. Ind. ca. 1857. c. John, b. Iowa ca. 1858.

3. JOHN W. b. Ind. ca. 1834 (1840 and 1850 censuses).

4. JAMES, b. Ind. ca. 1837 (aged 13, 1850 census). He seems to be one of the three males, aged 5-9 (sic), recorded in 1840.

5. RICHARD M., b. Ind. ca. 1841 (1850 census).

6. BAZIL, b. Ind. ca. 1847 (1850 census).

7. SILAS, b. Ind. ca. 1848 (1850 census).

viii. ANDREW W., b. Fleming Co., Ky., ca. 1811, d. Hendricks Co., Ind., 21 Nov. 1877 (Obituary, Danville Union, 22 Nov. 1877 issue; "Center Township," Peoples Guide [Indianapolis Publishing House, [h] Two Benjamin Touts appear on the same census page in 1840, both shown as aged 20-29. One clearly was Benjamin[4] (William[3], Benjamin G.[2], Abraham[1]), b. 1819. The other corresponds in stated age with Benjamin F.[3] Tout (Benjamin G.[2], Abraham[1]), b. ca. 1816; however, the data for this household in 1840 do not correlate with Benjamin F. Tout's household in 1850 and 1860, but they do correlate with the 1850 household of the Benjamin considered here. The ages of the second Benjamin and his wife (Mary Ann) were apparently understated by one age bracket in 1840.

1874]). Andrew is accounted for as a male, b. 1810-20, in his father's home in 1820. He m. in Fleming Co., 4 Oct. 1830 (bond), REBECCA POWELL (M.O. Shirley, citing "Fleming Co. marriage bond signed by Basil Tout and Thomas McKinney"), b. Fleming Co., Ky., 3 Oct. 1808, d. Danville, Hendricks Co., 1 Oct. 1873 in her 66th year (Obituary, Hendricks County Union, 9 Oct. 1873 issue). Andrew W. Tout's household appears in censuses of Hendricks county for 1840 (p. 727), 1850 (p. 735), 1860 (p. 521), and 1870 (p. 293). A butcher of Danville in 1874, he is said to have settled in Hendricks Co. in 1831 (Peoples Guide), probably with his father and older brothers who arrived about then from Fleming Co. Andrew is said to have taught school in Hendricks Co. for several years, served there as constable, afterwards County Sheriff, then assessor from 1854 until the Civil War, when elected Captain of a militia company (Perrin, History of Bourbon, Scott, Harrison, and Nicholas Counties, Kentucky, p. 798).

Children, inferred from the census data, surname Tout:

1. MARTHA M.[4], b. Ky. ca. 1830 (1840 and 1850 censuses).

2. THOMAS M., b. Hendricks Co. 4 Dec. 1833 and living in Nicholas Co., Ky., in 1882; m. Sept. 1859 MARTHA ANN COLLIVER, daughter of Elijah Colliver of Montgomery Co., Ky. (Thomas's biography, in Perrin, History of Bourbon, Scott, Harrison, and Nicholas Counties, pp. 798-99). According to his biography, Thomas came to Fleming Co., Ky., in 1858, where he ran a sawmill, then to Nicholas Co. before marriage. He had "four brothers in the late [Civil] war, three of whom were in the Union army and one, John L., in the Southern army under Humphrey Marshall." Children (ibid.), all living in 1882, surname Tout: a. Nannie R.[5] b. John T. c. Andrew E. d. Sarah E. e. George. f. Hattie L. g. Mary A. h. Fannie R. i. Willie A.

3. WILLIAM L., b. Ind. ca. 1836 (1840, 1850, 1860, and 1880 censuses); m. in Hendricks Co., 10 Jan. 1864, ROXANNE SMITH (HCMR, 6:246), b. Ky. ca. 1843 (1880 census). Most likely, he was the William Tout, teamster and trader of Danville in 1874, "born in Hendricks County 1837" ("Center Township," Peoples Guide). William L. and Roxana's home was in Danville City at the time of the 1880 census (p. 24). Children, from that census, all b. Ind., surname Tout: a. Emma F.[5], b. ca. 1866. b. Mamie E., b. ca. 1870. c. Ella N., b. ca. 1873. d. Walter L., b. ca. 1875. e. Christianna, b. ca. 1879, d. Danville 28 June 1894, aged 15 (WPA Death Records, Hendricks Co., A20:4).

4. JOHN L., b. Ind. ca. 1838 (1840 and 1850 censuses), is said to have served with the Southern army in the Civil War (see brother Thomas M. above).

5. FRANKLIN HOMER, b. Ind. ca. 1840 (1850 and 1860 censuses). He served with his brothers George and Columbus C. Tout in the 7th and 148th Indiana Infantry Regiments during most of the Civil War. In 1870, Homer Tout, aged 30, farm laborer, was living alone in Danville (census, p. 280).

6. GEORGE W., b. Hendricks Co. in 1841 ("Center Township," Peoples Guide), d. in Danville 31 May 1901, aged 58 (sic) (WPA Death Records, A21:24). He m. (1) in Hendricks Co., 21 March 1871, ANNA MARY AYRES (HCMR, 7:343), b. Ind. ca. 1848 (1880 census), d. 1890 (Obituary, Hendricks County Republican, 2 Jan. 1890 issue); and (2), 17 Feb. 1895, BETTIE McFARLAN (HCMR, 11:332). In 1874 George was operating a livery stable in Center Township, but was called a "butcher" in Danville City in 1880 (census, p. 7). He had no children at home in 1880.

7. COLUMBUS C. (also "Christian C." and "Christopher C."), b. Hendricks Co. in 1844

("Center Township," Peoples Guide), d. Danville 8 Nov. 1905. He m. there 7 Sept. 1868 SUSAN H. PADGETT (HCMR, 7:102), b. Ind. in 1848, who d. there 26 Oct. 1906 (Civil War pension file 197538, National Archives). His file shows that Columbus served as a private from Sept. 1861 to Sept. 1865, and was wounded in the wilderness fight in Virginia 5 May 1864. He and his wife both signed documents by mark, he stating his occupation as day laborer and butcher. He was a "brick moulder" of Danville in 1874, but a "butcher" there in 1880. Children, from the 1880 census and Danville East Cemetery inscriptions, all b. Ind., surname Tout: a. Hattie[5], b. 16 July 1870, d. 18 Jan. 1882. b. Maggie, b. ca. 1872. c. Julie, b. 1874, d. 1928. d. Maude, b. 14 Dec. 1879, d. 19 May 1882. e. Jessie, b. ca. 1883, d. 24 Jan. 1900 (Obituary, Hendricks County Republican, 24 Jan. 1900 issue).

8. SARAH C., b. Ind. ca. 1845 (1850 and 1860 censuses).

9. NANCY, b. Ind. ca. 1847 (1850 and 1860 censuses); perhaps the Nancy E. who m. in Hendricks Co., 21 Dec. 1865, WILLIAM STRICKLAND (HCMR, 6:423).

10. BRADLEY, b. Ind. ca. 1851 (1860 and 1870 censuses), d. apparently after Jan. 1876 and before the 1880 census date; m. in Hendricks Co., 7 Jan. 1876, ALICE E. AYRES (HCMR, 8:286), b. Ind. ca. 1858, daughter of William P. Ayres of Danville, with whom she was residing in 1880 (census, p. 21) with a child, surname Tout: a. Roscoe[5], b. Ind. ca. 1877, d. Danville 27 Aug. 1883, aged 6y (WPA Death Records, A01:231).

ix. BETSY, b. [say 1812], accounted for as one of three females, b. 1810-20, in her father's home in 1820. She was her father's deceased daughter Betsy in 1854 (father's probate). She m. in Hendricks Co., 31 Jan. 1833, ALBERT THOMPSON (HCMR, 1½:30). Thompson was a "son-in-law" of the Touts who greeted Philip[2] Waters, brother of Isaac, when he arrived in Hendricks Co. from Ohio in 1834 (see No. ii above). The Thompson household is not found in the 1840 or later censuses for Hendricks Co.

Children named as minor heirs in Bazil Tout's 1854 will, Nicholas T. Hadley guardian (M.O. Shirley letter, 29 May 1991), surname Thompson: 1. James. 2. Richard.

x. SARAH, b. Ky. ca. 1814 (1850 and 1870 censuses), was living in Middle Township, Hendricks Co. in 1870 (p. 484). She is accounted for as one of three females, b. 1810-20, in her father's home in 1820, and was his daughter "Sarah Smith" in 1854. She m. in Hendricks Co., 31 Jan. 1833, RAPHAEL SMITH (HCMR, 1½:31), b. Va. ca. 1811 and living in 1870.

Children, inferred from the 1850 and 1870 censuses for Middle Township, all b. Ind., surname Smith: 1. Mariah Jane, b. ca. 1835. 2. Mary Ann, b. ca. 1836. 3. Nancy M., b. ca. 1838. 4. Stephen W., b. ca. 1840. 5. Sarah E., b. ca. 1841. 6. Basil T., b. ca. 1843. 7. John W., b. ca. 1845. 8. Margaret E., b. ca. 1848. 9. Maude, b. ca. 1853. 10. Mahala, b. ca. 1855. 11. George, b. ca. 1859.

xi. WILLIAM S., b. Ky. [say 1816 but possibly ca. 1814], is accounted for as a male, b. 1815-20, in his father's home in 1820 and 1830, and was living at the time of the latter's probate in 1854. Presuming he was the William Tout, b. Ky., aged 36 (sic), and family, with John S. Tout (No. vi. above) in Ursa, Adams Co., Ill., in 1850 (census, p. 316), his wife then was LAVINA (____), b. Ky. ca. 1820. His children's birth places shown in that census imply that they had lived in Indiana since about 1835 or before, and had come to Illinois about 1847. Nearby on the same page of the 1850 census was one John Tatman, b. Ky. ca. 1823, with wife Mary, aged 20, b. Ky., and child John Tatman, aged 1y, b. Ill.

Children, as listed in 1850, surname Tout: 1. Mary J.[4], b. Ind. ca. 1835. 2. Martha, b.

there ca. 1836. 3. Eucebe, b. there ca. 1838. 4. Anderson, b. there ca. 1840. 5. John, b. there ca. 1842. 6. Julia, b. there ca. 1843. 7. Perry, b. there ca. 1844. 8. Viranda, b. there ca. 1845. 9. William, b. there ca. 1846. 10. Larget, b. Ill. ca. 1848.

xii. MAHALA, b. Ky. ca. 1819 (aged 31, 1850 census), d. Millgrove, Owen [sic, Blackford?] Co., Ind., 21 May 1904 (M.O. Shirley notes, citing NSDAR 606731). Mahala is accounted for is a female, b. 1815-20, in her father's household in 1820 and 1830. In 1850, he was living in her home in Middle Township, Hendricks Co. (census, p. 150). She m. (1) in Hendricks Co., 30 March 1837, GEORGE CASSELL (HCMR, 1½:126), b. Ky, ca. 1803 and living in 1850, a carpenter. She m. (2) in Hendricks Co., 31 Jan. or 15 Oct. 1854, WILLIAM S. McQUAT, b. Scotland, d. Millgrove, Ind., before 1904 (M.O. Shirley notes).

Children, from 1850 census, all b. Ind., surname Cassell: 1. Jefferson, b. ca. 1838. 2. Catharine, b. ca. 1840. 3. John, b. ca. 1844.

xiii. (perhaps) MARTHA who m. in Hendricks Co., 5 Nov. 1843, ABRAHAM TRIGGS (HCMR, 2:210). She could be one of the two females, b. 1820-25, in Bazil Tout's home in 1830. If so, she d. without issue before his probate in 1854. Abraham and Martha are not found in the 1850 census.

xiv. NANCY, b. Ky. ca. 1823 (aged 27, 1850 census). She was Bazil Tout's daughter "Nancy Mourning" in 1854 (probate), and is accounted for as one of the two females, b. 1820-25, in his household in 1830. She m. (1) in Hendricks Co., 16 Jan. 1840, ANDERSON J. POUNDS (HCMR, 2:73), b. 1810-20 (1840 census, Hendricks Co., p. 43), and (2), before 1850, BENJAMIN MOURNING, b. Ky. ca. 1809 (aged 41, 1850 census, Middle Township, Hendricks Co., p. 150). The seven children, ages 2mo. to 13y, in their home in 1850 are all indicated by ditto marks as having surname "Mourning." The two eldest, Samuel H., aged 13, and John W., aged 11, surely were Benjamin Mourning's children by an earlier wife, and probably some of the younger ones.

Children, those aged 10 or under in 1850, all b. Ind. and all with indicated surname Mourning, but one at least -- Anderson J. -- perhaps Pounds: 1. Julia Ann, b. ca. 1840. 2. William, b. ca. 1842. 3. Anderson J., b. ca. 1846. 4. Benjamin, b. ca. 1848. 5. Margaret S., b. 1850 (aged 2m).

Ms. Marian Shirley

Dear Marian,

It was a pleasant surprise to receive your card, but sad to learn that your husband passed away this Fall. No doubt, it must be a rough time for you and yours. I understand it may be a good thing to get back into genealogy as soon as things settle down.

Your note prompted me to get out the stack on Waters-Tout to see where we left it. I have really been pushing on some New England work and, consequently, probably have not added much since our last correspondence. I do see, however, that I have a manuscript that looks about ripe for some final work to turn it into something worth getting in print in some form. I really should get that done; there is about 20+ years of data collecting and analysis represented.

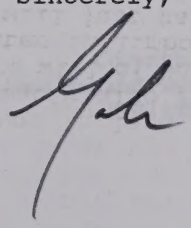
As I scan through the manuscript, at least two things jump out. One is that a more systematic job needs to be done in land records, particularly in those relevant Kentucky counties, and probably also in Hendricks County. The other, due to its special importance, is the will of Bazil Tout in Hendricks Co. in 1854. It would not do to leave that item in limbo as hearsay evidence. I have the Kentucky deeds on my do list; it will just take time to get at it. It has been my impression that you had some items you wanted to personally check in Hendricks Co., since it is close by, and perhaps may be able to get a copy of Bazil's will. (I have no idea about Carol Stultz, whether she is still active or not. I've never corresponded directly with her.)

I don't recall whether it was before or after our last correspondence, but I have done some searching in western Pennsylvania and Harford Co., Maryland, land records for Waters and Tout. So far, it just eliminated some possibilities; nothing specific was found. It is significant, however, that Abraham Tout does not appear in extensive existing lists of Harford Co. militiamen in 1776 and 1777, yet does appear in March 1778. Wherever he came from, he must have arrived there in 1777 or 1778, and we know he had married by that time a widow Waters and already had by her a couple of boys, Bazil and Benjamin. I think I have mentioned a suspicion (a hypothesis) that he may have origins in a seventeenth-century Tout family in Boston. If so, it would be an atypical migration for a Kentucky family, but perhaps not so unusual as to be out of the question. In any case, I plan to keep pecking away at the problem.

The enclosed Boston piece by John Carney and myself just arrived in yesterday's mail. Thought you may like a copy; it is a sample of the kind of thing that has been competing with the Waters-Tout work.

I wish you and yours a Happy Christmas and New Year.

Sincerely,



To Marian

THRICE - WIDOWED HANNAH PAINE OF BOSTON: THE WIDOW ELIOT, FAYERWEATHER, AND CLARK

John B. Carney and Gale Ion Harris

The maiden name of Hannah who married Boston's Asaph Eliot (1651-1685), Thomas Fayerweather (1661-1693/4), and Samuel Clark (1659-1705), has been the basis for considerable study, but until recently the question had no definite answer. When the first author above prepared "In Search of Fayerweather: The Fayerweather Family of Boston" (Register, 144 [1990]:16-18), he was able to show that the Hannah Eliot who married Thomas Fayerweather was the widow of Asaph Eliot, and not, as had been previously reported, Asaph's niece Hannah, born 17 March 1666 (Boston Births, Baptisms, Marriages, and Deaths, 1630-1699 [A Report of the Record Commissioners, hereinafter BRC], vol. 9 [Boston, 1883], 100) and baptized 24 da. 1 mo. 1667 (ibid., 9:106), the daughter of his brother Deacon Jacob Eliot (1632-1693), but her parentage had not then been learned.

The basic clues about Hannah and her marriages came from the manuscript and references cited in Clarence Almon Torrey's "New England Marriages Before 1700" in the Society's collection, which includes entries for her three husbands: Asaph Eliot, Thomas Fayerweather, and Samuel Clark.

The data for Asaph Eliot indicates that he married twice: his first wife was Elizabeth Davenport, daughter of Captain Richard; and his second wife was Hannah Paine. In both cases, Torrey entered the wife's maiden name in square brackets, which was his way of indicating that he had seen proof of the marriage – usually from a will or a deed – but not an actual marriage record. His references for Elizabeth concern Davenports or Eliots, and state only in passing that, following Elizabeth's death, Asaph and his wife Hannah had a son. Torrey's references for Hannah do not identify her parents or give a verifiable source for her maiden name, and Torrey does not suggest that Eliot left a widow who remarried.

In his entry for Thomas Fayerweather (1661 -) [sic], Torrey suggests that the maiden name of Fayerweather's wife Hannah may have been Hudson, Mason, or Paine, and notes that in 1698, she married second, Samuel Clark, thus implying that her marriage to Fayerweather was her first. Torrey's references do not provide the answers to resolve Hannah's parentage, and his notes do not suggest that Hannah was a widow when she married Thomas Fayerweather. Torrey's manuscript entry for Samuel Clark suggests the maiden name of his wife Hannah Fayerweather, widow of Thomas, may have been Hudson or Paine, but again, the source he cites does not identify her parents.

However, correspondence received following publication of "In Search of Fayerweather ..." has opened new avenues of research which have led to the answer to the question. Considerable work on associated families by Dr. Harris, co-author of the present article, provided specific evidence of Hannah's parentage, details of her early life, and of her life as Asaph Eliot's widow. Mr. Donald E. Williams, a relative of Loyalist Fairweathers in New Brunswick, sent Mr. Carney a brief transcript of an unidentified deed which named Hannah Clark's father, and subsequent research by Mr. Carney has located the original deed.

The five documents cited below confirm that the Widow Hannah (Eliot) (Fayerweather) Clark was born Hannah Paine, daughter of John Paine, Boston merchant, formerly of Prudence Island, and his wife Sarah (Parker) Paine; and granddaughter of William Paine of Boston, and of Richard Parker of Boston, merchant.

First, John Paine received property from his father, William Paine, in consideration of his marriage to Sarah Parker, daughter of Richard Parker of Boston (Suffolk Deeds, 14 vols. [Boston, 1880-1906], 9:345-47):

> Dated 15 March 1658[/9]: William Paine to John Paine, Thompson's Island. In consideration of contract and marriage between my son John Paine of Boston, merchant, and Sarah Parker, daughter of Mr. Richard Parker of Boston, aforsaid grant to son John Paine, Thompson's Island, land and buildings in Ipswich ... except if son leaves no children or grandchildren, then Ipswich lands shall go to children of daughter Hannah Appleton, deceased, as namely to Hannah, Judeth & Samuel .... Will: Paine, & seal. Witt: Richard Parker, William Howard. Recorded 12 July 1676. Entered on request of Mrs. Anne Manning, aunt of the said Mr. John Paine's children.

Second, John and Sarah (Parker) Paine received property from her father at the time of their marriage, and John, following his wife's death, put it in trust for their three daughters Sarah, Hannah, and Anna Paine (Rhode Island Land Evidences, Volume I, 1648-1696, Abstracts (only volume published), [1921, repr. Baltimore, 1970] [hereinafter R.I. Land Evidences], 1:39):

Third, Hannah, the daughter of John and Sarah (Parker) Paine, was in 1682 the wife of Asaph Eliot (R.I. Land Evidences, 1:163-64):

> William Gerrish to Asaph Eliot: Capt Wm. Gerrish & Ann his wife, the only surviving child of Richard Parker late of Boston, Gent., Dec'd, have given to Asaph Eliot & Hannah his present wife and Anne Paine, spinster (two of the grandchildren of Mr. Richard Parker), in equal halves, the moiety of the Island called Prudence ..... that half next unto Warwick .... Signed: Wm. Gerrish, Ann Gerrish. Wit: Charles Buckner, Isa. Addington. Captn. Wm Gerrish and Anne his wife acknowleged this ... Boston 2 Oct. 1682 before me, John Hull, Assistant.

Fourth, Hannah Fayerweather, widow of Thomas, was the widow of Asaph Eliot in 1693[/4] (Suffolk Co. Probate, 13:22, File 2154):

> Inventory dated 21 March 1693[/4], estate of Thomas Fayerweather, submitted by his widow Hannah Fayerweather, 5 July 1694, included "1/3 part of the personal estate of my former husband Asaph Eliot, dec'd, £94 12s 4d."

Fifth, Hannah Clark, formerly Hannah Fayerweather [formerly Hannah Eliot], was the daughter of John Paine, formerly of Prudence Island, merchant, deceased (North Kingstown, R.I., Deeds, 3:334-35; original fire-damaged around the edges):

> [1717] Thomas [Faireweather of Boston in] the county of Suffolk in the Province of the Massachusetts [Bay in N]ew England, merchant, son and heir of Hannah C[lark, formerly] Hannah Faireweather, dec'd., who was the daughter [of] John Payne formerly of Prudence Island in the Colo[ny of Rhode] Island and Province Plantations Merch[t] Deceased, [of the one] part and Timothy Clarke of Boston in the County and [Province Afore] said, Esq., of the other part; A Certaine farme o[missing] Land Scituate Lying and being in a place Commonly [known as] Boston Neck in the Township of Kings Town in the [Collony of] Rhode Island afore said, containing three hundred and [missing] and three Quarters of one Acre ... acknowledged 6 Sept. [year missing and illegible] by Thomas Fayerweather.

In addition to uncovering new information on Hannah, this research has also identified her third husband. He was Samuel[2] Clark, son of Deacon Jonas[1] Clark of Cambridge, and his second wife, Elizabeth (Clark) Clark. This study has also turned up further information on Hannah and Samuel's son, Samuel[3], and his family, as outlined below. Further material on Hannah's family and those of her husbands Eliot and Clark, as well as her maternal Parker line, has been compiled by Dr. Harris, one of the present authors, and will be found with the manuscript of "In Search of Fayerweather" at the Society.

HANNAH[3] PAINE (John[2], William[1]) was born 31 March 1662, daughter of Mr. John and Sarah (Parker) Paine (BRC 9:85), and was buried 14 February 171[6/]7, aged 53 (M. Halsey Thomas, The Diary of Samuel Sewall, 1674-1729, 2 vols. [New York, 1973] [hereinafter Sewall's Diary], 2:846).

Hannah's grandfather, William Paine, aged 37, came to New England on the ship Increase, Robert Lee, master, sailing from London in April 1635 with his wife Anna, and probably five children; for further details, see Albert W. Paine, Paine Genealogy, Ipswich Branch (Bangor, Me., 1881), hereinafter Paine Genealogy, 57-74), as well as the present authors' work at the Society. Her father, John Paine, received from his father at the time of his marriage Thompson's Island in Boston Harbor, and houses and lands in Ipswich (Suffolk Deeds, 8:345-47). At the same time, he received from his wife Sarah's father 600 acres of land on the north end of Prudence Island [town of Portsmouth], Rhode Island. On 20 July 1669, he put the Prudence Island property in trust for their daughters Sarah, Hannah, and Anna Paine (R.I. Land Evidences, 1:39).

Hannah married first, before 2 October 1682 as his second wife, (ibid., 1:163-64), ASAPH ELIOT, who was born at Boston 25 (8) 1651 (BRC 9:33), and died there 3 September 1685, aged "about 34 ... of a fever" (Sewall's Diary, 1:76; Suffolk Co. Probate, 9:123; File 1420), son of Jacob and Margery (____) Eliot. His first wife, Elizabeth Davenport, died 10 March 1680, aged about 26 years (Gravestone Inscriptions and Records of Tomb Burials in the Granary Burying Ground, Boston, Mass. [Salem, 1918], 90); their daughter Elizabeth, born 14 February 1679 (BRC 9:148), married 1 July 1697, Isaac Royall (BRC 9:236) (see Henry Davenport, "Genealogical Notice of the Descendants of Eleazer Davenport," Register, 4 [1850]:111; Edward Doubleday Harris, "The New England Royalls," Register, 39 [1885]:352-53).

Administration on Asaph Eliot's estate was granted 11 September 1685 to his relict widow, Hannah, and his brother, Capt. Jacob Eliot of Boston (Suffolk Co. Probate, 9:123; File 1420). The estate inventory, dated 3 September 1685, included household goods, three ships, and personal property valued at £293 7*s* 8*d*. Appraised real estate consisted of a house and land, and another plot of land at Boston [probably], two acres of land at Roxbury gate, and 300 acres at Sherborn, raising the estate total to £335. Land at Merrimack, Dunstable, Narragansett, and "the North Purchase" was listed but not appraised (Suffolk Co. Probate, 9:131; File 1420).

Hannah married second, after 27 August 1688, when she was still listed as Widow Eliot ("Boston Tax Valuation," BRC 1:144), THOMAS FAYERWEATHER, son of John and Sarah (Turner) Fayerweather (Register, 144 [1990]:15-16). Thomas was born 5 September 1661 (BRC 9:78), and died before 16 February 1693/4 when administration on his estate was granted to his widow Hannah Fayerweather (Suffolk Co. Probate, 13:176; File 2154). (For further information, see Register, 144 [1990], 16-18.)

Hannah married third, 23 June 1698, SAMUEL CLARK, Mr. Willard presiding (BRC 9:243). Samuel was baptized 6 November 1659, son of Deacon Jonas[1] and Elizabeth (Clark) Clark of Cambridge, and died in early November 1705 according to Samuel Sewall, who noted on 25 November 1705 (Sewall's Diary, 1:532): "This day hear of Capt. Samuel Clark's death very suddenly at Sea, about three weeks ago; Sail'd from St. Thomas 2 or 3 days before. Was a good man, liv'd in our house more than Ten years, left one Son."

In November 1673, Sewall's future father-in-law John Hull, goldsmith of Boston, "accepted Samuel Clark, son of Jonas Clark, as an apprentice for eight years" ("Diary of John Hull," Transactions and Collections of the American Antiquarian Society 3 [1857]:162). On 21 October 1678, Hull noted: "Samuel Clark taken with small-pox. The eighth day began to be light-headed, and needed two or three to hold him in bed" (ibid., 163). Sewall's notes in 1685 (Sewall's Diary, 1:59, 71, 77) suggest that Samuel resided with him at that time. On 12 March 1684/5 Sewall stood watch with his neighbor Isaac Goose and Sam Clark ("gave each Watch 12*d* to drink"). Next 19 July: "this night; I not being very thoroughly recovered, Mr. Goose Watches accompanied by Sam. Clark, and Cous. Nath. Dummer." Two months later, on 20 September: "Watch with Isaac Goose, and Cous. Nath. Dummer. Sam. Clark keeps on Board his Brother's Ship, intending a Voyage to Sea, having no work in the Shop."

At that time, Samuel Clark had two mariner brothers living in Boston: Timothy near Sewall in the South End, and half-brother Jonas in the North End. In 1689 a Samuel Clark appears with Jonas in the Division No. 1 tax list. He most likely was the Samuel Clark, mariner, with Jonas there in the 1695 inhabitants' list, but nearby was a Samuel Clark, carpenter (BRC 1:146,160). Significantly, Division One also included "Sam. Clark's Aunt ... Mrs. [Samuel] Ruck" whose burial Sewall noted on 3 January 1690/1 (Sewall's Diary, 1:274; BRC 1:135, 148). In December 1697 Sewall refers to Samuel as "Capt. Clark," who informed him of a ship's arrival at Marblehead carrying news of the Peace of Ryswick ending King William's War (Sewall's Diary, 1:383).

Samuel Clark of Boston, mariner, purchased a brick house and land in Boston's South End from John Squire on 1 October 1696; the deed was approved by the grantor's son and recorded 2 August 1698; witnesses were abutter Richard Keates, and Timothy Clark, probably Samuel's brother (Suffolk Co. Deeds, 18:243). The approval and recording were made only about six weeks after a Samuel Clark married the widow Hannah Fayerweather. On 3 September 1702, Samuel Clark of Boston, mariner, and Hannah his wife conveyed to Jonathan Fairbank of the town of Sherborn in the County of Middlesex, land partly in the town of Sherborn and partly in Indian lands adjoining, being land formerly granted to "my grandfather," Richard Parker, formerly of Boston (Middlesex Co. Deeds, 18:543-44). Presumably, the same Samuel Clark of Boston, mariner, was involved in both of these transactions, and from the second transaction it is clear that it was he who married the widow Hannah (Paine) (Eliot) Fayerweather on 23 June 1698. Since Samuel had lived much of his life with Sewall in Boston's South End, his purchase of a home in that area in anticipation of marriage would be logical.

This brick house and land in Boston's South End continued to figure in Clark transactions. On 7 June 1756, Samuel Clark of Bristol, Rhode Island, mortgaged the property to John Jones of Boston (Suffolk Co. Deeds, 88:235), and on 30 September 1761, Hannah Clark of Bristol, widow and late wife of Samuel Clark of Bristol, husbandman, and administratrix, sold the property to Jones, the deed specifically stating that it was the same property which "one Samuel Clark, father of the said Samuel Clark, dec'd., bought of John Squire by deed dated 1 October 1696" (ibid., 96:265). It is more than coincidental that Samuel Clark, husbandman, and later his widow, both from Bristol, turned to the same Boston merchant for financial help. He was the John Jones (1708-1772), who married Samuel's half-niece Hannah (Francis) Jones (1715-1782), daughter of Samuel's half-sister Hannah (Fayerweather) Francis (1690-1725). See Register, 144 [1990]:164-68.

A month after noting Capt. Samuel Clark's death at sea, Sewall visited "the solitary widow of Mr. Saml Clark [who was] very thankfull to me" (Sewall's Diary, 1:537, 24 Dec. 1705). About eleven years later, on 21 July 1716, he again "visited Sam. Clark's widow, and gave her [his son] Joseph's Sermons" (ibid., 2:826). Finally, on 14 February 1716/7, Sewall was one of the bearers for "Mrs. Hannah Clark, widow of Saml Clark ... buried in the old burying place, aged 53" (ibid., 2:846).

The will of widow Hannah Clark of Boston, dated 25 August 1713 and proven 25 February 1716/7, named her three children: Thomas Fayerweather, Hannah (Fayerweather) Francis, and Samuel Clark (Suffolk Co. Probate, 19:279; File 3817; see Register, 144 [1990]:17-18 for details).

Children, first marriage, surname Eliot:

i. JOHN, b. 18 Dec. 1683 (BRC 9:160), bp. 23 Dec. 1683 ("Records, Old South Church, Baptisms, 1669-1875" [FHL microfilm 836694], 35); d. probably in infancy.

ii. SARAH, bp. 11 Jan. 1684/5 (ibid., 38); d. probably in infancy.

Children, second marriage (for further information see Register 144 [1990]:16-18), surname Fayerweather:

iii. HANNAH, b. 30 June 1690 (BRC 9:189); d. probably shortly before 31 May 1725; m. at Boston 16 Feb. 1709 ABRAHAM FRANCIS (Register, 144 [1990]:164).

iv. THOMAS, b. 7 Nov. 1692 (BRC 9:201); d. 20 Nov. 1733, "son and heir of Hannah C[lark, formerly] Hannah Fairweather, decd., daughter [of] John Paine formerly of Prudence Island" (North Kingstown, R.I., Deeds, 3:334-35).

Children, third marriage, surname Clark:

v. SAMUEL, b. 25 April 1699 (BRC 9:246); d. 30 Jan. 1759, aged 60 (Arnold, Rhode Island Vital Record, 6 [Bristol]:124); perhaps the Samuel Clark who m. 18 Jan. 1747, Mrs. MARY SAMPSON, who d. 23 August 1748 (ibid., 14); probably the Samuel Clark of Portsmouth who m. 12 April 1749, Mrs. HANNAH CARY (ibid.).

Child by Hannah Cary; surname Clark: 1. Hannah, b. 10 Jan. 1750/1 (ibid., 60).

vi. SARAH, b. 15 Aug. 1701 (BRC 24:6); d. before 25 Aug. 1713 (date of mother's will).

vii. JOHN, b. 22 Nov. 1703 (BRC 24:20); d. before 25 Aug. 1713 (date of mother's will).

Dear Marian,

Thank you very much for the letter with enclosed material about Touts. I did have some of it from Mrs. Thompson, but not all. It has been most helpful as I worked through this enclosed first-pass attempt to get it all together in a form I can work with. I would appreciate whatever suggestions, comments, corrections, etc., you may have. Except for some minor changes and additions, the Waters section of it is about the same as the draft copy you've seen. I did not find the specific problem you mentioned about the location of counties, but I will come back to it and try to make it more clear. Bracken, Fleming, Harrison, and Nicholas are of course counties along the Licking River carved mostly out of old Mason.

Much work needs to be done; the draft helps me identify what it is. As well known, DAR and SAR application material is highly unreliable unless the specific primary sources can be independently evaluated. The cases we have are good examples. I doubt any editor or reviewer would let pass even the few references to those sources remaining in the manuscript. But the most significant remaining problem is that land and probate records have not been systematically studied, especially, in this case, in Kentucky, Pennsylvania, and Maryland. Until that is done, everything about early Touts in this draft is tentative. I've started the process in Pennsylvania, but have only touched Maryland and Kentucky by the limited material in print.

The Waters part is in better shape because I have gradually collected source material for about 25 years. Some of the Tout material, according to my notes, was collected about 15 years ago, but most is very recent and not yet focused on the unpublished source data.

You mentioned the McKees; they certainly need better study. I have gathered bits and pieces for several years, but I still don't know the detailed relationships between all the McKee spouses of both Waters and Tout descendants. Clearly, they belong someway to the McKees of McKeesport, Pa., and vicinity, probably the John and Guion McKee families that show up in Kentucky. I suspect it is a relatively straightforward genealogical task to sort them out from land and probate records.

As I understood your Tout charts, it seems we agree on about all significant points. I see no evidentiary reason, however, to include an "Abraham Tout Jr." as a fifth child of Abraham[1] Tout. A listing as such in a DAR or SAR application, without source of any kind, certainly does not justify propagating such a person. Similarly, there is no reason to repeat the dates and places of birth and death guessed at by someone for Abraham[1] Tout's wife [Lydia?] without stated reasons. Same goes for Abraham's birth place, and place of marriage. Clear evidence for the approximate date of his birth, however, does exist in the Fleming Co. tax records, a major source for which I am very grateful to you. Among the children of Bazil[2] Tout, you will see that I have changed, with slight and contradictory data, the order of Betsy Tout and William S. Tout. (There is something wrong about William S. Tout's age or stated birth date, but I'm not sure yet just what.) Also, I have dropped the "perhaps" Martha Tout (who m. Abraham Triggs) from Bazil's family. Much more likely, this Martha was the eldest child of John[3] Tout (Benjamin G.[2], Abraham[1]) accounted for in his home in 1830 and 1840. Incidentally, John[3] Tout was born in 1799, not "c. 1809," and evidently the second, not first, child of Benjamin G. Tout. The first child, William was probably b. in 1797, not 1799 as stated in the printed biography. Otherwise, I think we agree on about all points where we have overlapping material to compare.

I think there is some significant probate material in Hendricks County I've not yet seen. It seems Benjamin G. Tout had a will; certainly brother Bazil had one. More items for the "must list."

You may or may not have an interest in New England studies, but I enclose anyway an article because it just came out a couple of weeks ago, belatedly, in the January issue of TAG. They selected it for their special issue on Torrey's New England Marriages. I was, of course, pleased that they regarded it of significance to their dedicated issue. The Waters-Tout piece is far too long for a similar journal publication; I probably will have to work it through as an independent publication if it ever reaches that stage. In any case, it is a nice break to work a while on 18th and 19th century material, rather than 17th.

Again, many thanks.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Shirley:

For some time, I have been in correspondence with Mrs. Verna Thompson of Sioux Center, Iowa. We have a mutual interest in the Touts of Fleming Co., Ky., and Hendricks Co., Indiana. Last July, she sent a copy of the most interesting letter and notes she received from you, dated 29 May 1991. Very recently, I received a surprise inquiry from Mr. Jack Jones of Jacksonville, Florida, a descendant of Isaac[2] and Mary ("Trout") Waters of Brown Co., Ohio. His letter has prompted me to again dig out what data and sources I have for the Tout and Waters families, and rekindles interest in an old problem that has puzzled me at intervals over the past 20-25 years. That is, how were the Waters and Tout families related? In connection with this problem, I hope you can help me with some of the sources cited in your notes to Mrs. Thompson.

For your information, I enclose a letter from me to Mr. Jones, and a just completed *re*draft of a section that attempts to summarize my currently available information (including some from your notes) and understanding about the family of Bazil[2] Tout (Abraham[1]) of Fleming and Hendricks Counties. (From your letter and notes, I see that you are particularly interested in Bazil's niece Lydia, who m. John Money.)

The enclosed material shows why I am now quite convinced that Isaac[2] Waters' wife Mary "Trout" was, in fact, Mary[3] Tout (Bazil[2], Abraham[1]), b. Ky., ca. 1797. The more intriguing part, however, comes from the 1813 will of Isaac's father, Isaac[1] Waters of Brown (then Clermont) Co., Ohio. The will stipulates that his son Isaac was to go to his "uncle Bazel." I have known for a long time that this "uncle" was almost certainly Bazil[2] Tout of Fleming County. The interesting puzzle is the true meaning of this stipulation in Isaac[1] Waters' 1813 will.

The most obvious, and I now think correct, answer is that Isaac[1] Waters and Bazil[2] Tout were half brothers. That would be so if their mother was a widow Waters who married, as second husband, Abraham[1] Tout. The will and other circumstances make sense if the mother of Isaac[1] Waters, Nancy (____) Newman, and Margaret (____) Louderback was also mother, by Abraham[1] Tout, of Bazil, Benjamin G., Elizabeth, and Hannah Tout. Nancy and Margaret's husbands, Elias Newman and Andrew Lauderback, were on the South Fork of the Licking River in Harrison Co., Ky., after 1800. Margaret Lauderback was living in 1824 when Abraham Tout wrote his will, but died before June 1828 when her husband Andrew executed his will (proved Nov. 1828) in Harrison Co. naming daughters Lydia Bradley, Susan Can, Nancy Armstrong, Hannah, and Mahala; and sons James, David, Eli, and Isaac (abstract in "Harrison County Kentucky Wills, 1795-1834" [The Researchers, Indianapolis, 1990], p. 7; B:396 in original). The 1820 census for Harrison Co. (p. 188) shows that Margaret (____) Lauderback must have been the female in Andrew's home aged 45 or over at that time, thus born by 1775. She was therefore at least as old or older than any of Abraham[1] Tout's known children.

For these reasons, I now doubt that Abraham Tout had two wives and cannot agree with the second paragraph of your letter to Verna: "It appears that [Abraham's] second wife was Martha [sic, Margaret?], the mother of most of his children, including Benjamin and Basil." The paragraph explains that you were "assuming that Abraham's first wife died very young, and when he remarried Martha [sic], she had two young daughters whom Abraham raised along with his own." It seems much more likely to me that Abraham married, as his first and perhaps only wife, the mother of Nancy and Margaret -- subsequently the wives of Elias Newman and Andrew Lauderback -- and of Isaac[1] Waters.

In regard to this now likely possibility, I wonder if you could help me by sending copies of some items cited in your letter and notes. In particular, can you send copies of the following:

- The 1854 will of Basil Tout in Hendricks County, with volume and page I can cite.
- The petition for partition of his estate, naming the children listed in your notes, also with citation.
- The DAR applications and Hereditary Order of Descendants of Loyalists and Patriots, #28, from which you evidently extracted several items concerning the wife "Margaret" of Abraham Tout Sr. (NSDAR 587575 and 606791, "researched by Lyman Tout").

I am wondering, of course, what sources were given in these applications for dates and the name "Margaret," or whether they were someone's best guesses. Please let me know if there are any costs I can reimburse. Enclosed is a tentative chart that summarizes the main features of the conjecture to be tested with further study.

Have you learned anything more about your particular ancestor, John Money? Presumably you have them, but my notes contain these entries from the 1830 census, Fleming Co., Ky., pp. 63,64:

William Money	10001 - 00001
John Money	110001 - 21001

I hope to hear from you at your earliest convenience.

THE WATERS-TOUT FAMILY OF PENNSYLVANIA, KENTUCKY, OHIO, AND INDIANA

Gale Ion Harris

Isaac Waters' will in Brown (then Clermont) County, Ohio, in January 1813 included provisions that his son Isaac should have the sorrel colt "which he claims," that he be "put to traide," and that he "goe to his uncle Bazel."[a] The boy's "uncle" is not further identified in this will, nor has any evidence been found that the testator had either a Waters brother or a brother-in-law named Bazel. A dozen years later, in October 1824, Abraham Tout's will in Fleming County, Kentucky, mentioned children Bazel Tout, Elizabeth Stuart wife of John Stuart, "other children," and "stepdaughters" Nancy Newman wife of Elias Newman, and Margaret Louderback wife of Andrew Louderback.[b] In 1834 Isaac's son Philip Waters moved from Brown County to Hendricks County, Indiana, where he joined Abraham Tout's sons Bazil and Benjamin and their families, who had arrived there a short time before from Fleming County. As late as 1921, Philip Waters' descendants in Hendricks County retained traditional knowledge that when Philip arrived there 87 years before he was "hospitably received by the Tout family who tendered [his family] the use of an empty cabin."[c] They also were able to claim that the mother of their ancestor Isaac Waters "was named Tout."[d]

These facts and traditions were among those known before 1978 when the present writer compiled an account of Isaac Waters and some of his descendants.[e] The data available then, however, provided no identification of Isaac's parents or siblings, no verification of the traditional name Tout for his mother, and no certain explanation for his son's enigmatic "uncle Bazel." The present account attempts to resolve some of these matters by showing what must have been the actual relationship between the Waters and Tout families. In particular, Isaac's yet unidentified father evidently died before 1774 at an early age, and his mother, a widow Waters, married about then, as her second husband, Abraham Tout. The boy Isaac Waters' "uncle" was their son Bazil Tout. Abraham Tout's stepdaughters Nancy and Margaret were the elder Isaac Waters' previously unrecognized sisters. Discussions of these points below are followed by four-generation summaries of these interrelated families.

MARYLAND AND PENNSYLVANIA ORIGINS

The earliest available contemporary record date is 18 March 1778, when Abraham Tout and others subscribed to an oath in Harford County, Maryland, renouncing allegiance to King George III.[a] Clearly, he had married several years before; the birth dates of his sons Bazil and Benjamin G. Tout are about 1775 and in 1776, respectively, Bazil possibly in Virginia and Benjamin in Maryland.[b] No record of his marriage or wife's name is yet known. The Hendricks County descendants of Philip Waters, mentioned above, claimed that his father had been in Maryland.[c] Indeed, Waters was a prominent name in 18th century Maryland, but no connection has been established between any of its bearers there and the Isaac Waters of this account. The next available record dates are in 1782, when Abraham Tout and Isaac Waters both saw late Revolutionary War service in western Pennsylvania. That June, Tout was a private in Capt. Wall's company, Second Battalion of Washington County Militia, and next September after Capt. Barr assumed command.[d] On Saturday, 25 May 1782, Isaac Waters set out with troops from that vicinity with Col. Crawford's ill-fated expedition to Sandusky, Northwest Territory [now Ohio], to engage Indians. The 27 privates in Capt. Bunce's company included, besides Isaac, Abraham Tout's future stepson-in-law Elias Newman and one Hugh Gobin who was associated with Waters a few years later.[e] Isaac's age at that time has not been established, but his fellow soldier Elias Newman could not have been more than seventeen years old.[f]

The Washington County tax list of 1783 more precisely locates Abraham Tout's residence as in Peters Township, just south of modern Pittsburgh, where he was assessed for two horses, two cows, and two sheep, but no land.[g] He may have been in that part of Peters Township taken into Allegheny County when the latter was formed in 1788 from Washington and Westmoreland Counties. In June 1788 Isaac Watters witnessed an indenture recorded in Allegheny County whereby his fellow soldier in 1782, Hugh Gobin, and wife Jean transferred to John McKee property in Huntington Township, Westmoreland

[b] Bazil was aged 75 in 1850 according to the Federal census for Middle Township, Hendricks County, Indiana, p. 150, which records his birth place as Virginia, the place in agreement with his son William Tout's statement of it in 1880 (census, Adams Co., Ill., p. 147). His brother Benjamin, born 5 May 1776, died in Hendricks Co. 16 Feb. 1839 (G.S., Danville East Cemetery). Census entries for Benjamin's sons Bazil and James in 1880 conflictingly state that their father was born in Pennsylvania and Maryland (Hendricks County, pp. 10, 30).

[c] In 1921 Samuel Sherman Waters related that Isaac "came from England in an early day, hoping to find an older brother who had imigrated to this country and settled in Maryland. It seems that the two brothers, for reasons unknown, never met" (Waters, "Early History of the Waters Family," 1). Presuming that this story preserves some factual elements, presently available data suggest it more likely refers to some knowledge passed down about Isaac's still unidentified father.

County, adjoining widow McKee, "all of Westmoreland County."[a] It was probably in that same year that Isaac married; his first child, Lydia, was born in Pennsylvania in 1789.[b] His bride, Barbara Onsutler/Unsettler, born between 1760 and 1770,[c] was almost certainly a daughter of Philip Ownsetlar [sic] who had served in the same Washington County militia battalion with Abraham Tout in 1782.[d] The first Federal census, in 1790, places Philip Unsuther [sic] in Versailles Township, Allegheny County (p. 14), with a household then including a male under age 16 and two females.[e] McKeesport, in Versailles Township, is situated at the fork of Monongahela and Youghiogheny Rivers, across from Peters township and in the part of Allegheny taken from Westmoreland County. Neither Abraham Tout nor Isaac Waters appear, however, in the printed 1790 census.

SETTLEMENTS IN KENTUCKY AND OHIO

Most likely, the Tout and Waters families were still in Pennsylvania in 1790; Isaac Waters' third child, James, was born there 29 October 1792.[f] By 17 May 1795, however, Isaac was in Mason County, Kentucky, when he was assessed taxes for one male over 21, one [unidentified] male over 16, one horse, and two cows.[g] Presumably, he had arrived there within the year; his name is not found in the extant lists for 1793 and 1794. Similarly, Abraham Tout's son Bazil first appears in records of that county on 11 April 1795, when he bought 50 acres on the Licking River in the part of Mason taken into Fleming County upon its formation in 1798. John and William McCullough, and William McWilliams witnessed. Bazil witnessed the same day when William McCullough bought an adjoining parcel, and four days before when John and Alexander McCullough bought 200 acres from the same

[b] Widow Lydia Hodgkins was recorded in the 1850 census for Brown County, Ohio (Fam. No. 255) as aged 62, b. Pa., and in 1860 as aged 70 (Fam. No. 389). Stating her age as 66 years in Sept. 1855, she applied for bounty land in right of her deceased second husband Samuel Hodgkin's Revolutionary War service. See file R5092 and BLW 44806-160-55, National Archives. Lydia was of "Dutch extraction" according to her son-in-law in 1883. See biography of John E. Ellis, The History of Brown County, Ohio [Chicago, W.H. Beers & Co., 1883], "Biographical Sketches," 12, naming Lydia's first husband as Robert (sic) Wright. The next sketch, that of G.L. Ellis, probably states the name correctly as John Wright.

[c] Widow Barbary Waters was aged over 45 at the time of the 1820 census in Pleasant Township, Brown County (p. 376), and was probably the female aged 60-69 in her son Isaac Waters' household there in 1830 (p. 445). For Barbara's variously-spelled surname, see McDowell, History of Hendricks County, 606, where it is Unsettler. In 1921, it was stated that "Barbara Unsettler, by her name proclaims her undoubted Germanic origin, and also by the changes to Elnsettler, from the German Einuedler, shows that she belongs to that German strain known as Pennsylvania Dutch" (Waters, "Early History of the Waters Family," 2). Her great grandson Isaac Wilson Waters (1842-1930) of Ohio and Kansas, a distant and perhaps unknown cousin to the Hendricks County family, recorded that his earliest recalled ancestor, Isaac Waters, was "married to Rachel Onsutler." This statement heads a list of paternal-line ancestors in Isaac Wilson's handwriting preceding contemporary entries of his children's birth dates, etc., in his family Bible (American Bible Society, New York, 1857), now in the writer's custody. The error for her given name, definitely known from contemporary records as Barbara, suggests that he recorded it as traditionally held knowledge, not from an independently available record.

His father was living in Rostraver Township, Westmoreland Co., Pa., between the Monongahela and Youghiogheny Rivers, near West Newton, where his will was dated 18 Dec. 1794. Widow Joanna Bartlett, in a letter dated Sumrell's Ferry 25 June 1798 to her relatives in Beverly, said of her sons: "Harre [Henry] and Pyam both live at Muskingum and are well. They each have three children, Harre's all girls and Pyam's all boys." Pyam d. in Ohio in Aug. 1820. See Mary Walton Ferris, Dawes-Gates Ancestral Lines (Milwaukee, 1931), 2:88, 89, 537.

grantor.[a] In July 1795, Bazil was married there to Sally Shepherd.[b] Soon after, Alexander McCullough was bondsman there for the marriage of Bazil's younger brother, Benjamin G. Tout, and Sarah McKee. In 1798 Abraham Toutt and his sons Bazel and Benjamin all appear in the first tax lists for newly-formed Fleming County. Except for missing records in 1816 and 1818, all three have been tracked annually in these tax lists through 1821. Beginning in 1801, Abraham's personal assessments are noted as "exempt from taxes," an indication that he had attained an exempt age, probably 60 years.[c]

In 1797, Isaac Waters was assessed for one male over 21 and three horses in Mason County, but he may have been residing in that part taken into Bracken Countly upon its formation that year. By an indenture dated 19 February 1798, Isaac Waters of Bracken County bought a 131-acre parcel there from Philip and Tabie Buckner, adjoining lands of Thomas Berry and Joseph Wright.[d] Isaac was assessed for Bracken County taxes in November 1799,[e] and remained there several more years. On 11 July 1804, "Isaac Waters and Barbary his wife of Bracken County," sold their 131-acre tract to Thomas Lounsdale, and were present there in March 1805 when Isaac acknowledged and Barbara released dower rights.[f] These dates closely mark the time when Isaac and Barbara moved across the Ohio River into Pleasant Township in that part of Clermont County, Ohio, subsequently taken into Brown County upon its formation in 1817.[g] They settled on Straight Creek; their 98-acre farm there in Tibbs Survey was purchased from William and Jane White for $180 and taxed in 1807 and 1810 at $0.10 per acre, the standard assessment for "second rate" land.[h] Hilman's Church, "one of the oldest Methodist preaching places in the county," located in Pleasant Township about three miles southeast of Georgetown, was "erected as early as 1812 [by] Joseph Hilman, Abel Rees, Israel Jennings, Isaac Waters, and several others."[i]

Isaac's will was dated 19 January 1813. The witnesses Joseph Stableton and Gideon Dunham confirmed it at the August 1814 court term in Clermont County, where, upon the widow's refusal, Henry Chapman and Able Rees were granted letters of administration. "Being in a low Condition & not Long for this world," Isaac committed his "soul to God &

[g] Their son Bazil Waters, born after January 1806 (under seven at date of his father's will), appears as a brick mason in the 1850 census for Pleasant Township (p. 546), as aged 44, b. Ohio. By 1860 he was in Higginsport, Lewis Township (p. 763), aged 53, b. Ohio. Samuel Sherman Waters' narrative in 1921 is consistent. Speaking of his grandfather Philip Waters (b. Ky., 18 Aug. 1797 to Isaac and Barbara Waters), he related that when "Philip was eight years old [about 1805], the home on the Licking River was broken up and the family moved to the southern part of Brown County, Ohio, and settled near the present village of Georgetown [in Pleasant Township]" (Waters, "Early History of the Waters Family," 2).

my property to my wife & children." In addition to the provision that his son Isaac was to go to his "uncle Bazel," Isaac gave his "wife the Plantation on which we know Live During her Life & at her decease [it was to be sold] & on Equil Divide of the money arising from the sale of the Land Made amoung the five boys." Leaving his wife the brown mare, two cows, six sheep, and some household items, Isaac willed "that the Rest of the movable property be sold at Publick auction & the Money arising ... be Divided between the four girls[,] the two that is of age to Receive their part as soon as the money is collected." Sons Isaac, Philip, Lias, and Bazel "should be put to traide ... and Lias to stay with his Mother one year & then be put to a traid." Son Bazel was to stay with his mother "until he arrives to the age of seven years & then he & the other two to be put to good traids."[a] Widow Barbary Waters was probably living on the farm there in 1820, when her household included, beside herself, aged over 45, a female aged 16-25, presumably one of the two daughters not "of age" in 1813. No doubt Barbara was still residing there when she died soon before 5 September 1835, the date her son Bazil Waters was appointed administrator.[b]

Meanwhile, Abraham Tout's "stepdaughters" Nancy and Margaret with their husbands Elias Newman and Andrew Louderback had arrived in Kentucky before 1800. Newman, Isaac Waters' companion in the 1782 Sandusky expedition, appears in tax lists for Harrison County in 1800. The tax lists for that year also show that Andrew Louderback was assessed twice, once in Mason, and again in (then adjoining) Nicholas County.[c] Little is yet known about the Newmans beyond that deduced from the subsequent Federal censuses of 1810 and 1820. Elias and his wife Nancy evidently were both living in 1824, when her stepfather mentioned them in his will. Their household in Harrison County in 1810, listed as Elias Nyman (p. 318), shows they both were then aged 26-44 and had five children under age 16. In 1820, as Elias Niman, their enumeration there (p. 190), shows both then over age 45 with three of the children still at home. Elias and Nancy, therefore, were both born sometime between 1765 and 1775, Elias probably about 1765 as he was old enough to join the march to Sandusky in 1782. Children's reported ages imply their first child was born sometime before 1796.

More is known of Andrew and Margaret Louderback; but like Isaac and Barbara Waters and the Newmans above, no record of their marriage has been discovered. They were still in Nicholas County in 1810 (census, p. 51), the enumeration showing that Andrew was over age 45 and Margaret aged 26-44, with eight children. By 1820, however, they had joined the Newmans in Harrison County (census, p. 189), and by then both were over age 45 with six children still at home. The children's reported ages imply that Andrew and Margaret were married before about 1791. Margaret, living in 1824 according to her

In 1921, Samuel Sherman Waters explained: "A farm of eighty acres had been acquired, and by the combined effort of the father and older sons, considerable progress had been made toward improving it when the subsequent history of the family was changed by the early death of the father. Owing to a provision of the Ohio law which made minor children a matter for legal consideration, the two younger children, Philip and Basil, were taken in charge of an appointed guardian and bound to an apprenticeship. The younger brother, Basil, began his term of service for a brick mason, while Philip was given over to a tanner by the name of Ristine" (Waters, "Early History of the Waters Family," 2-3). The eldest son James, then aged 20 and not mentioned by name in Isaac's will, was mentioned in the 1921 narrative.

[c] Clift, "Second Census" of Kentucky, 216. As usual, the rapid and intricate formation in that period of the various counties is an important factor. Harrison, adjoining Nicholas, was formed in 1794 from parts of Bourbon and Scott Counties. Nicholas, also adjoining Fleming, was formed in part from Mason County in 1800. All lay along branches of the Licking River and not far south across the Ohio River from Clermont and Brown Counties in Ohio.

stepfather's will, died there before 6 June 1828, the date of her husband's will which was proven in Harrison County next November. Witnessed by A.M. Camron and John McGuire, Andrew's will mentioned no wife but named children: daughters Lydia Bradley, Susan Carr, Nancy Armstrong, Hannah, and Mahala; and sons James, David, Eli, and Isaac; son David executor.[a] The Louderback's move from Nicholas to Harrison County was probably after 1813; their daughter Nancy had married in Nicholas County, 23 April 1812, William Armstrong, and Susannah married there 5 November 1813, James Carr.[b] As one example of a conspicuous tendency toward cousin marriages to be further considered below, the younger child David Louderback, born in Kentucky about 1803,[c] married in Fleming County, 20 September 1827, Lydia McKee,[d] almost certainly the eldest daughter of Abraham Tout's daughter Elizabeth and first husband, Robert McKee.[e]

Abraham most likely accompanied his children and stepchildren to Kentucky, but the first record there of him yet known is in the previously noted tax assessments for Fleming County in 1798, when he had 39 acres and two horses on Fleming Creek. No known contemporary record reveals the name of his wife, or whether she came to Kentucky with him.[f] In January 1802, Abraham Toutt, David Stewart, Jacob Wilson, and John McCullough of Fleming County gave security for William McCormack of that county in connection with a land-title dispute.[g] Next April, Abraham Toutt, signing by mark, and Basil Toutt, presumably the father and son, agreed to teach one John Reed the trade of bricklaying for sixteen years.[h] The brick mason Abraham Tout, who, 16 years later in April 1818, undertook the apprenticeship of Jesse Shepherd for 12 years, more likely was his grandson of that name born about 1796 to Bazil and Sarah (Shepherd) Tout.[i] He must have been the Abraham Tout Junr who joins Abraham, Basil, and Benjamin Tout in the tax lists after 1817. The absence of the elder Abraham Tout's household in the 1810 and 1820 Federal censuses suggests that his wife had died before 1810. In 1820, Abraham was perhaps the second male over age 45 in his son Bazil's home in Fleming County (p. 63). Bazil was chosen as his father's executor and was the only son mentioned by name in his 1824 will.

[e] The parentage of Lydia McKee (b. Ky. ca. 1804) is established beyond much doubt by the presence of the names Andrew, Elizabeth, Margaret, Robert, and Nancy among their ten children recorded in the 1850 census. That she was probably Robert and Elizabeth (Tout) McKee's eldest daughter can be seen by considering the ages of children listed in the 1810, 1820, and 1830 census enumerations in Fleming County for the households of Elizabeth Tout's two husbands, Robert McKee and John Stuart.

[f] There exist undocumented statements that Abraham had married a Margaret ca. 1772, who was born ca. 1753 and died in Fleming County ca. 1823 (NSDAR National Numbers 587575 and 606701). Further study is needed since doubts are raised by the circumstantial data reviewed in the present article, though they do not disprove the name Margaret for her. As will be shown on onomastic grounds, her name would seem to be Lydia, and she surely was older than stated and died probably before 1810. The name Margaret possibly refers to the wife of Abraham's grandson of the same name mentioned below.

Abraham's will, witnessed by Thomas Wallace and William Triplett, was dated 21 October 1824 and presented for probate in Fleming County 1 May 1826. Abraham mentioned "other children" in addition to son Bazil, daughter Elizabeth Stuart, and stepdaughters Nancy Newman and Margaret Louderback.[a] Two other children are identified by their affiliations -- Benjamin G. and Hannah Tout. Specific details and sources are presented below in the genealogical summary, but some comments here about connections between them or their children with Brown County, Ohio, aids our attempt to understand how the Waters and Tout families are related.

Benjamin G. Tout (1776-1839), his elder brother Bazil (1774-1854), and their wives moved together from Fleming County to Hendricks County, Indiana, in the early 1830s, taking with them most of their younger children. Some elder children in both cases, however, settled first across the Ohio River in Brown County. As will be shown, Bazil's eldest daughter, Mary Tout (b. ca. 1797), married first in Clermont (later Brown) County in 1813, Isaac and Barbara Waters' son Isaac -- the boy who was to go to his "uncle Bazel" in 1813. Three of Benjamin G. Tout's elder children also settled in Brown County, where they lived in Pleasant Township close by Isaac and Mary (Tout) Waters. The eldest child, William Tout (1797-1835), and wife Eleanor Hurst settled in Pleasant Township before 1825, where they died in 1835 and 1836 leaving three orphaned children who joined relatives in Hendricks County. Benjamin G. Tout's second son, John (1799-1844) was in Pleasant Township before 1822, when he married Susannah Bonwell. They joined relatives in Hendricks County in the mid 1830s. Benjamin's fifth child, Basil Tout (1808-1883), was in Pleasant Township before 1827 when he married Susannah Bonwell's sister Martha. They also moved to Hendricks County in the mid 1830s. Similarly, these children's aunt Hannah Tout -- Abraham Tout's apparent youngest child, born in Pennsylvania 1785 -- married in Fleming County in 1813, David McKee, and they were in Pleasant Township before 1820. They also moved to Hendricks County before 1840, when their daughter Abigail McKee married there her first cousin, once removed, Benjamin Tout, son of William and Eleanor (Hurst) Tout mentioned above. Finally, as mentioned, Isaac Waters' son Philip of Brown County joined the Touts in Hendricks County in 1834, where, 87 years later, his grandson set down the "history," much of which is under particular examination in this account.

"UNCLE BAZEL" AND WIDOW WATERS

Traditionally, as shown, Isaac Waters' mother "was a Tout." Yet, no specific proof of Isaac's parentage appears in the evidence forming the basis for the above reviews. The situation appears plain enough now, however, to analyze the particular data needed to circumstantially identify his mother as Abraham Tout's otherwise unknown wife, formerly a widow (Lydia?) Waters whose own family name still eludes us. A very close relationship clearly existed; traditions and the contemporary activities just recounted agree. The particular points needing closer examination include the following:

- Evidence contained in the wills of Isaac Waters and Abraham Tout,

[a]Burns, Record of Wills in Fleming County, 82.

- Evidence associated with the subsequent history of Isaac Waters' son Isaac,
- Evidence of Isaac Waters' age and those of Abraham Tout's children and stepchildren, and
- Evidence contained in the conspicuous pattern by which the Waters and Tout children and stepchildren named their own children.

Waters and Tout Wills

A singular fact is that the only known specific contemporary reference to a familial relationship is contained in phrases of Isaac Waters' 1813 will directing that his son Isaac be "put to traide" and that he should "goe to his uncle Bazel." No evidence has yet surfaced that Isaac's wife Barbara had a brother Bazil or that Isaac, himself, had a brother Bazil Waters who could be the boy's "uncle." Abraham Tout's will in 1824 named his son Bazel Tout and his "stepdaughters" Nancy and Margaret whose maiden names are not a matter of record. He did not name a wife, who, as shown above, probably died before 1810. Moreover, he mentioned no one of the name Waters, in particular no heirs of his deceased putative stepson Isaac Waters unless, of course, he had them in mind as some of his "other children" for whom he had already provided.

Subsequent History of Isaac Waters' son Isaac

Son Isaac, born about 1795, died of cholera in Pleasant Township, Brown County, 13 July 1833, aged 38.[a] He was about 18 years old when his father ordered that he go to his uncle Bazel and learn a trade. Though in some respects flawed, existing evidence shows he did just that, and more. Three years after his father's will, on 18 August 1816, Isaac married, according to the record of it in Clermont County, Mary Trout. In a prior account of this family, it was considered likely that Mary belonged some way to a known contemporary family of that name in Brown County.[b] It can be shown now, however, that she was instead the eldest daughter of Bazil Tout of Fleming County, Kentucky.

When Bazil Tout died in Hendricks County, Indiana, in 1854, his children petitioned for a partition of his estate.[c] Among the thirteen children or their representatives was Mary Ross and her husband, Samuel Ross. Isaac Waters' widow, Mary Waters, was living in Brown County, Ohio, in 1834, when mentioned in deeds sorting out land there among several heirs of the elder Isaac Waters. The deeds also name the surviving children of the younger Isaac and his widow Mary, among them Nancy Jane and Lydia H. Waters.[d] Mary Waters married in Brown County, 24 August 1838, Samuel Ross, James Allen, J.P., presiding.[e] By the time of the 1850 census, Samuel Ross and his wife "Polly" (b. Ky. ca. 1797) were living in Franklin Township, Clermont County, their household then including the two children: Nancy J. Waters, b. Ohio ca. 1832, and Lydia Waters, b. there ca. 1834 (census, p. 784). The presence of these two Waters children in the Ross household completes the identification of Isaac's wife and widow Mary as Bazil Tout's daughter.

After their marriage in 1816, Isaac and Mary (Tout) Waters settled in Fleming County where, in 1820, their household is found near that of her father, Bazil Tout (census, pp. 63, 64). They had two girls under age 10 at home; one of them no doubt was their daughter Barbara Waters known to have been born in Kentucky about 1820.[a] The census of that year shows Isaac engaged in "manufacturing," so he had learned a trade. By 1830 they had returned to Brown County when their household included, beside themselves and children, the 60-69 year-old-female previously identified as probably Isaac's mother Barbara.

Isaac Waters heeded his father's will; he learned a trade, almost certainly from Fleming County's brick mason Bazil Tout, whose daughter he married.

Ages of Isaac Waters and the Tout Children and Stepchildren

We now can properly edit Isaac Waters' will to express his true intention to send his 18-year-old son to his "uncle Bazel Tout" to learn the art and trade of brick making and laying. Isaac considered Bazil Tout as his brother, so they must have had the same mother, a wife of Abraham Tout. To be sure, the evidence for the ages of Isaac himself and of Abraham's children and named "stepchildren" must be consistent.

In fact, Isaac's age is unknown; no record of it or of his birth is available. Credible estimates are possible, however. He appears in none of the three Federal censuses taken in his lifetime, but he was over age 21 in 1795 when assessed for taxes in Mason County, Kentucky,[b] thus born before 1775. He was old enough in Pennsylvania to join the Crawford expedition to Sandusky in 1782. His companion Elias Newman was at most aged 17 at the time. No one would doubt, however, that these two soldiers were, say, over age 14, thus born before 1768. Barbara, Isaac's wife by 1789, was born between 1760 and 1770 as shown. Similarly, Elias's wife Nancy, Abraham Tout's "stepdaughter," was born between 1765 and 1775. Isaac suffered an "early death" in 1813, according to the account of his great grandson Samuel Sherman Waters cited previously, and left minor children. He was born, therefore, in the mid 1760s and was in his early twenties when he married.

According to the census data, Abraham Tout's stepdaughters Nancy Newman and Margaret Louderback were both born between 1765 and 1775. Estimates of their children's birth dates are consistent. Nancy's children were born in the period 1794-1810, and Margaret's children between about 1791 and 1812, the latter date implying Margaret was born after about 1767 to be of child bearing age for the last child. In summary, Isaac Waters and the two Tout stepdaughters were born in a period bracketed by approximate dates 1765 and 1775, Isaac probably the oldest of the three.

Abraham Tout's known children were born between 1774 and 1785; Bazil about 1775, [b] Isaac inexplicably fails to show in the 1790 census for Pennsylvania. The 1800 Federal census for Kentucky and the one for 1810 in Ohio no longer exist.

Benjamin in 1776, Elizabeth about 1778 or 1782, and Hannah in 1785.[a] The data are less than precise in some cases, but enough to conclude that Abraham's children and stepchildren consistently fall into separate age groups, the stepchildren being older. No doubt, he married in the early 1770s a widow who brought into their marriage at least three Waters children by a former marriage: Isaac, Nancy, and Margaret. Widow Waters, by her husband Tout, then had at least the four children born between 1774 and 1785 named above. The span of her seven identifiable children's birth dates -- from about 1765 through 1785 -- implies that she was born not earlier than 1740 and not much after 1745.

Was Widow Waters' name Lydia*?*

If widow Waters named one of her own children Lydia, that child either died young or has escaped discovery. However, the names of her grandchildren -- at least 62 of them -- follow a conspicuous scheme. Some or all the names are now known for the children of six of her seven children identified above, Nancy excepted (see genealogical summary). Of these six, five named their first daughter Lydia: Isaac Waters, Margaret (Waters) Louderback, Benjamin G. Tout, Elizabeth (Tout) (McKee) Stuart, and Hannah (Tout) McKee. The sixth, Bazil Tout, named his third daughter Lydia, after a Mary and a Margaret. In no case was a spouse named Lydia, for whom a daughter Lydia would be named. Further consideration of the grandchildren's names strongly suggests the prevalent tendency of the period and localities involved to name children after their grandparents, parents, aunts, and uncles. Most logically, the dominant position of Lydia in almost all these families has the explanation that their grandmother Waters-Tout was the source for that name.[b]

[a] The boys' birth dates have been noted above. Elizabeth (Tout) Stuart's age was reported as 68y in 1850 and, inconsistently, as 82y in 1860 (1850 census, Fleming Co., p. 645; 1860 census, p. 853). Hannah (Tout) McKee was born 3 May 1785 according to the 1878 Atlas, Hendricks County, Indiana, "Personal Histories," Liberty Township, p. 47.

[b] It is noteworthy also that Isaac Waters named his first son James, and his full sister Margaret Louderback named her second son James, after an Isaac. A hypothesis is thereby established for future study that their parents were James and Lydia (____) Waters. The early census data imply that Isaac and Margaret's sister Nancy Newman had at least five children, four girls and a boy. Their names would be useful to know; perhaps they also include a James and a Lydia.

GENEALOGICAL SUMMARY

The following accounts are based on the above discussed identification of Abraham Tout's wife as a widow, probably named Lydia, with at least three children by a prior marriage to a man named Waters, perhaps with given name James.

He married, probably in the early 1760s, [LYDIA?] (____), born in the 1740s, who died after 1785 (birth of last child) and probably before 1810 in western Pennsylvania or northern Kentucky. She married second, by 1774, Abraham Tout, born probably about 1741, who died in Fleming County, Kentucky, between 21 October 1824 and 1 May 1826, by whom she had at least four children. See Tout Family.

ii. NANCY, b. 1765-1775, and living in Oct. 1824 (stepfather's will); m. before about 1796 (estimate from children's ages) ELIAS NEWMAN, b. in or soon after 1765,[b] who also was living in Oct. 1824. They were in Harrison Co., Ky., by 1800 (tax list), where they appear in the Federal censuses of 1810 and 1820, listed then as Elias Niman and Nyman. Children, all listed in 1810 and the last three also in 1820: a. Female, b. 1794-1800. b. Female, b. 1794-1800. c. Male, b. 1794-1800. d. Female, b. 1804-1810. e. Female, b. 1804-1810.

iii. MARGARET, b. 1765-1775, was living in Oct. 1824 (stepfather's will), but d. before the date of her husband's will, 6 June 1828, which does not mention her. She m. by about 1791 (estimate from children's ages) ANDREW LOUDERBACK, b. before 1765, who d. in Harrison Co., Ky., after 6 June 1828 and the following November when his will was proven. They were in Kentucky before about 1797 (son Isaac's birthplace). Andrew was assessed for taxes in Mason and in adjoining Nicholas County in 1800, and appears in the census for the latter county in 1810 (p. 51). As previously shown, they moved from Nicholas to Harrison County between 1813 and 1820, when they appear with six children still at home (p. 188). Andrew's will named children: daughters Lydia Bradley, Susan Carr, Nancy Armstrong, Hannah, and Mahala; and sons James, David, Eli, and Isaac, with son David executor.[c]

a. LYDIA, b. [say 1791], but 1784-1794 (1810 census), living in 1828; m. (____) BRADLEY.

b. NANCY, b. [say 1793], but 1784-1794 (1810 census), living in 1828; m. Nicholas Co., 23 April 1812, WILLIAM ARMSTRONG.[d]

c. SUSANNAH, b. [say 1795], but 1794-1800 (1810 census), living in 1828; m. Nicholas

[a] If it preserves some fact, the tradition that his son Isaac "came from England ... hoping to find an older brother who had immigrated into this country and settled in Maryland" more likely refers to the father (Waters, "Early History of the Waters Family," 1-2).

[b] See prior discussion; he was old enough to serve with Isaac Waters above in the 1782 Sandusky expedition, and the 1810 (p. 318) and 1820 (p. 190) censuses for Harrison Co., Ky., bracket his and his wife's birth dates between 1765 and 1775.

September 1835 when her son Bazil Waters was appointed administrator.[a] She was almost certainly daughter of the Philip Unsuther of Versailles Township, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania, in 1790.[b] Isaac and Barbara moved from Pennsylvania to Mason County, Kentucky in 1794 or 1795, resided in adjoining Bracken County until about 1805, then settled across the Ohio River in Brown (then Clermont) County. Isaac's will mentions his "wife," his "five boys" but names only four -- Isaac, Philip, Elias, and Bazil -- and his "four girls," two of whom were "of age."[c] An elder son James was involved in the distribution of his father's land in 1834.[d] Eldest daughter Lydia is identified by contemporary associations and descendants' biographies, and younger daughters Nancy and Katherine by associations with their brothers James and Philip. The fourth daughter, probably the second one "of age" in 1813, remains unidentified.

Children of Isaac and Barbara (Onsutler/Unsettler), surname Waters:

i. LYDIA[3], b. Pa. in 1789, d. Brown Co., Ohio, 1 Oct. 1863, where she was buried in a farm cemetery in Pleasant Township.[e] She m. (1), probably by 1813 (children's ages), JOHN WRIGHT,[f] who d. before 1830 when "Lyda Wright" was head of a household in Pleasant Township (census, p. 446). Most likely, they account for the "John Right" household in Byrd Township, Brown Co., in 1820 (p. 340), consisting of a male and female both aged 26-44 and three females under age 10. Lydia m. (2) in Brown Co., 9 March 1831, as his second wife, SAMUEL HODGKINS, b. Carlisle, Pa., 6 June 1757, who d. in Pleasant Township 13 Oct. 1845.[g] About 32 years older than Lydia, Samuel was a Revolutionary War veteran who had served from Harford Co., Md., in 1775, 1776, 1777, and 1782; so he was probably a long-time acquaintance of the Waters and Tout families.[h] His pension file shows that by a former, unnamed wife he had a child Elizabeth, b. 13 July 1784, who m. Aaron Burget and was residing in Indiana in 1853.

In 1830 Lydia Wright had four children of school age -- over 4 and under 16 years -- in Pleasant Township.[i] In May 1833 Samuel and Lydia Hodgkins, signing by mark, sold a lot

[e] Carl N. Thompson, comp., Historical Collections of Brown County, Ohio [Piqua, Ohio, 1969], 520. The date printed there for her death, 13 Oct. 1845, is a confusion for that of her second husband. As "Liddia Hodgkins," she was living at the time of the 1860 census in Pleasant Township, House No. 389. Her birth place is from the 1850 census, Brown Co., Fam. No. 255; the corrected death date is from her tombstone.

[f] No marriage record has been located. An 1883 biography of John E. Ellis of Georgetown claims that his wife's parents were Robert (sic) and Lydia (Waters) Wright, he "of Irish" and she "of Dutch extraction." At the same time, Ellis's son G.L. Ellis, then Recorder of Brown County, claimed that his mother, Mary Wright, was "a daughter of John Wright." See History of Brown County, "Biographical Sketches," 12-13. The son's statement appears to be correct; no Robert Wright of Brown County with wife Lydia has been identified.

[g] Data from Samuel Hodgkins' Revolutionary War pension file R5092 and Lydia's bounty land warrant 44806-160-55, National Archives.

[h] As recounted in his pension application cited above, Samuel's history is of particular interest; its similarity to that of these Waters and Tout families may contain further clues to their origins. He stated that, from his birth place in Carlisle, he went with his father to Rock Run on the Susquehannah River, then to White's Run in Harford Co., Md., where he served in the Revolution at Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Annapolis. From there, after 1782, he "moved to the neighborhood of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and from thence he moved to the nieghborhood of Lexington, Kentucky[;] from there he removed to the place at which he now [1841] resides in Brown County, Ohio, where he has resided ever since the month of October [1798] forty two years past." Samuel's mother, Elizabeth Hodgkins, died in Pleasant Township (then in Clermont Co.) between 4 June 1814 and next August, the dates of her will and probate in Clermont Co. She named sons James and Samuel Hodgkins and numerous grandchildren: Mary and Elizabeth Burget, wifes of Valentine and Aaron Burget, Elizabeth Wright wife of George Wright, and others with surnames Slaid, Pangburn, and Probans/Probins. in Georgetown.[a] At age 80-89, his home in Pleasant Township in 1840 included a female [Lydia] aged 50-59, two females aged 20-29, and a male and female each aged 5-9. Lydia's home there in 1850 included Barbary W. Hodgkins (sic, probably Wright), b. Ohio ca. 1817, Hannah Hodgkins, b. Ohio ca. 1833, and Isaac Purdum, b. Ohio ca. 1830. Barbary Mount, b. Ohio ca. 1816, was living with Lydia in 1860. In Sept. 1855, Lydia stated she was 66 years old and that she had by her husband Samuel Hodgkins "one child now living named Hannah Hodgkins," b. 16 June 1832.[b] Samuel's will, witnessed by Joseph Shepherd, Write Hicks, and Samuel Ellis, was dated 4 Sept. 1841 and proven in Brown County 4 Nov. 1845. It names wife Lydia, oldest daughter Elizabeth Burget, daughter Hannah Hodgkins, and stepdaughters Lydia and Barbary Write; Wright Hicks executor.[c] a. LYDIA, b. Ohio probably ca. 1813,[e] is accounted for in her mother's home in 1820, 1830, and 1840, and was still unmarried in 1841 (stepfather's will). She was probably the Lydia Wright who m. in Brown Co., 1 April 1847, WILLIAM M. MOUNT,[f] b. Pa. ca. 18[1?]4. Child recorded in 1850 census, surname Mount: 1. John W., b. Ohio ca. 1849.

b. BARBARA W., b. Ohio ca. 1816, and living in Pleasant Township in 1860, aged 44. She is accounted for in her mother's home in all Federal censuses from 1820 through 1860, but in the latter year as "Barbary MOUNT," suggesting she had married since 1850 a relative of her sister Lydia's husband.

c. MARY, b. Brown Co., Ohio, 26 Jan. 1818 (calculated), d. there 31 Dec. 1883, aged 65y 11m 5d (G.S., Confidence Cemetery, Pleasant Township). She m. in 1837 JOHN E. ELLIS, b. Pleasant Township 28 May 1817 (calculated), d. there 5 July 1903, aged 86y 1m 8d and buried in the same cemetery, son of Noah and Margaret (Evans) Ellis.[g] Children, from 1850, 1860, and 1880 censuses in Pleasant Township (House Nos. 176, 142, and 6), supplemented by their parents' biography,[h] all b. [d] Two males, b. 1810-1815, in Lydia Wright's home in 1830 are not accounted for in the following list.

[e] She was named before Barbara below as one of Samuel Hodgkins' two Wright "stepdaughters" in 1841. The following four children account for Lydia Wright's four children of school age in 1830, so daughter Lydia's birth would be in or before 1814. She seems to be the Lydia Wright who m. William M. Mount in 1847. Their household in Pleasant Township in 1850 (House No. 191), however, shows their ages as 26y for William and 27y for Lydia. Pending verification, it is presumed their ages were misread or understated by ten years.

g. MALE, b. [say 1834], but between 1830 and 1835, is accounted for in Samuel Hodgkin's home in 1840, but not mentioned in his 1841 will and pension application.

ii. DAUGHTER, b. [say 1791], one of the two daughters "of age" mentioned in Isaac Waters' will in 1813.

iii. JAMES, b. Pa. 29 Oct. 1792 (computed), d. Jackson Township, Brown Co., 27 Oct. 1866, where he was buried in the Pleasant Hill Cemetery.[a] He m. (1) in Clermont Co., Ohio, 7 Aug. 1814, ELIZABETH WALLACE, b. 1794 or later, who d. in 1822.[b] He m. (2) in Brown Co., 25 Dec. 1824, MARGARET McKEE,[c] b. Ohio 13 July 1807, d. Mt. Orab, Brown Co., 12 Jan. 1896, daughter of James and Margaret (Turner) McKee.[d] James Waters served during the War of 1812 from 26 Aug. 1812 to 27 Feb. 1813 in Capt. Hazlep's Artillary Company, Lt. Col. Rayen's Regiment of Ohio Militia. He was discharged at Lower Sandusky, Ohio, where his father served in the Sandusky Expedition 30 years before.[e] He is said to have resided briefly in Illinois (son Isaac's biography), but his home is found in Eagle and Jackson Townships, Brown Co., in all Federal censuses from 1820 through 1860.[f] In 1830 he had four children of school age -- over 4 and under 16 years.[g] In July 1867 his eldest son, John Waters, sued for partition of James' 65-acre homeplace on Eagle Creek in Jackson Township. The heirs were his widow Margaret Waters, and children John Waters, Isaac Waters, Walter Wall and wife Elizabeth, William Richey and wife Margaret, Nancy Waters, Alexander Waters, all of Brown Co.; Henry Dunn and Amanda [sic, America] Dunn of Mercer Co., Ill., and Aaron Waters of Kansas.[h]

Children of James and Elizabeth (Wallace), surname Waters:

a. JOHN L.[4], b. Brown Co. 10 July 1815, d. Vermilion Co., Ill., 10 March 1877. He m. at Winchester, Ohio, 3 Sept 1839, RITTA ANN GLAZE, b. Brown Co. 20 Dec.

According to his grandson Samuel Sherman Waters in 1921, Philip, after his father's death, was "bound to an apprenticeship with a tanner by the name of Ristine," and married when he gained his freedom at age 21. He moved to Hendricks Co., Ind., "in the Fall of 1834," where he and his family "were hospitably received by the Tout family."[i] On 29 April 1852, Benjamin G. Waters petitioned for partition of his father Philip's estate, claiming a one-seventh interest, the rest claimed by his six surviving brothers and sisters: Carey Waters, Lucinda Reynolds wife of Edward Reynolds, Isaac B. Waters, John T. Waters, and Ursula J. Waters. Carey and Isaac B. Waters were "non-residents of the State." Widow Lydia Waters was entitled to dower.[j]

He d. of cholera in Brown Co. soon before 20 Aug. 1833, his brother James Waters administrator.[a] He m. Brown Co., 20 Aug. 1822, ELIZABETH ROBBINS,[b] b. 1800-1810 (1830 census). In Jan. 1834 James Waters, as Elias's administrator, alleged that in Feb. 1821 Elias had agreed to sell to Aaron Purdum a fifth part of 100 acres on Straight Creek "which belonged to the heirs of Isaac Waters deceased and the land where Barbary Waters then lived," that Aaron had assigned his right to [his brother-in-law] Isaac Waters in March 1830, and that Elias had died without making a will or a conveyance to confirm the deed to the heirs of brother Isaac. James' petition names as defendants Aaron Purdum and the children and minor heirs of Elias Waters: James Sylvester, John Robbins, Martha Ann Maria, and Elias Bailey Waters.[c] In June 1834, James conveyed Elias's interest in their father Isaac Waters' property to the heirs of their deceased brother Isaac Waters.[d] Aaron Purdum had been named guardian of Elias Waters' children.[e] Elias's household in Perry Township in 1830 included a male aged under 5, a male aged 5-9, and a female aged 10-14, the latter evidently not his daughter unless, as often happened, her age was misrecorded.

Children of Elias and Elizabeth (Robbins), surname Waters:

a. JAMES SYLVESTER[4], b. [say 1823], accounted for in 1830 as a male aged 5-9.

b. JOHN ROBBINS, b. 1825-1830 (1830 census), living in 1834.

Tout Family

1. ABRAHAM[1] TOUT, born probably about 1741, place unknown,[a] died in Fleming County, Kentucky, between 21 October 1824 and 1 May 1826, the dates of his will and probate.[b] He married, place unknown probably about 1773, [LYDIA?] (____) WATERS, born about 1740-45, who died in western Pennsylvania or northern Kentucky after 1785 and probably before 1810, widow of (____) Waters. She brought into the marriage at least three children born in the approximate period 1765-75, surname Waters: Isaac, Nancy, and Margaret, the latter two named as "stepdaughters" in Abraham's will. See Waters Family.

Abraham was near Baltimore in Harford County, Maryland, by March 1778 and was perhaps still there in 1781 or early 1782.[c] He and his stepson Isaac Waters had arrived in Washington County, Pennsylvania, by the spring of 1782, however, when both served in frontier militia companies that summer during the late stages of the Revolution. Abraham probably accompanied his sons and stepchildren to Mason County, Kentucky, in 1794 or early 1795, but the first known record of his presence in that locality is in 1798 tax assessments for Fleming County, formed from Mason that year. In April 1802, Abraham, signing by mark, and his son Bazil, by signature, agreed to teach one John Reed the trade of bricklaying for sixteen years, plus "cause him to be taught to read & right & common arithmitick including the rule of three."[d] Abraham was exempted from the personal head tax in Fleming County in and after 1801, and was listed as Abraham "Senior" after 1817 when his grandson of the same name (son of Bazil) appears. Abraham's will appointed his son Bazil executor and named daughter Elizabeth Stuart, stepdaughters Nancy Newman and Margaret Louderback, and left "my other children nothing more than I have already advanced them."[e]

Children of Abraham and [Lydia?] (____) (Waters), perhaps others, surname Tout:

2. i. BAZIL, b. (prob.) 5 March 1774, place uncertain; m. SARAH SHEPHERD.

3. ii. BENJAMIN G., b. 5 May 1776, place uncertain; m. SARAH D. McKEE.

iii. ELIZABETH, b. Md. either about 1778 or about 1782, was living in Elizaville, Fleming Co., Ky., in 1860.[f] She m. (1) Fleming Co., 3 Sept. 1799, ROBERT McKEE, b. before 1785 and living in 1810.[g]

[a] See previous discussion; he became exempt from taxation in Fleming Co. in 1801, suggesting he had attained age 60. A clue to Abraham's birth place may exist in a 1908 biography of his great grandson Asa[4] Tout (Isaac W.[3], Bazil[2], Abraham[1]) of Indianapolis. Mistakenly referring to Asa's great grandfather as "Bazil Tout, Sr.," the sketch states "the latter was born and reared in London, England." Names are confused and the late date renders any statements about early generations suspect, but the origin of some ancestor could be preserved in this account. See Biographical Record of Indianapolis and Vicinity (Chicago, J.H. Beers & Co., 1908), 511.

[b] Burns, Record of Wills in Fleming County, 82, as verified with a photocopy of the original.

[c] Abraham may have just arrived in 1778; his name is not found in militia lists for Harford Co. in 1776 and 1777, but he signed the oath of allegiance there 18 March 1778 (see introduction). His daughter Elizabeth Stuart's entry inthe 1850 census for Fleming Co., Ky. (p. 645) shows that she was born in Maryland and aged 68, so b. ca. 1781 or 1782, but see below for an earlier birth date.

[d] Fleming County Deeds, B:254.

[e] For other details and sources, see the introductory section.

[f] Elizabeth and her second husband John Stuart's household there in 1850 (census, p. 645) shows both born in Maryland; his age 55y and hers 68y. In 1860 he was listed as born in Pa., aged 66, and she as born in Md., aged 82 (p. 853).

[g] Burns, Record of Marriages in Fleming County, 38. Robert was aged 26-44 at the time of the 1810 census in Fleming Co.

She m. (2), before 1820, JOHN STUART, b. Md. or Pa. ca. 1794, living 1860. Elizabeth and her husband John Stuart are mentioned in her father's 1824 will. Elizabeth's McKee and Stuart household enumerations in Fleming County in 1810, 1820, 1830, and 1840 suggest she had ten children, all but the last two probably by Robert McKee. An eldest daughter Lydia was mentioned above; three sons are tentatively identified but the rest are still unknown.

Children of Robert and Elizabeth (Tout), surname McKee:

a. MALE, b. [say 1800], but 1794-1800 (1810 census).

b. MALE, b. [say 1802], but 1800-1802 (1810 and 1820 censuses).

c. LYDIA, b. Ky. ca. 1804; m. Fleming Co., 20 Sept. 1827, her cousin DAVID LOUDERBACK, b. Ky. ca. 1803, son of Andrew and Margaret (Waters) Louderback of Harrison Co., Ky. Lydia is accounted for as a female, b. 1800-1804, in the McKee and Stuart homes in 1810 and 1820. David and Lydia were living in Harrison Co. in 1850. See Waters Family (No. 1 iii. f) for their ten children.

d. FEMALE, b. [say 1806], but 1804-1810 (1810 and 1820 censuses).

e. (prob.) ELIJAH, b. Ky. ca. 1808 and accounted for as a male, b. 1804-1810 in the McKee and Stuart homes in 1810 and 1820. He m. Fleming Co., 6 Jan. 1830, ELIZABETH CAYWOOD,[a] b. Ky. ca. 1807. They were residing near John and Elizabeth Stuart in Fleming Co. in 1850 (census, p. 643) with children, all b. Ky., surname McKee: 1. Mary, b. ca. 1832. 2. John, b. ca. 1835. *3. f. MALE, b. [say 1810], but 1804-1810 (1820 census).

g. (prob.) JAMES, b. Ky. ca. 1812 and accounted for as a male, b. 1810-1820, in the Stuart home in 1820. He m. Fleming Co., 7 June 1832, ELIZA MOTT,[b] b. Ky. ca. 1813. They were residing near Elijah McKee above in 1850 (p. 643) with children, all b. Ky., surname McKee: 1. Hiram, b. ca. 1834. 2. John, b. ca. 1835. 3. Eliza, b. ca. 1837. *4. h. (prob.) ABRAHAM, b. Ky. ca. 1814 and accounted for as a male, b. 1810-1815, in the Stuart home in 1820 and 1830. He m. Fleming Co., 15 Nov. 1837, LETITIA FUQUE,[c] b. Ky. ca. 1815. They were residing near Elijah and James McKee above in 1850 (p. 644) with children, all b. Ky., surname McKee: 1. Martha, b. ca. 1839. 2. Abraham, b. ca. 1841. 3. Mary, b. ca. 1843.

Probable children of John and Elizabeth (Tout) (McKee), surname Stuart:

i. MALE, b. 1815-1820 (1820, 1830, and 1840 censuses).

j. FEMALE, b. 1820-1825 (1830 and 1840 censuses).

iv. HANNAH, b. Pa. 3 May 1785, d. Hamilton Co., Iowa, in July 1862;[a] m. Fleming Co., 28 Nov. 1813, DAVID McKEE,[b] b. 4 May 1791, d. 2 Oct. 1877.[c] David had just served in the War of 1812 from March to Oct. 1813 in Capt. Phillip's Company of Gen. William H. Harrison's Kentucky Militia. At age 80 on 23 March 1871, he applied for a pension in Hamilton Co., Iowa; affidavits were given by James Faught and Isiah Doane. An abstract of the record states that he had been living in Jefferson Co., Iowa, in 1855.[d] David and Hannah moved first, about 1817, to Pleasant Township, Brown Co., Ohio, where they appear in 1820 with three children, one of them apparently not their own.[e] By 1825 they were in Washington Township, that county, where he was a township trustee in 1827.[f] They were nearby in Sterling Township in 1830 (census, p. 491), but by 1840 they had moved to Hendricks Co., Ind. (census, p. 39), when their daughter Abigail m. there Benjamin[4] Tout as shown below. David McKee, wheelwright, and wife Hannah were living in Washington Township, Hendricks Co., in 1850 (census, p. 118). By 1860 they were in Webster Township, Hamilton Co., Iowa, P.O. Homer, p. 585, their house listed next to Isiah and Lydia Doane. Five children are accounted for in the 1820 and 1830 Brown Co., and 1840 Hendricks Co. censuses, all girls and only the two eldest ones yet identified.

a. LYDIA, b. Ky. ca. 1816 and accounted for as a female, b. 1815-1820, in David McKee's home in 1820 and 1830. She m. ISIAH DOANE, b. Ind. ca. 1823, and they were living in Hamilton Co., Iowa, next to her parents in 1860. Isiah gave an affidavit for his father-in-law's pension application there in 1871.

b. ABIGAIL M., b. Ohio 30 Jan. 1818 and living at Ottowa, Kansas, in April 1901. She m. Fleming Co., Ky., 14 May 1819, d. at the home of his daughter America Chambers in Ottowa, Kansas, 11 April 1901, leaving his "aged widow" and "four children."[h] Benjamin settled near Danville, Hendricks Co., Ind., in Aug. 1836, the month after his mother died in Brown Co., Ohio. His home there in 1840 (census, p. 731) included his wife and a male aged 15-19, presumably his younger brother William Harrison Tout (see No. 3 i). Their home was in Brown Township in 1850 (p. 165) and in Liberty Township in 1870 (p. 142). Children from biography, most confirmed by the censuses cited, all b. Ind., surname Tout: *1. 2. BAZIL[2] TOUT (Abraham[1]) was born probably in Virginia 5 March 1774,[a] and died in Hendricks County, Indiana, after 24 January 1854 and before next 27 August, the dates of his will and probate.[b] He married in Mason County, Kentucky, 17 July 1795 (bond), SARAH SHEPHERD,[c] said to have been born in Pennsylvania 25 May 1776.[d] Census data imply that she was born about 1770-1775. Sarah was probably living in December 1834,[e] but died before the 1850 census date when Bazil was living with their daughter Mahala Cassell in Middle Township, Hendricks County (p. 150).

On 11 April 1795 Bazil Tout of Mason County bought 50 acres from Benjamin Harris of Amelia County, Virginia, who had entered several large tracts on the Licking River in 1782. The property was located in the part of Mason that was taken into Fleming County in 1798. John and William McCullough, and William McWilliams witnessed. On the same day, Bazil witnessed when McCullough purchased an adjoining parcel, and four days before when John and Alexander McCullough bought 200 acres from the same grantor.[f] In 1797 Alexander McCullough was bondsman for the marriage of Bazil's brother, Benjamin G. Tout, and Sarah McKee (see No. 3). Bazil appears on the first tax list of newly-formed Fleming County in 1798, and was enumerated there in the Federal censuses of 1810, 1820, and 1830.

By an indenture in Fleming County dated 12 April 1802, Bazil and his father Abraham Tout agreed to teach one John Reed the trade of bricklaying for 16 years. It is said that Bazil and his son Abraham served in the War of 1812.[g] In January 1813 Bazil witnessed when Thomas Constant and his wife Margery of Green County, Ohio, Jacob

[a]Unsupported statements in DAR files (National Numbers 606791 and 587575) that Bazil was born in Pennsylvania 5 March 1774 may be correct at least for the date, perhaps derived years ago from his now unreadable tombstone in the Sparks Cemetery in Brown Township, Hendricks Co. The date, but not the place, is consistent with the entry for Bazil in the 1850 census for Middle Township, Hendricks Co. (p. 150), showing his age as 75 years and born in Virginia. Two of Bazil's children apparently also believed that he was born there. Son William S. Tout reported in 1880 that his father was born in Virginia (census, Adams Co., Ill., p. 147), and his daughter Mahala (Tout) (Cassell) McQuat also reported in 1880 that her father was born in Virginia (census, Owen Co., Ind., p. 233). In any case, neither the place nor exact date can be considered as proven.

[b]Dates from Marian O. Shirley of Indianapolis, letter of 29 May 1991. I have not seen this will or an abstract of it, but a petition for partition discussed below names Bazil's heirs.

[c]Bond dated 17 July 1795 and signed by Bazil Tout and John Shepherd, Mason County courthouse, Maysville, Ky.

[d]The date and a birth place Pennsylvania are stated without sources in NSDAR files 606791 and 587575, but her children William and Mahala reported in 1880 that she was born in Virginia. They cannot be considered as proven.

Dason and his wife Abigail, late Abigail Constant of Clark County, Kentucky, and William C. Trimble, Jr., of Fleming County sold part of 1000 acres patented by John Constant, deceased. In the some month, Bazil's half brother Isaac Waters of Brown County, Ohio, willed that his son Isaac should go to his "uncle Bazel" and learn a trade (see Waters Family). In December 1816 Bazil recorded his apprenticeship of Solomon Shepherd for two years, "to teach [him] the art and trade of brick making and laying."[a] In October 1824 Abraham Tout of Fleming County mentioned his son Bazil and named him executor.[b] Fleming county land records need further study,[c] but sales by Bazil and Sally in 1834 probably represent their disposal of Kentucky property upon removal to Hendricks County, Indiana. They had arrived there before November 1832, when Bazil and his sons Isaac W. and Andrew Tout were registered voters there in Center Township.[d] It is said that when Philip and Lydia Waters moved to Hendricks County from Brown County, Ohio, in 1834, "they were hospitably received by the Tout family who tendered them the use of an empty cabin." The Touts were "relatives," and "had a son-in-law ... Albert Thompson ... who was living on the land at the time Philip arrived in Danville."[e]

Early censuses imply Bazil and Sarah Tout had at least 13 children. Twelve children and minor heirs of a thirteenth child are named in a petition to partition Bazil's estate, dated 31 July 1854:[f] Andrew W. Tout, Isaac N. Tout, Benjamin Tout, William S. Tout, Abraham Tout, John S. Tout, Mary Ross and Samuel Ross, Margaret Shepherd, Lydia Tatman and William Tatman, Sarah Smith and Ralph Smith, Mahala Cassell, Nancy Mourning and Benjamin Mourning, and James and Richard Thompson minors under age 21.

Children of Bazil and Sarah (Shepherd), most likely order derived from various data, surname Tout:

i. ABRAHAM[3], b. Ky. ca. 1796, was a brick mason, aged 64, living in a boarding house in the City of Richmond, Wayne Co., Indiana, at the time of the 1860 census (p. 616). He m. Lewis Co., Ky., in 1817 ANN CONWAY,[g], b. 1790-94, who d. before 1860. Abraham is accounted for in his father's home in Fleming Co. in 1810 as the male b. 1795-1800. Probably, he was the brick mason of Fleming Co. in April 1818 (rather than his ageing grandfather of the same name) who undertook the apprenticeship of one Jesse Shepherd for 12 years.[a] Distinguishing him from his grandfather, the assessors recorded Abraham as "Junr." in the Fleming Co. tax lists for 1819 and 1820: one "white male" over 21 and three horses.[b] Abraham's household there in 1820 (census, p. 30) included a female b. 1775-1794 [his wife], two boys b. 1805-1810 [one presumably Jesse Shepherd], and a boy and girl each b. 1810-1820. By 1840 Abraham was in Perry Township, Wayne Co. (census, p. 540), apparently with a wife b. 1790-1800, and two female and two male children aged between 5 and 14 years. He has not been located in the 1830 and 1850 censuses.

Incomplete record of children implied by the 1820 and 1840 census data:

a. FEMALE[4], b. 1810-20 (1820 census).

b. MALE, b. 1810-20 (1820 census).

c. FEMALE, b. 1825-30 (1840 census).

d. MALE, b. 1830-35 (1840 census).

e. MALE, b. 1830-35 (1840 census).

f. FEMALE, b. 1830-35 (1840 census).

ii. MARY, b. Ky. ca. 1797[c], was living in 1854 (father's probate). Mary is accounted for as the female, b. 1795-1800, in Bazil Tout's home in 1810, and was his daughter "Mary Ross," wife of Samuel Ross, in 1854. Recorded as Mary "Trout," she m. (1) in Brown (then Clermont) Co., Ohio, 18 Aug. 1816, her cousin ISAAC[3] WATERS (Isaac[2], [____[1]]), b. ca. 1795, who d. of cholera in Brown Co. 13 July 1833, aged 38., son of Isaac and Barbara (Unsettler/Onsettler) Waters of Mason/Bracken Co., Ky., and Brown Co., Ohio. Mary m. (2) Brown Co., 24 Aug. 1838, SAMUEL ROSS, James Allen, J.P., presiding. Samuel, b. Pa. ca. 1777, was living at age 73 in Franklin Township, Clermont Co., in Sept. 1850 (census, p. 784) with wife "Polly" and three children: Jerome W. Ross, b. Ohio ca. 1840; Nancy J. Waters, b. there ca. 1831-32; and Lydia Waters, b. there ca. 1833-34. For further details and eight children by Isaac Waters, see Waters Family, No. 2 iv.

Apparent child of Mary Tout by second husband, surname Ross:

i. JEROME W., b. Ohio 1840, d. 1908 and buried in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Franklin Township, Clermont Co.[d] "His wife, SARAH, b. 1846, d. 1900," is shown as inscribed on the same stone. At age 10 in 1850, Jerome W. Ross was in Polly and Samuel Ross's home in Franklin Township (census, p. 784).

iii. MARGARET, b. in Ky. [say 1801],[e] was living in Liberty Township, Hendricks Co., Indiana, in 1860 (census, p. 538). She is accounted for as one of two females under age 10 in her father's home in 1810, and was his daughter "Margaret Shepherd" in 1854. Her husband in Liberty Township in 1850 was SOLOMON SHEPHERD, b. Ky. ca. 1785 (aged 65; census, p. 90), who d. before

[b] Land records for future study; Abraham or Abraham Sr.?

6 June 1821, Abraham from Thomas Bodley & wife, 88a., Fleming Cr. (K:499).
1 Feb. 1823, Abraham to Basil Tout, 3a. Fleming Cr. (L:440).

[c] She was aged 53, 1850 census, Franklin Township, Clermont Co., Ohio, p. 784.

[d] See "Monument Inscriptions Prior to 1900 from Cemeteries in Clermont County, Ohio" [Beech Forest Chapter, D.A.R., Williamsburg, Ohio, 1957], 9:1.

[e] The inconsistent ages shown for Margaret are: 40-49 years, 1840 census; 48 years, 1850 census; and 56 years, 1860 census.

July 1854.[a] Although shown as 17 years older than Margaret, Solomon's age appears to be correctly reported in 1850; he was consistently recorded in 1840 as aged 50-59 (census, Hendricks Co., p. 50). Thus, he seems not to have been the Solomon Shepherd, already noted, who was taken on as a brickmason's apprentice in Dec. 1816 for two years by Margaret's father. The apprentice surely would have been younger than Margaret's husband.[b] The Shepherd children associated with Margaret in the 1850 and 1860 censuses are shown as b. in Ky. between about 1820 and 1830, and in Indiana after about 1833, suggesting that Solomon and Margaret moved from Kentucky to Indiana about the same time as her parents.

Children of Solomon and Margaret (Tout), as implied by the 1840, 1850, and 1860 censuses, surname Shepherd:

a. FEMALE, b. [say 1818], but 1810-1820 (1840 census).

b. SOLOMON, b. Ky. [say 1820] (aged 20 [sic] in 1850, but more likely aged 30). In 1850 he had a separate household adjacent to his parents in Liberty Township with wife RACHAEL, b. Ind., ca. 182[3?] (aged 2[7?] in 1850), and children, b. Ind., surname Shepherd: 1. William, b. ca. 1842. 2. Sarah Jane, b. ca. 1844. 3. Samuel, b. ca. 1849.

c. SAMUEL, b. Ky. ca. 1823, a "brickmason," aged 27, at home in 1850.

d. MALE, b. [say 1825], but 1820-1825 (1840 census).

e. WILLIAM, b. Ky. ca. 1827 (aged 22 in 1850), or ca. 1830 (aged 30 in 1860). He was at home in 1850, but by 1860 he had a household next to that of his widowed mother in Liberty Township with wife MELISSA, b. Ind. ca. 1833, and children, b. Ind., surname Shepherd: 1. Lucian, b. ca. 1853. 2. Sarah A., b. ca. 1855.

f. MALE, b. [say 1830], but 1825-1830 (1840 census).

g. SALLY, b. Ind. ca. 1834 (aged 16 in 1850, apparently misrecorded as a male in 1840, aged 5-9).

h. MAHALA, b. Ind. ca. 1837 (aged 13 in 1850 and 23 in 1860).

i. MARGARET, b. Ind. ca. 1840 (aged 10 in 1850 and 19 in 1860).

j. (perhaps) JAMES, b. Ind. ca. 1847 (aged 13 in 1860). He was in Margaret Shepherd's home in 1860, but not with Solomon and Margaret in 1850. Margaret was near but not beyond the limit of her child-bearing years in 1847.

iv. LYDIA, b. [say 1803], was living in 1854 (father's probate). She is accounted for as a female, b. 1800-1804, in her father's home in 1810 and 1820, and was his daughter "Lydia Tatman," in 1854; her husband named WILLIAM TATMAN. No doubt he was the William Tatman, b. 1790-1800, listed in 1830 next to Lydia's father in Fleming Co. (census, p. 58). William's home then included a female [his wife], aged 20-29, a female aged 5-9, and five boys under age 15. Assuming that William was born in 1800, his household in 1830 correlates with that of the William Tateman, aged 30-40, across the Ohio River in Point Pleasant, Monroe Township, Clermont Co., Ohio, in 1840 (census, p. 209). By then he and his wife (aged 30-39) had accumulated two girls under age 15 and ten boys under age 20. Neither he nor his wife Lydia has been identified in later censuses; however, one Tout Tatman, b. Ind. ca. 1826, appears in the census for the same township in 1850 (p. 15) with wife Mary J., b. ca. 1830, place "unknown," and child Elizabeth A., aged 1y, b. Ohio.[a]

[a] Solomon did not join other spouses who signed the petition to partition their father-in-law's estate 31 July 1854.

[b] One Solomon Shepherd, aged 18-25, with a female aged 16-25, presumably his wife, had a household in Lewis (adjoining Fleming) Co., Ky., in 1820 (census, p. 92). Nearby was the home of a John Shepherd, aged 45 or older, with several children. An older Solomon Shepherd, aged over 45, was in Lewis Co. in 1810 (census, p. 99) with household: 40101-23001-00. Probably, he was the Solomon whose inventory was taken there in April 1812 by James Givens, George Means, William Walker, and John Maddox. His widow Elizabeth Shepherd's inventory was taken there in March 1816; John Shepherd administrator, James Ruggells, Jess Hambrick, and Hugh Hannah appraisers ("Lewis County Kentucky, Wills and Estates, 1807-1842" [Indianapolis, The Researchers, 1985?], 9). The elder Solomon of Lewis Co. was probably father of Joseph Shepherd, b. Ky. ca. 1800 (aged 50, 1850 census, Pleasant Township, Brown Co., Ohio, house no. 237), whose eldest child Solomon W., b. 1828, claimed that his father's "parents died when he [Joseph] was quite young" (History of Brown County, "Biographical Sketches," 38-39). Joseph was chosen by Isaac[3] Waters to administer his estate in 1833 (see No. ii) and witnessed the will of Isaac's brother-in-law Samuel Hodgkins of Pleasant Township in 1841 (Donaldson, Brown County, Ohio, Court Records, 27; original, 2:138). Although Joseph Shepherd was "Dead" in 1880, the census for Pleasant Township that year lists him anyway; he was b. in "Ky." and both his parents in "Va." (census, p. 211). A study of land records may establish the Shepherd relationships.

In addition to Tout Tatman above, William and Lydia Tatman would seem to be parents of the following, who, by 1850 and 1860, were living in Adams Co., Ill. (census [1850], pp. 316, 318; [1860, for James], p. 405), with or near the John S. and Elizabeth (Tatman) Tout family below, surname Tatman: John, b. Ky. ca. 1823; m. [say 1848] Mary (____), b. Ky. ca. 1830; William, b. Ky. ca. 1828; and James, b. Ky. ca. 1832.

v. ISAAC W., b. Ky. ca. 1804, d. in Indianapolis in 1874.[b] He m. Fleming Co., Ky., 14 Aug. 1821 (bond), ELIZABETH FOSTER[c], b. in 1804, who d. 2 Aug. 1889 (son Asa's biography). Elizabeth's age in 1860, however, was stated as 54 years. Asa Tout's biography states that his father was b. in 1802, and Isaac can be accounted for as a male, b. 1800-1804, in his father's home in 1810 and 1820. Statements available for the ages of his sisters Margaret and Lydia (see above) make it more likely that Isaac's birth followed theirs. At age 20-29 in 1830, Isaac had a household in the Eastern District of Fleming Co. (census, p. 64), including, in addition to his wife and elder children, an unidentified female aged 50-59. Son Asa's biography states that Isaac, a brickmason, moved to Danville, Hendricks Co., in the fall of 1831, then to Indianapolis in 1847. Isaac, aged 30-39, appears with a household in Hendricks Co. in 1840 (p. 731) including his wife and eight children aged under 20. Isaac's household has not been located in the 1850 census, but in 1860 it was in the "N½ Centre Township" of Marion Co., P.O. Indianapolis, p. 762.. Asa's biography names himself and eight others as Isaac's children, most without dates, only two of whom were living in 1908.[d]

Children of Isaac W. and Elizabeth (Foster), most dates derived from the 1830, 1840, and 1860 censuses, surname Tout:

a. EMILY[4], b. 1820-25 (1830 and 1840 censuses), deceased in 1908.

b. MARGARET, b. [say 1824] (under 5 in 1830 and 15-19 in 1840), deceased in 1908. A Margaret J. Tout m. Hendricks Co., 12 Nov. 1840, HENRY HUGHES.[e] They are not found there in 1850 or later censuses.

c. ASA, b. Fleming Co. 6 May 1826, d. 12 June 1906, aged 80, is presumably the Asa who

[a] More study is needed. William Tatman's wife Lydia surely was not the 47-year-old Lydia Tatman listed in the 1850 census for adjacent Tate Township, Clermont Co. (census, p. 719). This Lydia's birth place is recorded as in "N.C.," and a tombstone in the township cemetery shows "Lydia, wife of Ruben Tatman," d. 29 Nov. 1861, aged 59y 2m 29d ("Monument Inscriptions Prior to 1900 from Cemeteries in Clermont County," 5:98). Her home in 1850 included children, surname Tatman: James, b. "Ohio" ca. 1830; Lucinda, b. "Ohio" ca. 1833; and Elisa C., b. "Ohio" ca. 1835.

[b] Biography of son Asa Tout, Biographical Record of Indianapolis and Vicinity [Chicago, 1908], 511. Isaac's age was stated as 56 years in 1860 (census, Center Township, Marion Co., Ind., p. 762.

[d] A statement in Asa's biography that Isaac's grandfather was a Bazel Tout, Sr., of London is not consistent with presently available data.

Toronto 5 March 1840, daughter of Jasper and Mary (Jackson) Winman, by whom he had children, surname Tout: 1. Asa B.[5], d. 8y 6m. 2. William A., b. 9 July 1879.

d. SARAH, b. 1825-30 (1830 and 1840 censuses), deceased in 1908.

e. HENRY, b. 1825-30 (1840 census), deceased in 1908.

f. WILKINSON M., b. Danville, Hendricks Co., 10 June 1833, and living in 1908; m. 22 Sept. 1855 SARAH MORRIS, b. Somerset Co., Md., 1834. He was a bricklayer of Indianapolis in 1860 (census, p. 762).

g. (perhaps) FEMALE, b. 1835-40 (1840 census).

h. WILLIAM, b. Ind. ca. 1839 (1840 and 1860 censuses), deceased in 1908.

i. ZENAS F., b. Ind. ca. 1841 (1860 census), deceased in 1908.

j. JANE, b. Ind. ca. 1844 (1860 census) and living in 1908; m. MARTIN COMERFORD "of Peoria, Ill."

vi. JOHN S., b. Fleming Co., Ky., 18 Oct. 1806, is said to have d. Ursa, Adams Co., Ill., 8 Jan. 1893.[b] He m. Fleming Co., 30 Aug. 1826 (bond), ELIZABETH TATMAN,[c] b. Fleming Co. 17 Nov. [prob. 1802], d. Marcelline, Adams Co., Ill., 25 Oct. 1887,[d] daughter of Nehemiah and Nancy (____) Tatman of Sussex Co., Del., and Fleming Co., Ky.[e] John is accounted for as one of two males, b. 1804-10, in his father's home in 1810 and 1820. John S. Tout, aged 20-29, had a household in Pleasant Township, Brown Co., Ohio in 1830, including a female aged 20-29 and three males under 5 (census, p. 438). By 1840 John was in nearby Washington Township, Clermont Co., Ohio (census, p. 188), the township adjoining Monroe where his sister Lydia Tatman apparently had been living in 1830 (see No. iv above). His children's birth places, as shown in the 1850 and 1860 censuses for Ursa Township, Adams Co., Ill. (pp. 318 and 399), imply that he moved there from Ohio about 1842.[f] In 1860, his household included one William Tatman, aged 22, b. Ky. At age 73, John and his wife Elizabeth, aged 75, were residing in the Village of Marcelline in 1880 with a 22-year-old "grandson" Richard Tout in their home (census, p. 27).

[a] HCMR, 4:28.

[b] The date and place of John's birth appear on a 14" x 16" framed "Family Record" of the parents, marriage, and children of Richard W. Tout (b. 1859) of Adams County, in possession of Lyman D. Tout of Big Pine Key, Florida, in 1975. This "Record" was submitted in support of an application to the NSDAR (No. 587575) which states, evidently from another source, that John died at Ursa 8 Jan. 1893. These dates and places presumably are correct -- they agree with other, less precise, data -- but a problem exists in the date given for his wife's birth, mentioned below.

[c] Talley, Fleming County Marriage Bonds, 107.

[d] The date and place of Elizabeth's death are from the "Family Record" cited above, which, however, shows an impossible date, 17 Nov. 1812, for her birth in Fleming Co. The date appears in a way which suggests an alteration from 17 Nov. 1802. In censuses before 1850, entries for her age consistently show her birth between 1800 and 1810; after 1850 they consistently show her age about two or more years older than her husband, b. 1806. The apparent alteration may have occurred in the late 1800s; the "Record" is for the immediate family of Richard W. Tout who, according the the record itself, was b. Adams Co. 6 Aug. 1859, a "son" of John S. and Elizabeth (Tatman) Tout. Richard, however, was not their son; he was listed as their "grandson" in the 1880 census for their household in Marcelline (p. 27). Most likely, he was the son of one of their elder daughters listed below.

[e] Unverified statements from the papers of Lyman D. Tout, citing Collins, History of Adams County, Illinois. Nehemiah Tatman's household in Fleming Co. in 1810 (census, p. 82) appears as 52101-31001-00, showing that he had 12 children then at home, including three females under age 10.

[f] Near John S. Tout at Ursa in 1850 (on the same census page) was a family headed by Michael Shepperd, aged 50, b. Ky. His wife then was Nancy, aged 40, b. Ky. Perhaps this man was the Michael Shepherd to whom Bazil[2] and Sarah (Shepherd) Tout conveyed the three acres in Fleming County In April 1823, mentioned previously.

Children of John S. and Elizabeth (Tatman), from censuses cited, surname Tout:

a. MALE[4], b. 1825-30 (1830 and 1840 censuses).

b. MALE, b. 1825-30 (1830 and 1840 censuses).

c. MALE, b. 1825-30 (1830 and 1840 censuses).

d. MARY A., b. Ohio ca. 1834 (1840 and 1850 censuses).

e. JOHN [S.?], b. Ohio ca. 1835 (1840, 1850, 1860, and 1880 censuses). He was a carpenter in the Village of Marcelline in 1880; his "wife" then was MARY (____), b. Ill. ca. 1858 (census, p. 26). "Daughter" with them in 1880, surname Tout: 1. Emma[5], b. Ill. ca. 1878.

f. ASBURY M., b. Ohio ca. 1837 (1840, 1850, 1860, and 1880 censuses). He was a blacksmith at Marcelline in 1880 with "wife" MARGARET (____), b. Pa. ca. 1845, her parents b. Ireland. No children were listed (census, p. 26).

g. SARAH J., b. Ohio ca. 1839 (1840, 1850, and 1860 censuses).

h. CAROLINE, b. Ohio ca. 1842 (1850 census).

i. ELIZABETH, b. Ill. ca. 1843 (1850 and 1860 censuses).

j. THOMAS, b. Ill. ca. 1846 (1850 and 1860 censuses).

k. JAMES, b. Ill. ca. 1851 (1860 census).

vii. BENJAMIN, b. Ky. ca. 1807,[a] was living in 1854 (father's probate). He and his brother John above account for the two males, b. 1804-10, in their father's home in 1810 and 1820. Benjamin's wife in Middle Township in 1850 was MARY ANN (____), b. Ky. ca. 1807, perhaps daughter of the Mary White in their household, b. Md. ca. 1774. Birth places listed for children in 1850 imply that Benjamin came from Kentucky to Indiana between 1831 and 1834, about the time his parents moved there. He had a household in Hendricks Co. in 1840 (p. 731) including four children: one female aged 10-14 and three males aged 5-9.[b]

Children implied by the 1840 and 1850 censuses, perhaps others later, surname Tout:

a. FEMALE[4], b. 1825-30 (1840 census).

b. WILLIAM H., b. Ky. ca. 1832 (1840 and 1850 censuses), or ca. 1830 (1860 census); m. in Hendricks Co., 5 Aug. 1852, SARAH KITE,[c] b. Ky. ca. 1829. About 1857 or 1858, they moved to Chariton, Lucas Co., Iowa, where he was brick mason in 1860 (census, p. 499) with wife Sarah and children, surname Tout: 1. George[5], b. Ind. ca. 1854. 2. Mary, b. Ind. ca. 1857. 3. John, b. Iowa ca. 1858.

c. JOHN W. b. Ind. ca. 1834 (1840 and 1850 censuses).

d. JAMES, b. Ind. ca. 1837 (aged 13, 1850 census). He seems to be one of the three males, aged 5-9 (sic), recorded in 1840.

[a] Benjamin was aged 43 at the time of the 1850 census in Middle Township, Hendricks Co., Ind., p. 43.

[b] Two Benjamin Touts appear on the same census page in 1840, both shown as aged 20-29. One clearly was Benjamin[4] (William[3], Benjamin G.[2], Abraham[1]), b. 1819. The other corresponds in stated age with Benjamin F.[3] Tout (Benjamin G.[2], Abraham[1]), b. ca. 1816; however, the data for this household in 1840 do not correlate with Benjamin F. Tout's household in 1850 and 1860, but they do correlate with the 1850 household of the Benjamin considered here. The ages of the second Benjamin and his wife (Mary Ann) were apparently understated by one age bracket in 1840.

e. RICHARD M., b. Ind. ca. 1841 (1850 census).

f. BAZIL, b. Ind. ca. 1847 (1850 census).

g. SILAS, b. Ind. ca. 1848 (1850 census).

viii. ANDREW W., b. Fleming Co., Ky., ca. 1811, d. Hendricks Co., Ind., 21 Nov. 1877.[a] He is accounted for as a male, b. 1810-20, in his father's home in 1820 and m. in Fleming Co., 4 Oct. 1830 (bond), REBECCA POWELL,[b] b. Fleming Co., 3 Oct. 1808, d. Danville, Hendricks Co., 1 Oct. 1873 in her 66th year.[c] Andrew W. Tout's household appears in censuses of Hendricks county for 1840 (p. 727), 1850 (p. 735), 1860 (p. 521), and 1870 (p. 293). A butcher of Danville in 1874, he is said to have settled in Hendricks Co. in 1831,[d] probably with his father and older brothers who arrived about then from Fleming Co. Andrew is said to have taught school in Hendricks Co. for several years, served there as constable, afterwards County Sheriff, then assessor from 1854 until the Civil War, when elected Captain of a militia company.[e]

Children, inferred from the census data, surname Tout:

a. MARTHA M.[4], b. Ky. ca. 1830 (1840 and 1850 censuses).

b. THOMAS M., b. Hendricks Co. 4 Dec. 1833 and living in Nicholas Co., Ky., in 1882; m. Sept. 1859 MARTHA ANN COLLIVER, daughter of Elijah Colliver of Montgomery Co., Ky.[f] According to his biography, Thomas came to Fleming Co., Ky., in 1858, where he ran a sawmill, then to Nicholas Co. before marriage. He had "four brothers in the late [Civil] war, three of whom were in the Union army and one, John L., in the Southern army under Humphrey Marshall." Children, from biography, all living in 1882, surname Tout: 1. Nannie R.[5] 2. John T. 3. Andrew E. 4. Sarah E. 5. George. 6. Hattie L. 7. Mary A. 8. Fannie R. 9. Willie A.

c. WILLIAM L., b. Ind. ca. 1836 (1840, 1850, 1860, and 1880 censuses); m. in Hendricks Co., 10 Jan. 1864, ROXANNE SMITH,[g] b. Ky. ca. 1843 (1880 census). Most likely, he was the William Tout, teamster and trader of Danville in 1874, "born in Hendricks County 1837."[h] William and Roxana's home was in Danville City at the time of the 1880 census (p. 24). Children, from that census, all b. Ind., surname Tout: 1. Emma F.[5], b. ca. 1866. 2. Mamie E., b. ca. 1870. 3. Ella N., b. ca. 1873. 4. Walter L., b. ca. 1875. 5. Christianna, b. ca. 1879, d. Danville 28 June 1894, aged 15.[i]

d. JOHN L., b. Ind. ca. 1838 (1840 and 1850 censuses), is said to have served with the Southern army in the Civil War (see brother Thomas M. above).

e. FRANKLIN HOMER, b. Ind. ca. 1840 (1850 and 1860 censuses). He served with his brothers George and Columbus C. Tout in the 7th and 148th Indiana Infantry Regiments during most of the Civil War. In 1870, Homer Tout, aged 30, farm laborer, was living alone in Danville (census, p. 280).

f. GEORGE W., b. Hendricks Co. in 1841,[a] d. Danville 31 May 1901, aged 58 (sic).[b] He m. (1) Hendricks Co., 21 March 1871, ANNA MARY AYRES,[c] b. Ind. ca. 1848 (1880 census), d. 1890,[d] and (2), 17 Feb. 1895, BETTIE McFARLAN.[e] In 1874 George was operating a livery stable in Center Township, but was called a "butcher" in Danville City in 1880 (census, p. 7). He had no children at home in 1880.

g. COLUMBUS C. (also "Christian C." and "Christopher C."), b. Hendricks Co. in 1844,[f] d. Danville 8 Nov. 1905. He m. there 7 Sept. 1868 SUSAN H. PADGETT,[g] b. Ind. in 1848, who d. there 26 Oct. 1906.[h] His Civil War pension file shows that Columbus served as a private from Sept. 1861 to Sept. 1865, and was wounded in the wilderness fight in Virginia 5 May 1864. He and his wife both signed documents by mark, he stating his occupation as day laborer and butcher. He was a "brick moulder" of Danville in 1874, but a "butcher" there in 1880. Children, from the 1880 census and Danville East Cemetery inscriptions, all b. Ind., surname Tout: 1. Hattie[5], b. 16 July 1870, d. 18 Jan. 1882. 2. Maggie, b. ca. 1872. 3. Julie, b. 1874, d. 1928. 4. Maude, b. 14 Dec. 1879, d. 19 May 1882. 5. Jessie, b. ca. 1883, d. 24 Jan. 1900.[i]

h. SARAH C., b. Ind. ca. 1845 (1850 and 1860 censuses).

i. NANCY, b. Ind. ca. 1847 (1850 and 1860 censuses); perhaps the Nancy E. who m. in Hendricks Co., 21 Dec. 1865, WILLIAM STRICKLAND.[j]

j. BRADLEY, b. Ind. ca. 1851 (1860 and 1870 censuses), d. apparently after Jan. 1876 and before the 1880 census date; m. in Hendricks Co., 7 Jan. 1876, ALICE E. AYRES,[k] b. Ind. ca. 1858, daughter of William P. Ayres of Danville, with whom she was residing in 1880 (census, p. 21) with a child, surname Tout: 1. Roscoe[5], b. Ind. ca. 1877, d. Danville 27 Aug. 1883, aged 6y.[l]

ix. WILLIAM S., b. Fleming Co., Ky., 20 Oct. 1812, was living in Honey Creek Township, Adams Co., Ill.,

in 1880 (census, p. 147). He m. LEVINA GARR, b. Ky. 6 July 1818, and living in 1880.[a] William was named in his father's probate in 1854 and can be accounted for as a male, b. 1815-1820, in his home in 1820 and 1830, though the age bracket does not match the date in William's sketch or the census entries in Illinois. William Tout, b. Ky., aged 36, and family were with John S. Tout (No. vi. above) in Ursa, Adams Co., Ill., in 1850 (census, p. 316), his wife then listed as Lavina, b. Ky. ca. 1820 (sic, aged 30). In 1880 William, then aged 67, b. Ky., and wife Levina, aged 62, b. Va. (sic), were in Honey Creek Township with several children and grandchildren still at home. The entries for William's parent's birthplaces were both "Va." The children's birth places shown in these censuses imply William and Levina were in Indiana by about 1835 and had come to Illinois about 1847. William's sketch cited above states he had 16 children and lists 12 living in 1879.

Children, as listed in 1850 and 1880, and supplemented by the sketch in 1879, surname Tout: a. Mary J.[4], b. Ind. ca. 1835. b. Martha, b. there ca. 1836. c. Eucebe, b. there ca. 1838. d. Anderson, b. there ca. 1840, d. in Civil War. e. John, b. there ca. 1842. f. Julia, b. there ca. 1843. g. Perry, b. there ca. 1844. h. Viranda, b. there ca. 1845. *i. x. SARAH, b. Ky. ca. 1814 (1850 through 1880 censuses), was living in Middle Township, Hendricks Co. in 1880 (p. 444). She is accounted for as one of three females, b. 1810-1820, in her father's home in 1820, and was his daughter "Sarah Smith" in 1854. She m. Hendricks Co., 31 Jan. 1833, RAPHAEL SMITH,[b] b. Va. ca. 1811, living in 1870, but d. before the 1880 census. Sarah reported in 1880 that both her parents were b. in Pa.

Children, inferred from the 1850 through 1880 censuses for Middle Township, all b. Ind., surname Smith: a. Mariah Jane, b. ca. 1835. b. Mary Ann, b. ca. 1836. c. Nancy M., b. ca. 1838. d. Stephen W., b. ca. 1840. e. Sarah E., b. ca. 1841. f. Basil T., b. ca. 1843. g. John W., b. ca. 1845. h. Margaret E., b. ca. 1848. i. Amanda J., b. ca. 1851. j. Mahala, b. ca. 1855. k. George S., b. ca. Nov. 1859.

xi. BETSY, b. [say 1816], accounted for as one of three females, b. 1810-1820, in her father's home in 1820. She was her father's deceased daughter in 1854 (probate). She m. in Hendricks Co., 31 Jan. 1833, ALBERT THOMPSON,[c] the "son-in-law" of the Touts who greeted Philip[2] Waters, brother of Isaac, when he arrived in Hendricks Co. from Ohio in 1834 (see No. ii above). The Thompson household is not found in the 1840 or later censuses for Hendricks Co.

Children named as minor heirs in in the 1854 petition to partition Bazil Tout's estate, Nicholas T. Hadley guardian, surname Thompson: a. James. b. Richard.

xii. MAHALA, b. Fleming Co., Ky., 6 April 1820, d. Mill Grove, Owen Co., Ind., 21 May 1904.[d] Mahala is accounted for as a female, b. 1815-1820, in her father's household in 1820 and 1830. In 1850, he was living in her home in Middle Township, Hendricks Co. (census, p. 150). She m. (1) Hendricks Co., 30 March 1837, GEORGE CASSELL,[e] b. Ky, ca. 1803, a carpenter who was living in 1850 but dead by July 1854 when Mahala signed the petition to partition her father's estate. She m. (2) Hendricks Co. (license), 15 Oct. 1854, WILLIAM S. McQUAT, b. Scotland

ca. 1818, a carpenter who d. Mill Grove, Ind., before 1900. Mahala and her second husband, surname recorded as "M Cutt," "McCuitt," and "McOuat," were listed in Taylor Township, Owen Co., P.O. Mill Grove, in 1860 (census, p. 148), and in 1880 (p. 233) when she reported that her parents were born in Virginia. In 1900 widow Mahala McOuat, aged 80, b. Ky. in April 1820, was residing in Mill Grove with her son William McOuat, b. Ind. April 1860, and his family (census, E.D. 109, Sheet 3).[a]

Children by first husband, from 1850 and 1860 censuses, all b. Ind., surname Cassell: a. Jefferson, b. ca. 1838. b. Catharine, b. ca. 1840. c. John, b. ca. 1844. xiii. NANCY, b. Ky. ca. 1823 (aged 27, 1850 census). She was Bazil Tout's daughter "Nancy Mourning" in 1854 (probate), and is accounted for as one of the two females, b. 1820-1825, in his household in 1830. She m. (1) in Hendricks Co., 16 Jan. 1840, ANDERSON J. POUNDS,[b] b. 1810-1820 (1840 census, Hendricks Co., p. 43), and (2), before 1850, BENJAMIN MOURNING, b. Ky. ca. 1809 (aged 41, 1850 census, Middle Township, Hendricks Co., p. 150), and living 1854. The seven children, ages 2m to 13y, in their home in 1850 are all indicated by the unreliable ditto marks as having surname "Mourning." The two eldest, Samuel H., aged 13, and John W., aged 11, surely were Benjamin Mourning's children by an earlier wife, as were probably some of the younger ones.

Children, those aged 10 or under in 1850, all b. Ind. and all with indicated surname Mourning, but one at least -- Anderson J. -- perhaps Pounds: a. Julia Ann, b. ca. 1840. b. William, b. ca. 1842. c. Anderson J., b. ca. 1846. d. Benjamin, b. ca. 1848. e. Margaret S., b. 1850 (aged 2m).

3. BENJAMIN G.[2] TOUT (Abraham[1]), born in Pennsylvania or Maryland 5 May 1776,[c] died in Hendricks County, Indiana, 16 February 1839, aged 63, where he was buried in the Danville East Cemetery. He married in Mason County, Kentucky, 25 October 1796 (bond), SARAH D. McKEE, born in Pennsylvania 9 June 1777 (computed), who died 22 August 1849, aged 72y 2m 13d and was buried in the same cemetery. She married second in Hendricks County, 26 September 184[2], Henry Miller,[d] born in Pennsylvania about 1779, who resided in 1850 with the James Davis family in Washington Township, Hendricks County (census, p. 115).

Alexander McCullough, the bondsman for Benjamin and Sarah's marriage, was involved the year before with Benjamin's brother Bazil Tout in Mason County land transactions (see No. 2).[e] On 10 November 1800 Benjamin bought 50 acres from Andrew

[a]This census states that Mahala had five children, three then living, but at least six children by her two husbands appear in earlier records. It also states, plainly in error, that her parents were born in Kentucky.

[b]HCMR, 2:73.

[c]The places are from the inconsistent statements in the 1880 census entries for Benjamin's sons Bazil and James, discussed subsequently, The exact date, 5 May 1776, is inscribed on his tombstone. Either place makes sense, but Maryland perhaps more so as his father definitely was in Harford Co., Md., two years later, near where the Susquehannah River crosses into Maryland from Pennsylvania.

[d]HCMR, 2:205. The available note of this record shows the year as 1843, but see date of her will below.

[e]In October 1794, Alexander McCullough, a bricklayer of Mason Co., had taken on the apprenticeship of Guion McKee for 11 years; see Mason County Deed Book Abstracts, B1:175.

and Polly Thompson, located in the survey tract with Bazil's 50 acres.[a] Benjamin's Fleming County tax assessments in and after 1798, cited previously, show a land accumulation by 1817 reaching 205 acres on Fleming Creek.[b] He was taxed each year for one male over age 21, except in 1819 when the assessment for two males over 21 suggests his recently married eldest son William was engaged on the farm. Benjamin was a trustee of Flemingsburg in 1817,[c] and appears in the Federal censuses for Fleming County in 1810, 1820, and 1830. He moved to Hendricks County soon thereafter, where several of his children appear in the early 1830s.

Her age is understated as 50-59 years, but Sarah was no doubt the "Widow Tout" in Hendricks County at the time of the 1840 census (p. 727). As Sally Tout alias Miller, she executed her will there in October 1842 (proven in August 1849) naming the following heirs: grandchild Sally Tout, daughter of John Tout; daughters Lydia and Lucinda; sons John, Basil, James, Benjamin, and Robert; and children of her deceased children William, Polly, and Sally.[d]

Children of Benjamin G. and Sarah D. (McKee), from her will and other sources mentioned, surname Tout:

i. WILLIAM[3], b. 4 July 179[7], presumably in Fleming Co., d. Brown Co., Ohio, 28 March 1835.[e] He m. 12 March 1818, ELEANOR HURST, b. 3 May 1798, probably in Maryland, who d. Brown Co. 9 July 1836.[f] William is accounted for in his father's home in 1810 as a male b. 1794-1800 (census, Fleming Co., p. 70); by 1820 he had an adjacent household in Fleming Co. (census, p. 63). He moved to Brown Co. before 1825 (birthplace of third child), where he appears in Pleasant Township in 1830 near his brothers John and Bazil Tout, and cousis Isaac[3] Waters (census, pp. 442, 445). He had at that time three children of school age -- over 4 and under 16 years.[g]

Children of William and Eleanor (Hurst), surname Tout:

a. BENJAMIN[4], b. Fleming Co. 14 May 1819, d. Ottowa, Kansas, 11 April 1901; m. Hendricks Co., Ind., 7 Jan. 1840, his first cousin, once removed, ABIGAIL M. McKEE, b. Ohio 30 Jan. 1818, living 1901, daughter of David and Hannah (Tout) McKee. For details, sources, and 12 children by Abigail, see No. 1 iv. b. preceding.

b. SARAH, b. ca. 1823[a] and said to be living in Brown Co., Ohio, in 1883;[b] m. Hendricks Co., Ind., 5 April 1839, BENJAMIN CRABB,[c] b. Ohio ca. 1819, probably son of Vincent Crabb who had two children of school age in Pleasant Township, Brown Co., in 1830.[d] Birth places of children listed in 1850 imply that Benjamin and Sarah returned from Indiana to Pleasant Township, Brown Co., between 1840 and 1843. Children, from 1850 census, perhaps others later, surname Crabb: 1. Louis E., b. Ind. ca. 1840. 2. William V., b. Ind. ca. 1841. 3. Mary E., b. Ohio ca. 1843. 4. James, b. c. WILLIAM HARRISON, b. Brown Co., Ohio, 30 April 1825,[e] d. Archie, Cass Co., Mo., 31 March 1898, aged 72y 11m.[f] He m. Hendricks Co., Ind., 12 April 1844, LUCINDA RUGGLES,[g] b. Ky. 22 June 1825 (computed), who d. 25 Dec. 1896, aged 71y 6m 3d and buried in the same lot, daughter of James Ruggles.[h] According to William's biography, he moved to Hendricks County, Indiana, after his parents died in Ohio, where he lived with his grandfather, unnamed. No doubt he came with his brother Benjamin in 1836 to reside with their grandfather Benjamin G. Tout, and was the male, aged 15-19, in his brother's home there in 1840. William and Lucinda's household is listed in the censuses for Brown Township, Hendricks Co., in 1850 (p. 165), 1860 (p. 717), and 1870 (p. 275). His biography states that he studied medicine, practiced it in the Civil War, and "moved west" in 1870. Children, from biography, most confirmed by the censuses, all b. Ind., surname Tout: 1. James W.[5], b. Brownsburg, Hendricks Co., 18 Jan. 1845.[i] 2. Margaret E., b. ca. 1846. 3. Lewis W., b. ca. 1848. 4. Sarah E., not listed in 1850 through 1870 censuses. *5. [l] A note from her tombstone in Sparks Cemetery shows her age as 8*6* years, no doubt misread for 8*1* years. All census entries place her birth after 1800; in particular, she was living in 1880 with her son Lorenzo in Middle Township, Hendricks Co., aged 78, a "widow" (House No. 245).

County.[a] John is accounted for in 1810 as one of the two males, b. 1794-1800, in his father's Fleming Co. home. He moved to Brown County by 1822 (marriage date), where he is listed in Pleasant Township in 1830 adjacent to his elder brother William and near younger brother Bazil Tout (census, p. 445), when he had one child of school age -- over 4 and under 16 years.[b] Children's birth places shown in the census of his widow Susan's home in Hendricks Co. in 1850 (House No. 1016) imply that they moved there from Ohio between 1833 and 1837, where their home appears in 1840 (census, p. 729). In May 1848 Othniel Payne was assigned as guardian for John Tout's younger surviving children: Lucinda, James F., George M., William, and Lorenzo D. Tout.[c] a. (prob.) MARTHA[4], b. [say 1823], who m. Hendricks Co., 5 Nov. 1843, ABRAHAM TRIGGS.[d] She is accounted for in John Tout's home in 1830 and 1840 as a female b. 1820-1825, and would be his child of school age in 1830. Abraham Trigg's household has not been located in the 1850 census.

b. FEMALE, b. [say 1826], but 1825-1830 (1830 census).

c. LUCINDA, b. Ohio ca. 1829 (1860 census) and accounted for in John Tout's home in 1830 and 1840. She m. Hendricks Co., 19 April 1849, HORATIO LEWIS,[e] b. Ind. ca. 1827. They moved before 1860 to Wayne Township, Kosciusko Co., Ind. (census, p. 326), where they had several children at home, perhaps others b. later, surname Lewis: 1. Susan J., b. Ind. ca. 1850. 2. John L., b. Ill. ca. 1853. 3. Joseph J., b. Ind. ca. 1855. 4. Mary J., b. Ind. ca. 1857. 5. William R., b. Ind. ca. 1859.

d. JAMES F., b. Ohio ca. 1832 (1850 census), d. Hendricks Co. 17 Feb. 1865.[f] He m. there 27 Dec. 1855 SUSAN REYNOLDS,[g] b. N.J. ca. 1832, who d. 3 Sept. 1888 and was buried in the same cemetery. Their home was in New Elizabeth, Hendricks Co., in 1860 (census, p. 801), where widow Susan Tout, milliner, lived in 1870 (p. 497), and in 1880 as a hotel keeper (p. 5). Children, from these censuses and Sparks Cemetery inscriptions, surname Tout: 1. Charles S.[5], b. ca. 1857. 2. Elizabeth S., b. 11 June 1858, d. 23 Aug. 1882. 3. Lydia Ellen, b. 2 April 1860, d. 25 Jan. 1882. 4. William D., b. after 1860, d. 12 Sept. 1863.

e. GEORGE M., b. Ohio ca. 1834 (1850 census), d. Hendricks Co. 29 March 1853, aged 19y.[h]

f. SALLY, b. [say 1835], is mentioned in her grandmother Sally Tout alias Miller's 1842 will as her "grandchild, daughter of John Tout." She is accounted for in 1840 as a female in her father's home, b. 1835-1840, but d. apparently before May

g. WILLIAM, b. Ind. ca. 1837 (1840 through 1880 censuses), d. Hendricks Co. in 1923, his birth year on a tombstone in Sparks Cemetery apparently misread as 1833. He m. Hendricks Co., 10 March 1864, MELISSA HOLLIS,[a] b. Ky. in 1834, who d. Hendricks Co. in 1929 and was buried in the same cemetery. A grave marker shows that William served during the Civil War in Co. A, 51st Indiana Volunteer Infantry. His home in 1870 was in Middle Township, Hendricks Co. (census, p. 486) adjacent to his mother and brother John. He was still there in 1880 adjacent to his mother's home (House No. 244). Children, from these censuses and Sparks Cemetery inscriptions, surname Tout: 1. Virgil Homer[5], b. 16 Aug. 1868, d. 28 Feb. 1897. 2. Anna M., b. ca. 1872. 3. Mary O., b. ca. 1876.

h. JOHN W., b. Ind. ca. 1838 (1840 through 1870 censuses), d. apparently between 1870 and 1874. He m. Hendricks Co., 4 April 1864, ELIZABETH ELLIS,[b] b. Ind. ca. 1848 (1870 and 1880 censuses), who m. there (2), as his second wife, William W. Coffman,[c] b. Tenn. ca. 1831. John and Elizabeth's home in Middle Township was next to his mother in 1870 (census, p. 486). In 1880 William and Elizabeth Coffman's home in Brown Township (p. 15) included five elder Coffman children, child Charles O. Coffman, aged 1y, and "stepdaughter" Sarah J. Tout, aged 9y. These censuses and Sparks Cemetery inscriptions imply children, surname Tout: 1. Infant Son[5], d. 25 March 1866, aged 3d. 2. Ellis R., b. 14 Nov. 1867, d. 21 June 1872. 3. Infant Daughter, d. 10 Nov. 1869. 4. Sarah J., b. ca. 1871.

i. JOSEPH B., whose tombstone in Sparks Cemetery is read "son of J & S Tout died Nov. 7, 1812 [sic], 1y 1m 22d." The year, obviously mistaken, was most likely 1842.

j. LORENZO D., b. Ind. ca. 1843 (1850 through 1880 censuses); m. Hendricks Co., 3 July 1879, NELLIE F. BRADBURY,[d] b. N.C. ca. 1860 (1880 census, Middle Township, House No. 245). In 1850, 1860, and 1870, Lorenzo was living with his mother on a farm in Middle Township. She continued to reside with him after he married. Child, Sparks Cemetery inscription, perhaps others, surname Tout: 1. Mertie M. M.[5] (no dates).

iii. LYDIA, b. Fleming Co., Ky., 2 Dec. 1802, d. Hendricks Co., Ind., 13 April 1875, aged 73.[e] She m. Fleming Co., 21 May 1822 (bond), JOHN MONEY,[f] b. Pa. 13 May 1794, d. Hendricks Co. 22 May 1860.[g] Lydia is accounted for in her father's home in 1810 as a female b. 1800-1810. John Money's home in Fleming County in 1830 (census, p. 64) included five children, two males and three females. They moved to Hendricks Co. by 1840 when six children were at home (census, p. 38). Their home was in Middle Township in 1850 (p. 147), and Lydia was living

iv. MARY, b. [say 1804], accounted for as a female, b. 1800-1804, in her father's home in 1810 and 1820, d. after the 1840 census but before Oct. 1842, when her mother's will mentioned her as her deceased daughter Polly. She m. Fleming Co., 3 May 1827, JOHN KIRKPATRICK,[b] b. 1800-1810, perhaps the son John, b. ca. 1802, of Samuel and Martha (Bemberg) Kirkpatrick of Flemingsburg, Ky.[c] John Kirkpatrick's home in 1830 was near his father-in-law Benjamin Tout in Fleming Co. (census, p. 70), but he was in Hendricks Co., Ind., before the 1840 census (p. 30). Children listed in 1830 and 1840, none yet identified: a. Male, b. 1825-1830. b. Female, b. 1825-1830. c. Male, b. 1830-1835. d. Female, b. 1830-1835. e. Female, b. 1835-1840.

v. SALLY, b. [say 1806], but accounted for in her father's home in 1810 and 1820 as a female b. 1805-1810, d. probably before the 1840 census date but certainly before Oct. 1842 when her mother's will mentioned her as her deceased daughter Sally. She m. Hendricks Co., 11 Feb. 1836, JOHN S. HEATH.[d] His household has not been located in 1840 or 1850.

vi. BAZIL, b. Ky. 12 Aug. 1808 (computed), d. Hendricks Co. 28 April 1883, aged 74y 8m 16d.[e] He m. (1) Brown Co., Ohio, 16 Oct. 1827, MARTHA B. BONWELL,[f] b. Va. 15 April 1805 (computed), who d. Hendricks Co. 18 Dec. 18[6]0, aged 55y 8m 3d,[g] a younger sister of the wife of Bazil's brother John Tout above. Bazil m. (2), by 1862, ELIZA (____), b. Ky., ca. 1830 (1870 census) or Ind. (1880 census). An Eliza Tout, "living north of Pittsboro," d. 10 Sept. 1893.[h] Bazil is accounted for in his father's Fleming Co. home in 1810 and 1820 as a male b. 1805-1810. He went to Brown Co., Ohio, by 1827 (date of marriage), where his home in 1830 was near his brothers William and John in Pleasant Township. His household included a male child under five years, but no children of school age. Children's birth places reported in the 1850 census imply that he moved from Ohio to Hendricks Co. between 1832 and 1835, so he must have been the Basil Tout, Jr., who recorded 160 acres there 14 Nov. 1834;[i] the suffix evidently to distinguish him from his uncle Bazil already there. His home was in Middle Township, P.O. Pittsboro, in censuses from 1840 through 1880. He was recorded in 1850 as "Prot. M. Clergyman," but "farmer" afterward. He reported in 1880 that his parents were born in Pennsylvania. Children, surname Tout, by first wife, Martha B. Bonwell:

a. BENJAMIN ARTHUR[4], b. Ohio 6 Aug. 1827 (sic, perhaps 1828), d. Hendricks Co. 20 July 1854, aged 26y 11m 14d.[a]

b. JAMES W., b. Ohio ca. 1831 (1850 and 1860 censuses), d. probably not long after 1862, perhaps in the Civil War. He m. before 1860 (see children) ARTEMACY STAYTON, b. Ohio ca. 1834, living Higginsport, Brown Co., Ohio, in June 1880 (census, p. 340). James and Artemacy's home was in Clay Township, Morgan Co., Ind., in 1860 (census, p. 745), P.O. Brooklyn, where they had a few-month-old child Martha. In 1880 Artemacy Tout appears as his "daughter" in the Higginsport home of Solomon Stayton, a 73-year-old "widowered farmer." The home included "granddaughters," surname Tout: 1. Martha[5], b. Ind. ca. 1860. 2. Susanna, b. Ind. ca. 1862.

c. SARAH ANN, b. Ohio ca. 1833 (1850 and 1860 censuses); m. Hendricks Co., 18 Aug. 1859, her second cousin, JOHN TOUT[4] WATERS, b. Hendricks Co. ca. 1836, d. Indianapolis in 1872, son of Philip[3] Waters (Isaac[2], [____[1]]). See Waters Family, No. 2. v. g. John Tout Waters was a carpenter and mechanic, designer and builder of many houses standing in Pittsboro in 1921, and served during the Civil War in Co. C., 25th Indiana Regiment.[b] No children are yet known.

d. WILLIAM T., b. Ind. ca. 1835 (1850 and 1860 censuses); m Hendricks Co., 16 Dec. 1858, SARAH E. MONOW,[c] b. Ohio ca. 1835. Their home adjacent to his parents in Middle Township in 1860 (p. 789) included no children. A Sarah E. Tout d. Danville 8 June 1907, age unstated.[d] e. MARGARET S., b. Ind. ca. 1837 (1850 through 1880 censuses); m. Hendricks Co., 29 Aug. 1869, WILLIAM T. ENGLISH,[e] b. Ky. ca. 1846. Their home in the Village of Pittsboro in 1880 (census, p. 3) included a child, surname English: 1. Austin, b. Ind. ca. 1872.

f. ELIZA JANE, b. Ind. ca. 1843 (1850 and 1860 censuses); m. Hendricks Co., 31 May 1877, ASA A. SIMMONS.[f]

Children by second wife, Eliza (____), all b. Indiana:

g. ROBERT E., b. ca. 1862, d. Pittsboro 25 Dec. 1906, aged 44;[g] m. Hendricks Co., 5 Nov. 1882, his second cousin, once revoved, ELIZA J. WATERS,[h] b. Ind. ca. 1858, daughter of Benjamin[4] Waters (Philip[3], Isaac[2], [____[1]]) of Middle Township. See Waters Family, No. 2. v. a. Child, perhaps others, surname Tout: *1. Hendricks Co. 10 Feb. 1874, aged 56y 6m 17d,[d] presumably daughter of the Benjamin Davis in their household in Middle Township in 1850, b. Pa. ca. 1776 (census, House No. 1001). James m. (2) MARY ANN (____), b. Ky. ca. 1840, his "wife" in Middle Township in 1880 (census, p. 10), who survived him. Their home in 1880 included a "granddaughter" Sarah F. Davis, b. Ind. ca. 1864. James is accounted for as one of two males, b. 1810-1815, in his father's Fleming Co. home in 1820 and 1830. Most likely, he came directly to Hendricks Co. with his parents, rather than joining his older brothers first in Brown Co., Ohio. In 1874 James M. (sic) Tout, "farmer and painter" of Brownsburg, was said to have been born in Kentucky in 1812 and settled in Hendricks County in 1833.[e] He reported in 1880 that his father was b. in Md. and his mother in Pa., contradicting his brother Bazil. His will dated Hendricks Co., 24 Dec. 1889 and proven 8 Aug. 1890, named wife Mary Ann, children Jonathan W. Tout and Nancy Jones, and grandchildren Sarah F. Smith and Ora Bradshaw; Sherman Waters and James N. Wills witnesses. Widow Mary Ann Tout waived the will and assumed her rights under Indiana intestate law.[f]

Children of James N. and first wife, Elizabeth (Davis), surname Tout:

a. FEMALE[4], b. [say 1839], but 1835-1840 (1840 census, Hendricks Co., p. 731).

b. MARY JANE, b. Ind. ca. 1841 (1850 census). She was perhaps mother of the "grandchildren" Sarah F. Smith and Ora Bradshaw mentioned in her father's will.

c. SARAH ANN, b. Ind. ca. 1843 (1850 and 1860 censuses); m. Hendricks Co., 4 July 1865, ROBERT L. POWERS,[g] b. Ind. ca. 1843. Their home in Center Township in 1880 (census, p. 9) included children, all b. Ind., surname Powers: 1. Orlando, b. ca. 1866. 2. Florence, b. ca. 1869. 3. Chester, b. ca. 1870. 4. Pearl, b. ca. 1876.

d. JOHN W. ("Jonathan W." in father's will), b. "near Danville," Hendricks Co., 3 Aug 1843 (aged 6y in 1850), d. of "fracture of right femer" at Thayer, Neosho Co., Kansas, 11 Nov. 1925, aged 82y 3m 8d.[h] His Civil War pension file includes a certificate of his marriage at Danville, 21 Oct. 1866, to EMMA HOLLETT,[i]

Boy Child*[5], d. infancy. 2. Harley E., b. 5 June 1868. 3. Anna C., b. 22 Dec. 1869. 4. Thomas Milby, b. 28 Dec. 1871. 5. Montana A., b. 20 July 1884.

e. NANCY C., b. Ind. ca. 1845;[b] m. Hendricks Co., 15 April 1863, RICHARD B. JONES,[c] b. Ind., ca. 1835. Their home in Center Township in 1880 (census, p. 26) included children, all b. Ind., surname Jones: 1. William E., b. ca. 1864. 2. Willis, b. ca. 1865. 3. Edee, b. ca. 1877.

viii. ROBERT M., b. Ky. ca. 1813 (1850 census); m. Hendricks Co., 20 June 1837, LAVINA M. MOBERLY,[d] b. Ky. ca. 18 Robert is accounted for as the second m, b. 1810-1815, in his father's Fleming Co. home in 1820 and 1830. No doubt he came directly to Hendricks Co. with his parents before 1836, when he acquired three 40-acre tracts in Township 17.[e] His Hendricks Co. household in 1840 (p. 731) included only himself and his wife, both aged 20-29. They were in Center Township in 1850 (p. 37), but they are not yet located in subsequent records.

Children of Robert M. and Lavina M. (Moberly), from 1850 census, surname Tout:[f]

a. SARAH A.[4], b. Ind. ca. 1842.

b. WESLEY B., b. Ind. ca. 1844.[g]

c. ELIZABETH J., b. Ind. ca. 1847.

ix. BENJAMIN F., b. Ky. ca. 1816 (1850 and 1860 censuses); m. Hendricks Co., 15 Dec. 1836, MARTHA ANN MOBERLY,[h], b. Ky. ca. 1818, presumably a close relative of his brother Robert's wife. Benjamin is accounted for as the male, b. 1816-1820, in his father's Fleming Co. home in 1820 and 1830. He arrived in Hendricks Co. before 9 Nov. 1836 when he recorded 40 acres in Township 17;[i] however, he seems not to be one of the two Benjamin Touts recorded with households in Hendricks Co. in 1840. His home was in Center Township in 1850 (census, p. 36) and 1860, P.O. Danville (p. 506). He is not yet located in later records.

Children, from the censuses cited, surname Tout:

a. ELIZA M.[4], b. Ind. ca. 1839.

b. HENRY C., b. Ind. ca. 1844, served from Hendricks Co. in the Civil War, 117th

Leonard Grimes, Private in Penn Line. Five years with General Anthony Wayne six Battles. Trenton, Princetown, Brandywine, Germantown, Monmouth and Stoney Point and Wintered with Washington at Valley Forge. Proven in SAR and DAR

INSTRUCTIONS

If your descent from a Loyalist is direct, you need only use Section A to display the lineage. You need not trace the Patriot lineage.

If your descent from a Loyalist is collateral and the Loyalist and Patriot share the same line as either brothers or cousins, trace back to the Patriot ancestor in Section A. Then in Section B, trace the Patriot's line back to the first ancestor he shares in common with the Loyalist ancestor. This ancestor cannot be more distant than a great-great grandfather. In Section C, trace the line down from that first ancestor to the Loyalist ancestor.

If your descent from a Loyalist is collateral, but the Patriot ancestor and the Loyalist ancestor are not related, use Section A to trace back to your direct ancestor of the Revolutionary Generation who is collaterally related to the Loyalist. Use Section B to trace the line of the ancestor of the Revolutionary Generation back to the first ancestor he or she shares in common with the Loyalist ancestor. This ancestor cannot be more distant than a great-great grandfather. Use Section C to trace the line down from that first ancestor to the Loyalist ancestor.

Proof must be furnished for each statement of birth, marriage and death. Cite title, author, volume and page number of printed authorities. File certified or photostatic copies of unpublished records.

olas County would be incomplete without a sketch of this, the oldest resident representative of a family that has figured in the history of the county for nearly a century. His grandfather, John Parks, came to Pennsylvania from the North of Ireland, about the year 1740, being at that time about seven years of age; he married a Miss Galbreath, who was of Scotch birth, and who bore him six children, five sons and one daughter. He was a tailor by trade; served throughout the Revolutionary War; came to Kentucky in 1788, and settled at the mouth of Steele's Run, near Millersburg. James Parks, the father of our subject, was born in Pennsylvania, May 6, 1763; came to Kentucky in 1788, having married in Pennsylvania, Miss Jane Entrikin, of a very old and noted Scotch family. Before he became of age, he was sent to carry some clothing to his father in the Revolutionary war, and did not return till the close of the war. Upon his arrival in Kentucky, he settled at the mouth of Steele's Run, where he remained for a short time. Moved to Carlisle in 1800, and engaged in farming and distilling; removed to Licking River in 1804, locating at what is now termed Park's Ferry, where he engaged in milling, pork packing and general merchandising (see history of Fleming Creek and Cassidy Creek Mills). He was a man of remarkable business capacity, and did more perhaps, than any other man of his day in developing the natural resources of his county. He was not without political honor, having been elected by the people of Bourbon County, to the Lower House of the General Assembly, in 1798. He was in the Senate from Fleming County continually, from 1806 to 1822, and was once afterward in the Legislature from Nicholas, and once in the Senate from Nicholas and Bracken. He died May 6, 1836, aged exactly seventy-three years. T. S. Parks, whose portrait appears in this work, was born and raised where he now resides, at Park's Ferry. Received his early education at the academy in Paris, under the instruction of Ebenezer Sharp; was a fair English, and at that day considered a good Latin scholar. Upon leaving the academy, he taught school for a couple of years. In 1828, he hired himself to George Robinson, to manage a drove of hogs to Richmond. In 1831, in connection with John N. Congleton, he purchased a half interest in the store of his brother-in-law, John Carter, at Gill's Mills, in Bath County; he afterwards located at his present farm, a magnificent estate of some 300 acres. In his seventy-seventh year, as President of the Washington Manufacturing and Mining Company, he assumes a great part of the labor in managing their extensive business. Our subject was the eighth son and eleventh of fourteen children. On the 11th of January, 1838, he married Elizabeth Ingram Dorsey, daughter of John and Nancy Spires Dorsey, of Fleming County. They have four children, all living, viz: Nancy Jane, Nancy Pickett, married Rev. Joseph M. Scott, from Virginia, now living in Waverly, Missouri; Cora B. married James T. Layman, prominent hardware merchant of Indianapolis, Ind., of the firm of Layman & Cary; John Steele married Elizabeth Howell, of Carlisle. Col. Parks represented Nicholas and Fleming Counties in the Legislature, in 1851 and 1853; elected again in 1867, and served two years, at which time he secured an appropriation of $75,000, to pay for and remove the dams from Licking River, and thus cleared it for navigation. Had his views upon this subject been carried out, it would no doubt have been of great benefit to the counties lying adjacent to that stream. Mr. Parks is a thorough Democrat. He claims the Presbyterian Church as his choice, in which his father held the office of elder for forty years, and of which all his family are members.

JOHN B. SHANNON, farmer; P. O. Blackhawk; was born in Nicholas County, Nov. 27, 1827; he is a son of Robt. Shannon, who was raised in Kentucky; was farmer, trader, and merchant, and died Oct. 4, 1877, and Frances Berry, daughter of Col. Robert Berry, who took an active part in the early struggles with the Indians. John B. Shannon was one of ten children; he received a limited education in Nicholas County, and up to the present time has devoted his attention to farming. He married, Feb. 2, 1851, Elmira Campbell, daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth (Robinson) Campbell, of Nicholas County. They have had ten children, six of whom survive: Robert, Emerson W., John W., Samuel, Thomas J., and Mary F. Mr. Shannon is a Republican in politics, and his wife is a member of the Christian Church at Mt. Zion.

T. M. TOUT, farmer; P. O. Davidson; born in Hendricks County, Ind., Dec. 4, 1833. His great-grandfather was an Irishman, and marrying an English lady, they came to Kentucky and settled in Fleming County. Basil Tout, grandfather of T. M., was born in Fleming County, and was a soldier of the war of 1812. His son, Abram Tout, was also in that war. Basil Tout was a bricklayer and farmer; moved to Indiana in 1833, and died in that State about 1854. Andrew Tout, father of our subject, was born in Fleming County; married Rebecca Powell; sold out in 1833 and moved to Indiana. Taught school for several years; served for several years as Constable, and afterwards elected Sheriff of Hendricks County. He also served as Assessor of same County from 1854 till the war; elected Captain of a Militia Company, and died in Indiana, 1880, aged seventy. T. M. Tout was raised in Indiana as a farmer, also learning the trade of engineer and surveyor. He came to Kentucky in 1858 and ran a sawmill in Fleming County. Came to the Upper Blue Licks in 1858, and in Sept., 1859, married Martha Ann, daughter of Elijah Colliver of Montgomery County. Has nine children, all of whom are living; named respectfully, Nannie R., John T., Andrew E., Sarah E., George, Hattie L., Mary A., Fannie R., and Willie A. He had four brothers in the late war, three of whom were in the Union army and one, John L., in the Southern army under Humphrey Marshall. Mr. Tout has been a member of Fitchmonger (Masonic) Lodge for nine years. Both himself and wife are members of the Christian Church at Mt. Zion. Politically he is a Democrat.

H. C. THROCKMORTON, farmer; P. O. Pleasant Valley Mills; born in Nicholas County, Dec. 21, 1830. His great grandfather came from Virginia and settled on Johnson Creek. His grandfather, John I. Throckmorton, came also from Virginia when quite a youth. The father of our subject, also named Jno. L., was raised in Nicholas County, farmer, died in May, 1853; his wife, Lucy Holladay, survived him two years. H. C. Throckmorton received most of his education from the academy at Millersburg, under the tutorage of Richard Todd and other teachers of that day. March 11, 1852, he married in Nicholas County Parmelia, daughter of Grayson and and Ellen (Cook) Hughes of Nicholas County. They have two children, Ellmore and Robert. Mr. Throckmorton, has devoted his life to agricultural pursuits and by industry and economy has acquired quite a handsome estate; his farm contains some 400 acres in Nicholas County, most of it located in Pleasant Valley, and unexcelled in point of fertility. He is an ardent Democrat; his wife is a member of the Christian Church at Stony Creek.

T. W. VAUGHAN, farmer; P. O. Davidson; born in Fleming County, April 14, 1848. His grandfather, James Vaughan, was raised in Nicholas County; farmer, died about 1830. Thomas Vaughan, father of T. W., born and raised near the Upper Blue Licks; farmer, died June 20, 1873. T. W. Vaughan married Feb. 2, 1873, Fanny, daughter of John and Lucinda (Chrisman) Clark, of Fleming County. He is the father of two children, one of whom, Willie T., died in infancy, the other is still living, a bright boy of two summers. Mr. Vaughan is part owner of the Upper Blue Licks Mill, a history of which appears elsewhere. He is a member of Fitchmonger (Masonic) Lodge. Himself and wife are members of the Christian Church at Mt. Zion. Politics, Democrat.

WM. S. WILLS, farmer; P. O., Moorefield; born in Montgomery County, Oct. 31, 1824. His grandfather, Wm. Wills, came from Virginia about the year 1800, and settled on the waters of Slate Creek in what is now Menifee County, where he devoted his attention to farming. He was a man quite noted in military history, though his humbler positions have made him less famous than many whose deeds are no more worthy of record. He began his soldier life under Gen. Braddock when only thirteen years of age, and was a witness of the disastrous failure of that haughty commander. He bore an honorable part in the war of the Revolution, and when we were involved with England a second time in 1812, he did not consider himself too old to render all assistance in his power—serving under Gen. St. Clair, of whom he was an ardent admirer. He died in Menifee County about 1836. Wm. S. Wills, the subject of this sketch, was the oldest of seven children. His opportunities for obtaining an education in youth were very limited, having been compelled to work to support himself and mother till he was twenty-six years of age. In 1850 he married Eliza, daughter of Robert and Sarah (Whaley) Stone, of Bath County, by whom he has seven children, all living, namely: J. C., John S., Albert M., Louisa, Leroy, Laura and L. W. At the time of his marriage, according to his own statement, he had but fifteen cents left after paying his fee. He bought 500 acres of land on Slate Creek for $900, and by almost superhuman exertion, managed to pay for the same within four years, teaching school and working for wages during the day and working on his house at night. At the outbreak of the Civil war, he was led into a debate with a Methodist preacher upon the subject of slavery, from which time he was marked as a rebel. His location between the Union troops and the lawless raiders who took refuge in the mountains of Kentucky, was an unfortunate one for him. He was elected Captain of a company, but was soon captured by order of Col. Wm. Craig and thrown into prison at Mt. Sterling. He took the oath and endeavored to live a citizen, but his well known political principles made him a target for those in power. His thrilling adventures and hair-breadth escapes during that four years would fill a volume in itself, and need not be detailed here. In June, 1862, he bought the store and stock of goods of L. M. Stone, at Bald Eagle, in Bath County, for $3,500, and carried on a good trade for a while. In 1863 the store was robbed and he moved to Little Flat, in Bath County, on Licking river. In the course of three or four years he accumulated sufficient to purchase his present farm of 120 acres, where he has resided since. In 1869, he was elected Magistrate of his

Dear Miss Anderson:

Thank you for past favors.

Here are the records that I promised, compiled over a over a long period of years, much searching and considerable expense but interesting.

All are fully Documented expelling all doubt for a novice researcher.

Mug books I have found have little value except location. Nice for people who are not inclined to search too deep.

I was prompted by them into research to disprove them.

I am stripping my files as next Sunday Jan. 15 I will be 75, and as I have been helped by some beautiful people I am pleased to submit them. I will send another packet at a later date,

Sincerely,

Mr. Lyman D. Tout

Dear Ms. Shirley,

Having just recently returned from a vacation, I was pleased and surprised to find your envelope in my stack of mail. This late reply does not show lack of interest on my part!

Your Tout Family Reconstruction is very thorough. I particularly appreciate the outline format used, with source of information designations on each line. This makes it all so much more clear than the paragraph form used so often in other correspondence that I have received. (An aside: have you taken courses on genealogical research? My experience basically has been with other amateurs - the interest is there, but not the training.)

You asked if I would be interested in copies of proof presented to NSDAR and The Hereditary Order of Descendants of Loyalists and Patriots of the American Revolution, concerning Abraham Tout's Revolutionary War service. The answer is yes, I would be very interested in receiving such proof.

Next, you mentioned your suspicions concerning Sarah McKee's relationship as sister to David and daughter to William (neighbor). Yes, please keep me posted on your investigation.

We seem to be of the same generation, so to speak, descended from Benjamin G. Tout (sixth generation). All of this research does make the world, or at least the United States seem smaller!

I attempted a comparison of your reconstruction with the draft, Touts of Fleming County, Kentucky that I received from Gale Ion Harris of East Lansing, Michigan (perhaps you have already seen this, through Carol Stultz of Danville, IN? Dr. Harris is connected to the Touts through Isaac Waters, nephew to uncle Bazel, mentioned in a will dated January 1813, Brown County, OH.) This brings some basic differences to light:

1. [Page 3] A third child of William Tout (son of Benjamin G.) could be:

a. (quoting, p. 15) Sarah, b. ca. 1823 (1850 census, erroneously giving her birthplace as Indiana), and said to be living in Brown Co., Ohio in 1883 (letter of Carolyn J. Stultz, Danville, IN, 6 Jan. 1990); m. in Hendricks Co., IN, 5 April 1839, BENJAMIN CRABB (HCMR, 2:50), b. in Ohio ca. 1819, perhaps son of Vincent Crabb who had two children of school age in Pleasant Township, Brown Co., in 1830 (Carl N. Thompson, Historical Collections of Brown County, Ohio, Piqua, Ohio, 1969, p. 221). The list of their children in 1850 implies that they moved from Indiana back to Pleasant Township (p. 564) between 1840 and 1843. Children, from 1850 census, perhaps others later, surname Crabb: LOUIS E., b. in IN ca. 1840; WILLIAM V., b. there ca. 1841; MARY E., b. in OH ca. 1843; JAMES, b. in OH ca. 1846; and ELIZABETH, b. in OH ca. 1849. [NOTE see your p. 5, Miscellaneous Early Touts]

b. Also, the Missouri source, History of Cass and Bates County, 1883, referring to William H. Tout's family: "one brother, Benjamin, lives in Jasper County, MO" and a "sister, Sarah Crabb, lives in Brown County, OH."

2. [NOTE Page 3, Line II., 2, 2] It's rather strange, this entry: if the brother Benjamin d. 9 July 1836, Hendricks Co., IN, then 1) his marriage to Abigail could not take place 17 Jan 1840, and 2) he could not be living in Missouri in 1883 as mentioned above.

My information was that he died 11 April 1901, Danville Republican P.1, Col.5, dated 23 May 1901, as follows:

Benjamin Tout, the subject of this sketch, born in Brown Co., OH May 14, 1819 and died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. America Chambers of Ottowa, KS April 11, 1901. He had lived 81 years 10 months 27 days. He leaves an aged widow and four children to mourn his loss.

Mrs. Molly Wilhite, Mrs. Della White, reside in California, Mrs. America Chambers in Kansas and Rev. J. T. Tout in Oregon.

Mr. Tout has spent most of his life in Hendricks County, IN near Clayton where he had resided some years prior to his removal to the west. He was a veteran of the war having volunteered in 1861 and was a member of the 79th Indiana. He served just a few months when his health gave way and he was discharged from service. He was a republican and a member of the Christian Church.

Also, see 1878 Atlas, from the Danville Library, P. 47, Personal Histories, Hendricks Co., Liberty TWP on Benjamin TONT, Benjamin G. Tout's grandson, through William and Eleanor (Hurst) Tout. I realize you already have a copy of this, for you referred to it on your p. 3.

There has likely been some confusion concerning Benjamin Tout and Benjamin F. Tout. Their birthdates match [Your P. 4, #7].(and p. 3 # II, 2, 2)

3. [Page 1] An indication that Abraham Toutt, Sr. was of Irish heritage (b. 1752 PA - NSDAR #606791) is new to me and of great interest! This is definitely our Abraham? When did he or his ancestors arrive, to what port, and from which Irish county -- or are those answers hidden, still?

4. [Page 1] The mention of Abraham's wife's name is also new to me! (NSDAR #58787, NSDAR #606791) I'm hoping to track down copies of these in a library soon, either Sioux City's Public Library, or more likely the U. of Nebraska at Lincoln's historical library on campus, which has quite a good collection of genealogical sources. BUT, I don't care for another long car trip any day SOON!

Nevertheless, my interest in genealogy continues. I hope I can work in research time around art/craft pursuits, family/friend obligations, teaching job requirements, creative writing assignment deadlines, and energy level fluctuations with this recent heat!

Thank you for taking the time to share this information with me. Please let me know if there is something more I can share with you. You mentioned that Carolyn Stultz sent research previously done for me; it seems you already have more than I've located, but let me know.

Sincerely,

Verna J. Thompson

Dear Verna,

May I apologize for this long delay in this, your first report on your Tout/Ruggles line. The data was retrieved back in mid-May but due to a graduation of our last sibling at home and the send off given her into the future of today's world, my time disappeared. I have also been travelling with my husband for the past month so this also messed up my schedule.

Enough about me and now back to our research! Upon taking a trip to the Danville Public Library, May 16th, I began checking the data I could find on both Tout and Ruggles. Not much on Ruggles, however.

So concludes what I have found at the library as of this date. I will check without charge the censuses from 1830 on into 1910 as I feel so terrible about not getting this out to you sooner. This will also come from the library and again without a copier on our reader, I will extract by hand, which isn't that much trouble as I will record on a cassette and then type it up after I return home.

I checked the atlas of 1874 with no success on a biographical on either the Ruggles or Tout lines. I can check the Pittsboro Centennial book if you wish, but since it was taken in 1934, after your line had moved, I didn't do it.

(Carol's note*upon checking the cemetery records, you will find that a Sarah D Tout died Aug 22, 1849 and was the wife of Benjamin G Tout. She was 72 years old at the time of her death.)

This concludes the data I have received to date. I will definitely pull up the census records on this Tout line and also search for Ruggles.

I again apologize for this long delay in getting this back to you. I have searched four hours and you therefore have a $5 credit along with the research on above.

I will be glad to take in the courts next. Until I hear from you I will hang in limbo if you wish further checking in this manner.

I thank you for the opportunity of researching your marvelous family. It was an enjoyable experience. I do know there were other French families in Hendricks as another researcher has a most interesting French ancestor. His name was William DeWitt and as the story goes, he was a pirate with the famous Jean LaFeet(sp). There is some history on him in the atlas which states he lived to be over 100 years old, was a school teacher and must have been an interesting gentleman!

Well, I have went on long enough so will close and

DEAR SIRS:

IN ATTEMPTING TO VERIFY FAMILY HISTORY, IT IS NECESSARY TO OBTAIN EVIDENCE OF FAMILY ORIGIN THROUGH RECORDS DATING FROM THE 19TH CENTURY. WE ARE INTERESTED IN RECEIVING COPIES OF RECORDS: DATES AND PLACES OF BIRTH, MARRIAGE AND DEATH.

WHERE APPLICABLE, PLEASE SUPPLY US WITH INFORMATION CONCERNING PREVIOUS STATES AND COUNTIES OF RESIDENCE. IN ADDITION, WE WOULD WELCOME LEGIBLE COPIES OF CENSUS RECORDS INCLUDING THE EARLIEST POSSIBLE TIMES PERTAINING TO FAMILY MEMBERS IN A DIRECT LINE OF DESCENT.

Marriage See Enclosed

ENCLOSED IS A PEDIGREE OF THE TOUT LINE. JAMES WILLIAM TOUT CLAIMED TO HAVE BEEN BORN NEAR BROWNSBURG AND TO HAVE LIVED IN INDIANA UNTIL THE 1870'S. HIS PARENTS WERE APPARENTLY WILLIAM HARRISON TOUT (DR.) AND LUCINDA RUGGLES. ACCORDING TO THE EARLY MARRIAGE INDEX THRU 1850 FOUND IN THE GENEALOGICAL DIVISION, INDIANA STATE LIBRARY, THEIR MARRIAGE DATED APRIL 12, 1844 SHOULD BE ON FILE IN ORIGINAL FORM AT YOUR OFFICE.

ALL INFORMATION IN MY POSSESSION HAS BEEN LISTED. PLEASE FEEL FREE TO FILL IN BLANKS ON THESE FORMS WITH DATA AVAILABLE IN YOUR RECORDS. IN ADDITION, WE WILL BE HAPPY TO PAY NECESSARY FEES FOR PHOTOCOPIES SENT OF SUCH RECORDS.

ALSO ENCLOSED, PLEASE FIND A STAMPED, SELF-ADDRESSED ENVELOPE.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENTION TO THIS RESEARCH. IF SPECIFIC RECORDS ARE NOT AVAILABLE TO YOU, PLEASE SUPPLY THE NAME OF THE OFFICE, STATE AND COUNTY WHERE SUCH INFORMATION COULD BE OBTAINED.

Dear Verna,

While going through some of my micro-film I run across the following and decided to send it to you as there may be a clue of locating a history on the Tout family in Nebraska.

This old publication was quite interesting and when I run across the Tout name and began reading, I realized this Joseph Allen Tout was a Hendricks County Tout.

You may already know about this but it doesn't hurt to make note here. Also there may be some history in a Nebraska library or maybe a descendant of Joseph's line.

Dear Verna,

Glad to hear from you and sorry but I hadn't received anything since my last letter???? I guess I just assumed what I sent was sufficient. I wish I had a copy of what you sent????

Oh, the data you sent leads us to believe that the Grandparents of your W H Tout is Benjamin and Sarah (alias Miller) Tout. If you will note in Sarah (Sally) Tout's will, she gives her surviving children and also the children of her deceased children: "William, etc." I feel this is your line, don't you?

We know that the parents of William Harrison Tout are: William Tout and Eleanor Hurst.

Following are census records on Touts' of Hendricks County, IN.

1840 HENDRICKS COUNTY, INDIANA FEDERAL CENSUS - TOUT

Benjamin Tout	3 males 5-10yrs	1 female 10-15yrs
	1 male 20-30yrs	1 female 20-30yrs

Upon assumption here, this Benjamin Tout is probably the Benjamin F. Tout that marries Martha Ann Moberly 15 Dec 1836 at Hendricks Co IN. Doesn't it seem strange, the ages of the children here?? There's a possibility that the ages are in error on the census???

Robert Tout 1 male 20-30yrs 1 female 20-30yrs - s. O Bazil & Martha B.

Note this couple has children ranging in ages much older that you would expect. Interesting?

Benjamin Tout
	1 male 15-20yrs	1 female 20-30yrs

I would say that here is an extra male. However it could also be a farm hand, brother to the wife, etc???

I believe that Sarah Tout married after the death of her husband, Benjamin Tout. We find a marriage of a Sarah Tout to Henry Miller Sep 26 1843 Book 2 Page 205 Hendricks Co IN. marriages.

If we check the cemetery records we learn that the above mentioned Benjamin, her first husband died 16 Feb 1839 and is buried next to his wife at the Danville East Cemetery.

Then going to the will of Sarah (Sally) Tout, alias Sarah Miller (see what I mean?), we will list Benjamin and Sarah Tout's children:

John = Basil

1) John Basil Tout had dau Sally Tout as of Oct 1842. He was born (c1809 Basil b.) died (4/28/1883 Basil d.) Mrd to Martha B in 1860 census.
2) Lydia Tout
3) Lucinda Tout born 10/15/1817 died 12/12/1846 mrd Aaron Keith 4 Apr 1837 Bk 1-1/2 Pg 127.

7) William Tout (deceased before Oct 1842) - Could this be Wm Tout of Ohio that mrd Eleanor Hurst c1820s?
8) Polly Tout (dec'd before will Oct 1842) Polly is pet name for Martha.
9) Sarah/Sally Tout (dec'd before will Oct 1842) A Sally Tout mrd Rapael Smith 31 Jan 1833. Also a Sally Tout? mrd John S Heath 2/11/1836 ????

John Tout m. ? Basil m. Martha B.

Benjamin (1776-1839) Tout and wife, Sarah (1777-1849) were probably married about 1796/7. Their firstborn was born c1798/9. Your William Harrison Tout was born in 1825 so assuming this, if his father William was born c1800, dying c1834, there's a possibility that the Benjamin and Sarah of Hendricks Co are his grandparents.

By 1840 we do know that Benjamin is now deceased, Sarah is probably living with a daughter-in-law (not a son or grandson) as she doesn't marry Mr Miller until later. What if the children are listed with someone other than a Tout or Hurst family.

Then your information sent by Gale Harris on his Waters line. From data he shows that in the year of 1834, when your William died, the Touts' of Hendricks Co had already moved from Fleming Co KY. He states that there were three Touts' in KY - Bazil, Benjamin and Abram Tout.

I need to check the census in 1850 and find the Bazil Tout that shows up in the household of George Cassel.

Note the names of your ancestor's children: Benjamin, Abraham, Sarah, James. I feel the James if for the Ruggles line though. I guess we call this a feeling leading in the direction.

I plan on checking the recorder's office on land records which may give us a clue on the parentage and also grandparents. I believe that Bazil and Benjamin were probably brothers, don't you? We need to find Benjamin in the 1820 and 1830 census however. Possibly the Abram Tout of Fleming Co, KY is a father of Bazil and Benjamin??? Lots of questions and we need answers. Hope I can help.

Upon checking through records, I can't seem to find anything that would line up your family. I doubt if school records would be of much assistance. As a matter of fact, I haven't been successful in locating any if there are any.

As you can see, the 1840 census only lists head of household with age ranges. If only they had begun listing the individuals in 1840, it would help. However, we can only guess as to who and what a person is or if related in any one household.

Same way with marriage records. The applications didn't begin until after 1880 in Hendricks County. Therefore, lots of unanswered questions on the records. Sorry!

If Benjamin and Sarah(Sally) Tout are the grandparents, by 1840 Benjamin is deceased, Sally may have the grandchildren but they may live within a household with another family???? Say, maybe one of her daughters, grandsons or grandaughters?

You stated that in the data sent in reference to Benjamin and Sarah as being a brother and sister to your William H Tout.

According to the marriage records, as you say:

Benjamin?
Sarah Tout mrd Abraham Crabb 4/5/1839 Bk 2 Pge 50
Benjamin Tout mrd Abigail McKee 1/7/1840 Bk 2 Pge 72

If the sister lived in Brown Co Ohio in 1883, is it possible there is more information that can be found there? There may be a biographical on The Crabb family giving names of Sarah's family as well as the Crabb family.

Also Benjamin Tout and his wife, Abigail McKee should be checked out in the same manner. Also checking later census records may aid you.

I also have been able to locate an ancestor by a marriage of a collateral line that married later in life, giving some pretty sound information.

Now, you wonder if we have sufficient proof of the grandparents of William Harrison Tout. From all indications it seems to be yes to me. However, the only thing that leads us to believe this is the quote from Sarah/Sally Tout, alias Miller's will which gives her children and one being a deceased William Tout. Not much as we need to find something more solid. What do you think?

I do know that the Tout name is most centralized in Hendricks and they arrived about the same time. I further feel that the males of early Hendricks County are all tied in with the older Bazil and also Benjamin and Sarah (alias Miller) Tout of late 16th century.

The will, I went to the courthouse and pulled it, learning what I have sent. If you like, I will get a photo-copy of it also. They charge a $1 for copying. I also checked the will of James N Tout along with Benjamin Tout. Both of them gave "wife and my children", but no names.

If you like I will go ahead and take a look at the James Ruggles' will. I just didn't bother as you definitely want to learn more on your William Harrison Tout line.

Well, I have went on long enough. Again, I wish I were of more help but just can't break through. Please let me know if you learn anything earthshaking.

Oh, also advise if you wish copies of the wills. I can also check the land records. I may find something interesting there also.

Wishing loads of happy hunting, I remain

Most sincerely,

Dear Verna,

I went to the library yesterday and run across an interesting item in the 1878 Atlas. I think I may have sent this before but not certain. The reason I may have not sent it, in the entry it gives the spelling as TONT which I may have overlooked. So following:

Benjamin Tont, PO Clayton, Farmer, Sec 5, settled near Danville Aug 1836 born in Fleming Co KY May 14, 1819, son of William born Jul 4 1799 died Mar 28 1835 and Eleanor Hurst, born May 3 1798 and died Jul 9 1836. Mrd March 12, 1818. Benjamin was married Jan 14, 1840 to Abigail M McKee, born Jan 30 1818; 12 children, 1) William H b May 7 1841 died Jan 16 1863; 2) Mary E b Oct 18 1844, 3) George W born Feb 22 1846 died Nov 7 1863; 4) Louisa M born June 3 1847 died Jan 12 1852; 5) Benjamin F born Dec 31 1848 died Oct 11 1854; 6) Thomas J born Mar 27 1850 died May 28 1850; 7) Sarilda born Apr 26 1851 died Oct 11 1854; 8) America J born Jun 6 1854 9) John F born June 28 1856 10) Isaac N born Dec 9 1858 died Sep 2 1860; 11) Delano A born Jan 2 1861 12) Delphina M born Aug 22 1862.

David McKee, father of Abigail was born May 4 1791 died Oct 2 1877. Her mother Hannah was born May 3 1785 died July 1862. Mr Benjamin Tout and son William enlisted in the 79th IVI War of the Rebellion. William died Nashville. George W was in the 117th Regt and died in Knoxville, TN.

This is a brother to your William Harrison Tout as it gives the same parents. Note it also gives the birth and death dates of your William and Eleanor (Hurst) Tout. Lucky!

Note also that I photo-copied some records from the courts which give purchasers' names from the sale of your Benjamin G Tout's estate in 1839.

Note I called him yours. I am positive he is yours.

Again we return to Sally Tout, alias Miller which lists her children, one being the William that is deceased. Sally is the widow of Benjamin G Tout which we have quite a bit of information on (cemetery, will, etc). However, in the will he doesn't list children as Sally does.

Another interesting state of affairs was while at the library, I pulled the guardianship records which are at the Courthouse but a lot easier to access at the library.

Guardianship Book 1 1847-1850 Probate

Proceedings of Court and Date of Settlement - Bond filed, letters issued May Term 1848 - February Term 1850 Bonds approved.

November Term 1850 On the application of security on Bond and sufficient reasons. . . . . The guardianship is removed and letters revoked.

Docket of Guardianship

Guardian - Othniel Payne
Wards - Lucinda Tout, James F Tout, George M Tout, William Tout, Lorenzo D Tout.

Mortality Schedule of Hendricks County, IN 1850

East Half of Hendricks County
Thomas J Tout 2mos, b/p Indiana/ died April 1850, cause unknown. Ill 60 days. (Page 469)

Louisa A Tout 2mos b/p Indiana, Died May 1850, of consumption, ill 60 days. (page 469)

This is the extent of what I found on your family. The family history seems to be the most interesting of all as it gives the birth and death of both William and Eleanor. It also gives an indication that William along with Benjamin are sons of William & Eleanor and I still feel both are the grandchildren of Benjamin G and Sally Tout.

I will close for now. If there is anything else I can do, please advise. Also, the charge for copies this trip was $1 per copy so hope it was okay to get them. There are three pages here making it $3.00.

I was researching for another person when I found all this so will charge only $5.00 for this making the amount $8.00. Hope this is okay also.

Hoping this will aid in your endeavors. I feel it has helped lots. The list of the guardianship is probably for another Tout grandson though as there were a couple we find in the cemetery records that died young.

Until later,

Happy Hunting!

Dear Verna,

Please find enclosed, a copy of James Ruggles will. Low and behold, this is your Lucinda's papa! Note she is listed in it. I will type this for you as the copy isn't that terrific. I believe the clerk's office may have a puny copier as I couldn't get it any darker than it is. Sorry!

JAMES RUGGLES WILL - BOOK 3 PAGE 442

I James Ruggles of Hendricks County in the State of Indiana do make and publish this my last will and testament hereby revoking and making void any former wills by me at any time heretofore made.

First - I desire that my body be decently buried and that my funeral be conducted in a manner corresponding with my estate and situation in life and as to such worldly estate as it has pleased God to entrust me with. I dispose of the same in the following manner to-wit: I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my decease as possible out of the first moneys that shall come to the hands of my executor from any portion of my estate, real or personal. I direct that all the real estate of which I shall be seized, or possessed, shall be sold by my Executor for its reasonable value in cash or on such credit and the amount thereof secured in such a manner as is usual in such cases to insureth full and punctual payment thereof and to effectuate this my intention I hereby vest my Executor with full power and authority to dispose of my real estate in fee simple or for a term of years or otherwise, in as full and ample a manner in every respect as I could myself do if living, further I direct that all my personal property be sold at public sale on a credit of such time as is usual in such cases. I also direct that the money when collected be loaned out and the interest given to my wife or a sufficient amount of it for her maintainance while she lives. And I also direct that after my wife's decease that my daughters, to wit: Mahala Mark receive one hundred dollars and that Cynthia White and Mary Reeve receive one hundred dollars each and the heir of Elizabeth Perkins deceased receive one hundred dollars and that Nancy Rayborn have one hundred dollars and that LUCINDA TOUT have one hundred dollars and also my son Silas Ruggles have one hundred dollars, the above named children to have the above named sums each to make them equal with the rest of my children that have received their portion of my estate, and after the above named children have received the above named sums then I direct that the rest of my estate be divided share and share alike amongst all my children and I hereby make and appoint my friend Whitson Nilson Executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I James Ruggles the testator have hereunto set my hand and Seal this fourteenth day of January 1851. Signed: James Ruggles §seal†

I believe the second page (443) is more legible than the first so will not add here.

While at the courthouse I also run across a later will of James N. Tout which I didn't copy but did extract on recorder, as follows:

WILL BOOK 4 PAGE 347 - MAR 1881 TO JAN 1896

I James N. Tout of Hendricks County in the State of Indiana being in usual health for a person of my age and mind and knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death do make and publish this my last will and testament hereby revoking and making void all former wills by me made.

Items 1st - I direct my body be decently buried in a white robe at Sparks Cemetery in a manner of my state and situation in life and that my funeral expenses and debts be paid as soon after my demise as possible and my personal property sold.

Item 2nd - I being the owner in fee simple of 68 1/4 acres in Sec 5, Twp 16N and Range 1E in Hendricks County in the state of Indiana that my wife Mary shall have the full control and use of the foregoing description real estate during her natural life and then after her demise it shall go to my children and grandchildren equally vis 1/4 each, Jonathan W. Tout, Nancy Jones, Sarah F. Smith and Ora Bradshaw, the two first named being my children and the last two named my grandchildren.
I hereby name and appoint my neighbor and friend James N. Wills as executor. In witness I hereunto set my name and seal this the 24th day of December 1889.
Signed: James N. Tout

Signed and acknowledged . . . . .etc.
Sherman Waters & James N Wills
State of Indiana County of Hendricks Before me Enoch G. Hoggatt, Clerk of Circuit Court, personally came James N. Wills subscribed and witnessed the foregoing will. . . .etc. Dated: 8 August 1890 by: Enoch G Hoggatt Widow - - - I Mary N. Tout, widow of James N. Tout, late of the said county, I waive and relinquish all provisions made for me for my late husband by will baring date of December 24, 1889 and will take the said estate as much as provided by the Statutes of Indiana.

Signed: Mary Ann Tout
This was notarized by James M. Wills, Notary Public.

I then went to the Danville Public Library and pulled the obits that you requested upon the micro-film reader, extracted them on recorder and following is same:

Andy Tout, from Danville Union - dated 22 Nov 1877 Page 2 Column 5:
Andy Tout, - On Wednesday, Nov. 21st. Andy Tout passed away, 68 born in Fleming County, Kentucky and came to Danville about 1831 and has resided here ever since.
He was amongst the first school teachers of the town and there are men in the community along in years who remember their school days under him.
He will be missed about the streets of Danville for he was an individual for whom all had a word. He will be buried this afternoon.

Rebecca Tout wife of A. Tout, died Oct 1, 1873 - Taken from the Hendricks County Union October 9, 1783 Page 3 Column 2

Died October 1, 1873 at her home in Danville, Rebecca Tout, of Rose? cancer in the 66th year of her age, born Fleming County, Kentucky October 7, 1803 married A. Tout 1830 and moved to Indiana in 1831 settling in this county where she lived ever since. She raised a family of ten children, seven boys and three girls. She was a kind and faithful companion and good neighbor.

Eliza Tout - From the Danville Republican - dated September 14, 1893 Page 7, Column 4 (index gave page 6)
Mrs Eliza Tout, living north of Pittsboro fell out of her chair Sunday and died before medical aid could reach her. She had been in apparently good health.

Benjamin Tout died April 11, 1901 from Danville Republican Page 1 Column 5 - dated 23 May 1901

Benjamin Tout, the subject of this sketch, born in Brown County, Ohio May 14, 1819 and died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. America Chambers of Ottowa, Kansas April 11, 1901. He had lived 81 years 10 months 27 days. He leaves and aged widow and four children to mourn his loss.

Mrs. Molly Wilhite, Mrs. Della White, reside in California, Mrs. America Chambers in Kansas and Rev. J. T. Tout in Oregon.

Mr. Tout has spent most of his life in Hendricks County, Indiana near Clayton where he had resided some years prior to his removal to the west. He was a veteran of the war having volunteered in 1861 and was a member of the 79th Indiana. He served just a few months when his health gave way and he was discharged from service. He was a republican and a member of the Christian Church.

Needless to say, we have proof that the above Benjamin is a brother to your William Harrison Tout and now note his birth of Brown Co, Ohio. The above Benjamin was your William and Eleanor (Hurst) Tout's firstborn (mrd in 1818 and Benj born 1819) and the usual manner of naming then, was the firstborn male was named for his maternal grandfather.

A most interesting family and also, I wonder if the researcher, Gale I. Harris has ever seen the will of Sally Tout (Alias Miller). Sally doesn't give the last names of any of her married daughters, however there are two deceased daughters, Polly and also Sally. Could it be that one of these girls is one that was married to his Isaac Waters, mother of Philip Waters born c1797 in Kentucky?????

I hope this is what you asked for and it is okay. It doesn't knock your socks off but does lead more to Benjamin Tout and his wife Sarah/Sally being the grandparents. With Benjamin dying in 1839, your Wm H was almost a grown up, he being 14 years old and then his grandmother, Sally was in the 1840 census but where in the world at??? He certainly had a time of it growing up.

Now the information regarding education on Wm H Tout. I pulled what medical information regarding the physicians of early Hendricks County from 1835 to 1909 and I didn't find him listed. I also checked some books that was written on Indiana physicians but again to no avail.

This doesn't mean he wasn't a physician here though. As far as schools were concerned, I do know that Indianapolis had a medical school called the Indianapolis Medical School but I am not educated on this area or if records are available. I could also check with another lady that deals quite a bit in the early medical field if you wish me to check further. I asked in the courthouse if there was a book for license and they had no knowledge of anything in the early records???? Sorry!

Now, the only thing that would be left is to hit the recorder's office and check for land records. There may be some hidden information within these records. I gave you a list of the Touts' we had in our quarterly. However, I could check the index for you if you wish.

This is all I have found at this trip. I worked 2 hours and you paid for the copy alread, however it is such a lousy copy, the balance here is $9.00.

I will close with best wishes and Thank You!

Most sincerely Happy Hunting!
